Nov. 23, 1905.
MR. FRANK M. HAISTON,

DEAR SIR.—You must not admit any child who has not presented a certificate of successful vaccination or smallpox. The law applies to every school in the Commonwealth, and I expect to see that it is enforced.

Yours very truly,

The fourth educational meeting of Tod township, was held at McGovern's school last Friday evening. The meeting was called to order by C. C. Rotz, after which the following questions were taken up and thoroughly discussed by the following teachers, Olive Grissinger, Myrtle Stevens, B. O. Peck, Beckie Rotz, L. P. Morton, Prof. Thomas, Lewis Harris, C. C. Rotz, and E. B. Olue.

The discussions were interspersed by several selections on the graphophone, and also some excellent singing by the school. The order was good allowing the meeting to pass off very creditably to both teacher and pupils.—Blanche O. Peck, secretary.

CLEARED FOR ACTION.

When the body is cleared for action, by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. At Trout's drug store, 25 cents.

There's a Sermon Hidden Here.

"What kind of a church would our church be.

If every member were just like me?"

These lines rhyme well, surely. They jingle like bells. Repeat them; "just like me." Such a churchought to please me. Would it please the Master? What kind of a prayer meeting should we have? Every member "just like me." How about the Sunday school? And the church treasury? How much money would we have? "Just like me." What would the unconverted say of such a church? How soon would God's will be done on earth as it is done in Heaven? Let us say it, and sing it again, and each answer for himself.

"What kind of a church would our church be.

If every member were just like me?"

ROUSS RACKET STORE.

Gentlemen, if you haven't bought an overcoat this fall, and you are going to need one, we have a word to say to you. We bought more overcoats this year than we have in any two years since we are in business, and have sold more. We think we are in a position to save you money on them the same as on other goods. All we ask of you is, that you come in and see our line, and if we can't save you 25 per cent. on your purchase, then don't buy. And, in suits, the same is true. We have overcoats from $2.48 to $7.00; and if the $7.00 coat is not as good as any $10.00 coat you look at, we give up. In men's suits, we have them from $2.35 to $7.75, or to 12.00 if made to order.

Don't let the Jew tell you that he has the Shippensburg 272 linen chain corduroy, unless you see for yourself. The price of this cord is $2.38. We have cheaper ones too, $1.25, $1.75 and $1.88. The $1.88 cord is a fine corduroy and lined with drilling.

By chance we got 3 Rolls of Potter's first quality (the heaviest made) Floor oil cloth in 4-4, 6-4 and 8-4, at 24c. yd. We will agree that there are cheaper ones, but any fair person will tell you that this is the cheapest they ever heard of, this grade selling, think of it, only 24c. yd.
