WEDDING BELLS.

Miss Nannie Sipes, a Former Teacher in This County, Becomes a Pittsburg Bride.

On last Thursday Miss Nannie Sipes, of No. 7 Highland Place, Pittsburg, and Mr. John H. Huber, of Wilkinsburg, were united in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Gregg, of the Mt. Washington church.

At 7:30 o'clock in the evening, Mrs. Soffel at the piano, assisted by her husband, Dr. Soffel, with a flute, pealed forth a wedding march, and the bridal couple marched in, the ceremony was performed, and in a few moments they were pronounced husband and wife.

Among the guests present were F. C. Mumma, wife, and son Donnelly, of Wilkinsburg; C. H. Sipes and wife, of Homewood avenue; Laura P. Palmer, of Highland Place; Phoebe and Katharine Soffel, of Mount Washington; Olive Sipes, of Homewood ave.; and Harry Huber, of Wilkinsburg.

After congratulations had been extended, all retired to the dining room, where a bountiful dinner was served.

The evening was spent in conversation and with music, and many amusing incidents and jokes were related, until about 11 o'clock, when the party dispersed.

The bride is a native of this county, being a daughter of the late G. Runyan Sipes, and was formerly one of our successful teachers. About six years ago, she went to Pittsburg, where, after taking a course of training in a hospital, she entered the profession of trained nurse, which she has since followed, now abandoning it to occupy the position of "queen of the home."

Mr. Huber has resided in Wilkinsburg for a number of years, and holds a lucrative position with the Union Switch and Signal Company of that place.

The happy couple went to housekeeping in Wilkinsburg at once.

Croup, coughs, colds whooping cough, etc., have no terrors for children or adults who evacuate the bowels with Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. This remedy expels all cold from the system and strengthens the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes.

A Surprise.

A very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Rev. S. J. Pittenger and wife at Harri-sonville, by the members and friends of the Siloam M. E. church on last Saturday. The donation consisted of all kinds of good things to eat—both for the Reverend and his horse.

Among those who came, were: J. W. Hoop and wife, G. W. Decker and wife, L. W. Schooley and wife, Charles Schooley and wife, Chas. Schooley and wife, Richard Schooley and wife, John Mumma, wife and daughter Julia; Mack Sipe, wife, and daughter Helen; David Strat and wife; Nevin Strat and wife, Fannie Sipe, Stella Hollinshead and daughter Lena, Eva Gress and son Melvin, Sallie Hoop, and Mrs. Mary Deshong.

Two sisters survive, namely, Harriet, wife of D. G. Duval, of Bellows, Pa., and Mary, wife of J. N. Duval, of Wells Tannery.

A RELATIVE.

Mr and Mrs. Jesse Covalt, of Oakland, Ill., are visiting the former's father, Mr J. H. Covalt, at Covalt, Pa., and other friends and relatives in this county.

Mrs. Calvin Summers.

After having been in bad health for more than a year, Annie, wife of Calvin Summers, died at their home on the Krichbaum farm in Ayr township last Friday, aged 34 years, 7 months, and 26 days. Funeral on Saturday conducted by Rev. Wolf, and interment was made in the Union cemetery. Besides the husband, the deceased is survived by six children ranging in years from less than two to fourteen. The husband desires to thank the neighbors and friends for their kindness during the sickness and death of Mrs. Summers.

The season of indigestion is upon us. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for indigestion and dyspepsia will do everything for the stomach that an over loaded or over-worked stomach cannot do for itself. Kodol digests what you eat—gives the stomach a rest—relieves sour stomach, belching, heart-burn, indigestion, etc. Sold by Stout-eagle & Bro.

Died in Altoona.

Mr. Bruce Fields, aged 35 years died in the hospital at Altoona on Tuesday evening, November 26th, of Typhoid fever, having been sick five weeks. His brother Charley was with him when he died and brought his remains home on Wednesday evening, and on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, all that was mortal was laid to rest by the side of his father and mother in the cemetery at Fort Littleton, where he was born and raised.

Bruce was the son of J. M. and Phoebe Fields. His father died in 1871, while he was treasurer of Fulton county; his mother died in the spring of 1892.

Our friends and kindred are leaving us one by one. We lay them away to await the resurrection morn. Those of the family living are Mrs. Carrie Alexander, of Dry Run; Charlie and Francis of Fort Littleton, and Millie, of Free-waure, Ill.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. W. M. Cline.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task, to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion, and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by Trouts, druggists; price 50c."

Communicated.

MR. EDITOR: As your informant came so short of giving you the real facts in regard to the family history of Josabed Lodge, deceased, I will take the liberty to offer the following:

Mr. Lodge was born in 1828, and was therefore over 77 years of age. About 1850 he was married to Catherine Linn, of this county; and to them were born eight children, seven of whom are living, namely, Julia, wife of Frank Rhom, of Bellmore, Ind.; Ellen M., wife Wm. Alexander, of Cypher, Bedford county; Alice, wife of Wm. Hoop, of Lacking Creek township; Cooper in Illinois, and Henry, Laura and Georgia, at home at the time of their father's death.

Josabed Lodge was a well-to-do citizen, a kind father, a respected neighbor, and the hospitable home over which he presided for so many years will be missed by the many relatives and friends who have spent many happy hours there.

He was united with the Christian church about thirty-five years ago, and remained steadfast in the faith, and left the evidence that he was resigned to the will of God.

Two sisters survive, namely, Harriet, wife of D. G. Duval, of Bellows, Pa., and Mary, wife of J. N. Duval, of Wells Tannery.

his funeral services were conducted by Rev. Collins of Rays Hill.

THOMPSON.

Preaching at Damascus next Sunday at 10 o'clock. Wilson Littton spent last Friday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Littton.

The buzz of the saw mill is still heard. Last week one night the slab pile caught fire and came near destroying the mill. It happened that Mr. Booth, who has his shanty not far from the mill, was awakened by the fire about 11 o'clock. He was not long in stirring up the fire in the engine, and blew the whistle, and aroused some of the neighbors, who responded very promptly with buckets, and after two or three hours of hard work they succeeded in getting the fire under control.

Lucy O. Myers is spending this week with her sister Mrs. Remie A. Sharpe on Timber Ridge. W. R. Myers is getting out lumber for a house which he intends to build on his lot in Hancock.

Anna Mellott has returned to Waynesboro after spending a few weeks with her parents, E. L. Mellott and wife.

Mrs. Clarence Brewer visited Bessie and Lucy Myers last Sunday.

Nothing will cure indigestion that doesn't digest the food, itself, and give the stomach rest. You can't expect that a weak stomach will regain its strength and get well when it is compelled to do the full work that a sound stomach should do. You wouldn't expect a sick horse to get well when it is compelled to do a full day's work every day of the week. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant and digests the food regardless of the condition of your stomach. Relieves indigestion, belching, sour stomach, and all stomach disorders. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro

CLEAR RIDGE.

While the contractors Shore and Fields were painting the Mechanics Hall sometime ago, a little kitten appeared on the scene, and as Shore is very skillful as a decorator, he added to the kitten's appearance by using some paint, not knowing who was the owner. Next morning a woman appeared with a whole apron full of them, and said she wanted them all painted.

The Mutual telephone line from this place to Hustontown is now ready for wire, which will be put on some time this week, and through time, the same will be extended to McConnellsburg.

James Brown left here on Monday and was so lucky as to get passenger braking on the P. R. R. He runs from Altoona to Pittsburg.

Fall and Winter Suits.

The gathered crops and the cool frosty nights remind us that winter will soon be here, and that our light summer clothing must be put aside. We must have a new suit for dress, and take our last winter's "good suit" for every day. Where shall that new suit be ordered? At

A. U. Nace & Son's

McConnellsburg, because there is the oldest and largest merchant tailoring establishment in the county; because they have the largest and best stock of goods to select from, and because of the certainty of getting a suit that will fit and not only be worth every dollar it costs, but look genteel and dressy as long as it lasts.

Then in addition to their making-to-order department, A. U. NACE & SON carries a large stock of Ready-made Men's and Boys' Clothing—the best that the city markets afford—and at prices as low as good goods can be sold. In fact, anything in gents' furnishings from an Overcoat to the latest fad in Neck-tie wear—Hats—everything—the latest and best.

Get your order in, in time, and avoid the rush.

A. U. NACE & SON, McConnellsburg, Pa.
