SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Held at Fort Littleton Last Saturday Afternoon and Evening.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The first annual, or, probably, semi-annual, township convention of Dublin, including Knobsville, was held at Fort Littleton, Dec. 16, 1905. Rev. Adams was made temporary president, and Anna Mayne, secretary. The first question on the program was "Why is it so many boys and girls of fifteen years and upwards, drop out of the Sabbath School, and what can be done to prevent it?" The discussion was opened by H. H. Hertzler, who thinks if the lessons were made interesting so many would not drop out. Rev. Salter thinks the teacher should study the scholars to find out the best way to interest and hold them, requiring different methods to interest different natures.

The second question, "Are ministers, S. S. superintendents, teachers and officers as energetic as they should be in relation to the spiritual welfare of the Sunday school children?" This was discussed by Rev. Adams, J. W. Fraker, Rev. Salter, S. L. Buckley, and M. R. Shaffner. Rev. Salter would have the teachers come in personal touch with the scholars, and make personal appeals to confess Christ. Mr. Shaffner thinks a teacher should take the same interest in his class he has in his business, and Mr. Buckley would have the ministers devote more than one Sabbath in fifty-two to preaching to the children.

The 3rd question, "The defects of the teacher," assigned to Rev. Salter, was well enlarged upon. Some of the points given were, "Be on time," "Do not present the historical part to the exclusion of the spiritual truths of the lesson," "Have a life wholly consecrated to God's service."

EVENING SESSION.

The evening session was opened by a song service followed by prayer by M. R. Shaffner, after which Rev. Adams spoke on "Elements of success in the Sunday school." Rev. Adams would have a well defined object in view, and not go at the work in a rambling way—that object to be the conversion of the soul and teaching them to lead good moral lives. M. R. Shaffner then spoke on the "Sunday school a factor in church work." He believes the Sunday school a veritable recruiting station of the church. The last question, "Our relation to the Sunday school: (1) as parents, (2) as church members, and (3) as to community, was discussed by E. E. Fraker and Rev. Salter.

The officers elected for the ensuing year, are: Pres., S. L. Buckley; sec., Cora Doran; treasurer, H. H. Hertzler. Place of holding—Burnt Cabins. Executive committee: Elsie Baker, R. P. Doran, John Gunnels, J. W. Fraker and H. H. Hertzler. ANNA MAYNE, Sec'y.

Nothing will cure indigestion that doesn't digest the food, itself, and give the stomach rest. You can't expect that a weak stomach will regain its strength and get well when it is compelled to do the full work that a sound stomach should do. You wouldn't expect a sick horse to get well when it is compelled to do a full day's work every day of the week. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant and digests the food regardless of the condition of your stomach. Relieves indigestion, belching, sour stomach, and all stomach disorders. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro.

One day as a train from the East pulled up at a little station of the most depressing aspect, a passenger, thrusting his head out of a car window, asked of a dejected-looking citizen who was leaning against the station door:

"Tell me, what do you call this dried-up, dreary, ornery, low-down place?"

"That's near enough, stranger," replied the native, in a melancholy voice. "Let it go at that."

A BAD SCARE.
