

Local Institute.

The fourth educational meeting of Wells, was held at New Granada last Friday evening.

The first question was, "The result of thorough and careful work all through school life, and its influence upon the future life of the pupil."

The second question: "How can a teacher impart information?" was discussed by Robert Early, of No. 1 advanced, Wells Tannery.

Third question: "Value of self-reliance and how taught," was discussed by Mr. Cunningham.

Fourth topic: "Responsibility and reward of the Teacher," was discussed by Mr. Wilson.

Three of our home teachers were present. Prof. E. W. McClain and R. X. Wilson, two prominent teachers of Huntingdon county, were present; and gave much valuable information.

The institute adjourned to meet at school No. 3 on January 12th.

MAUDE A. CUNNINGHAM, Sec'y.

Rough skin and cracked hands are not only cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, but an occasional application will keep the skin soft and smooth.

The genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve affords immediate relief in all forms of blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles.

SALVIA. Howard Mellott and family, of Potter county, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Sheridan Hann.

Quite a snow fell here last Friday—the first of the season to amount to anything.

Mrs. Elizabeth Strait is seriously ill. Edward Kline has pneumonia.

Mrs. Barbara Hess left here last week to make her home with her daughter in Huntingdon county.

Emery Hessler has improved his tenant house by having a new roof put on.

Squire Bert Hann butchered twenty-four nice turkeys last week.

D. E. Mellott has built a nice glass front chicken house for his poultry. Mr. Mellott believes that if you want fowls to be profitable, you must take care of them.

Quite a racket took place at Ebenezer church last week, in consequence of which some of the boys are carrying black eyes.

It is unfortunate that a church gathering should be selected as a place to settle up old scores.

Have You Tried the new Quick desserts that grocers are now selling? They are justly termed "Easy to Make" as all ingredients are in the package.

License Notice.

IN THE COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS OF THE COUNTY OF FULTON, Pa. It is ordered that all applications for licenses for the sale of vinous, spiritous, malt or brewed liquors, wholesale or retail, for the year 1906, will be heard on Tuesday, the 13th day of January, 1906, at 10 o'clock a. m., at which time all persons applying on petitions to applications, will be heard by evidence, petition, remonstrance or counsel.

There must be no communication at any time upon the subject, with the judges, personally either by letter or any other private way.

The petition, verified by affidavit of applicant, shall be in conformity with the requirements of the acts of Assembly. Judgment bond shall be executed in the penal sum of $200, with no less than two reputable freeholders of the county as sureties, each of whom to be a bona fide owner of real estate in the county of Fulton worth over and above all incumbrances, the sum of $200 for other legal security given bond conditioned for the faithful observance of all the laws relating to the selling or furnishing of liquors, and to pay all damages which shall be recovered against the licensee, and all costs, fines and penalties which may be imposed on him under and by the operation of said laws; and the sureties may be required to appear in Court and justify under oath.

The Court shall, in its discretion, require the application whenever, in the opinion of the Court, having due regard to the character and character of the petitioner, and the nature of the application, such license is not necessary for the accommodation of the public and entertainment of strangers and travelers, or that such license is not a fit person to whom such license should be granted.

Petitions to be filed with the Clerk of the Court not later than Monday, the 13th day of December, 1905. Objections and remonstrances to be filed with the Clerk of the Court, on the 13th day of December, 1905. Upon sufficient cause being shown or proof being made to the Court that the party holding license has violated any law of the Commonwealth relating to the sale of liquors, the Court shall, upon notice being given to the person licensed, revoke the license.

By the Court, SAMUEL M. SWOPE, P. J. Attest: GEO. A. HARRIS, Clerk of C. S. Dec. 11, 1905.
