 SUNDAY SERMON A Scholarly Discourse By Rev. Edward Niles.

Brooklyn, N. Y.-The Rev. Edward Niles preached at the White Church Sunday evening from 11 Timothy ill:5: "Holding a form of godliness, but ing denied the power thereof." bav He

That "distance lends enchantment That "distance lends enchantment to the view" is true of time as well as space. The older we grow, the more immaculate appear the imagined days of youth. Caristian believers are purer in our eyes in proportion to the number of centuries that intervene. Within the covers of every volume of sermons, whether written in one age or another, are the well-nigh certain jereminds over "these time of extreme worldliness, unequaled love of money, peculiar indifference to spiritual things." followed by laudations of the apostolic age as the golden era of Christianity.

A reconstruction of conditions existing in those New Testament churches from materials afforded us in the episties, warrant no such assumption Heresies then were rampant, sistent lives numerous, backslider distressingly frequent. The things of backsliders sense made cogent appeal. The husks of the gospel often satisfied to the disregard of its kernel. Paul's descrip-tion of "the last days" was based upon facts about him. As he penned the sentence of our text, he probably had in mind fellow communicants who held the form of godliness, but denied the power thereof. Since then outward changes have been many, kingdoms have come and gone, languages have died and been born, church order and ritual been metamorphosed. Human nature is un-affected by time or clime. +So the New Testament is not a graveyard, with epitaphs of only antiquarian interest photographic of contemporary heart throbs.

In our Borough of Brooklyn are 156.-679 people holding to the Protestant form of godiness. While statistics are unable to figure out how hold to the Protestant power thereof, if form and power were identical, not one of the buildings where divide wor ship is being held to-uight would have ne of the buildings where divine wor vacant seat and every theatre and hall would be utilized for overflow

The original of "deny" has as its root meaning "not to seek." "Hold-ing a form of godliness, they have not sought for its power." The world has much to say about hypocrites. I be-lieve the outcry against them is out of all propertion to their numbers. The conscious hypocrite to-day is a rare bird. I have made frequent hunts or him. Despite the most diligent search, I have seldom found him. The number of those called hypocrites, who would rightly be catalogued as formalists, is legion. They are not striving to deceive others. They succeed in their striving to deceive themselves. Satisfied with the appurte-nances, the trappings of godilness, they inquire no further. Attendants upon the services of the church, members of it, supporters of its outward ac-tivities, they fancy themselves to be godly. Branded as Christians, they but feebly apprehend what disrepute they bring upon the name by their inferiority to the real article. gullibility is wrongly taken for hypocrisy. They submit to the drudgery of religion to pacify troublesome con sciences and impose upon themselves. An important reason for so many lapses from church membership is be-cause so many become dissatisfied with a form, yet fail to seek the reality, so give up all.

Almost every one in this congrega-tion has a form of godliness. You look good. I find little to criticise in what you do, for there is so little you do on which to base a criticism. The trouble You may lies in what you do not. have called me here to predigest your opiritual food, to relieve you from first-hand study of the Bible, to rep-resent your church not only in classis but in the fourier to be your classis

Forms are by no means confined to liturgical churches. A printed prayer is less formal than one which differs in phraseology each time it is uttered, if the first come from the heart and the latter from the head. Some one thus latter from the head. Some one thus confesses and questions and deduces:

I often say my prayers. But do I ever pray? And do the wishes of my heart Go with the words I say? Words without the beart The Lord will never hear. Nor will He to those hips attend Whose prayers are not sincere.

It all winter.

barrel of earth in the cellar, where they will produce "ple-plant" for win-

Dig chickory for salad and store in Blanch endive by tying lightly at Bury a barrel of cabbage in a well-drained spot and cover with leaves.

Or plic cabbages on the barn floor and cover with straw enough to prevent

Start a mild hotbed and have home-

Poultry and Garden.

Gardening and poultry raising is a natural and profitable combination, as each helps the other and gives a variety of employment, whereby the spare moments in each vacation are profitably utilized. Fowls are natural insect destroyers, and during the season when insects are most destructive, if allowed to range in the garden every morning and evening will render excellent service. It is a good plan to raise all small vegetables, such as beans, peas, onions, radiabes and let-by a chicken proof fence, and to have where the garden was and use for a poultry every alternate year, the soll is not only rested but wonderfully which is absorbed by the soil as fast

The Poultry Yard.

cal Leghorn.

displaced them.

The above illustration shows a typi-

This breed, though sinall, was at one time very popular, especially with those who lived in the country, but the demand for larger market fowls has grown so rapidly that the all-purpose fowls, such as Plymouth Rocks and Wyandottes, have almost entirely

White Leghorns have pure white plumage, with clean, yellow shanks, beaks and skin, and when fully matured the males weigh about four pounds and the females from three to the bed.

shed

ter use.

the tips.

solid freezing.

den Magazine.

sand in a dry cellar.

Spiritual forces are all about us, per vasive as the subtle element we call electricity. The power of godliness is the concentration of this energy within ourselves, so as to make it radiant for good to others. We are in good form. We have taken Christ to be our Prophet and listen to His teach-ings. We recognize Him as our priest. accepting the atonement He offers. Is He our King Whom we obey, in Whose He our King whom we does, in whose strength we go out to fight fearlessly? Because hyporrites exist is no reason why you should be a coward. Let us not hesitate to say what we mean. Let us determine to mean what we say. A form of gotiliness may speak words of arouthy to mourness of words of sympathy to mourners, of warning to evil doers, of hope to afflicted ones. But the power is not there. It is "voice, voice; nothing Although ministering to the more. self-complacency of the speaker, it ministers to no one else. The form of godliness lacks substance. The flimst ness is revealed when its wearer needs sustaining power. It is no roit and staff to comfort when the valley of the shadow of death is to be trod. It has no light to shed when a man comes to the forks of the road and knows not which way to take. It may fool him for a while here. Its hollow-ness is apparent on his first arrival in ness is apparent on his first arrival in the world that knows no shams. The power of godliness is profitable, both for the life that now is and for that which is to come. Its possessor has "the tongue of the thught that he may sustain with words him that is weary." may "reprove, rebuke, exhort, correct." A man is behind the voice and Christ is behind the man. In times of trouble, it supports unfailingly. When the house is darkened and the friends make their pitiful attempts to condole, they are anticipated by the God of all comforts. He whose form of godliness is validated by its power, with unblanched cheek, with firm confidence, faces each fertilized by the manure of the fowls crisis of life, the supreme crisis of death, knowing Whom he has believed, as it falls upon it .- Joshua Humble, in persuaded that He is able to keep what is committed to Him throughout The Epitomist. eternity.

A Clear Call.

"It is very noble and lovely of you, Elsie, to give so much of your time to that work among the tenementhouse children. I'm sure I admire you for it; but for my part, I never had any call to that kind of work."

Elsie's eyes were "Any call?" Elsie's eyes were, gravely questioning, "Yes, of course. I suppose you felt called to go into it, didn't you?" "I don't know. I don't think I ever thought of it just in that way. I saw the need of something I had time and strength to do-that was all. But wouldn't that be call enough?"

Would it not indeed? What plainer call can there be than a need that we three and a half. They are countercan meet? What more eloquent appeal than the cry of the hungry little ones around us for bread that we can parts in all else but color of the brown Leghorns, and possess all and possibly more of the many good traits of the give?

There are not many loud and startling "calls" to any form of service, but God has unmistakable ways of making His will known to every one whose own will is to know it. We have but to keep our ears open to hear His voice, our eyes to see His beck-oning. Every opportunity is a call; every outstretched hand that ours ours can meet helpfully is God's beckoning hand to us." To most of us no other call will ever come than that which comes through human lips, no other than the revealing of a vacant place which we may fill, a need for work which we can do. If we wait in idleness for some other vocation than comes to us in these ways, we are but losing time, and the world is losing our service. Let us instead find in "the duty that lies nearest" our present, definite call, sure that when we are wanted for another work that too will be as. Opportunity-that is God's clear call to us.-Young People.

The larm

The Vegetable Garden. Clean up and burn diseased plants, manure the garden, plow it and leave ducing territory. They were especially esteemed at the time for their quality of crossing, and thereby improving ot only the common but other breeds Bura asparagus tops and manure of swine.

The Berkshire was no less than a You can make new asparagus and faithful companion to man in the subrhubarb beds and plant sets of extra jugation of the great West. It folearly pearl onions for use next March. lowed him in all his journeys into Put some parsley plants in a box the new and undiscovered countries and place it in a light cellar or in a awaiting to yield up the bounties of Put some frozen rhubarb roots in a their soils. From year to year infusious of new Berkshire blood has followed the first, until to-day the great pork-packing regions of our nation are world wide famous, not only for the amount but in the quality of the product. So in early days, as at the present time, the Berkshire held first rank throughout the Mississippi Valley. Its success has come largely through the fact that its promoters have been of sound judgment coupled with that skill and discernment that has enabled them to develop those essential qualigrown radishes and lettuce .- The Garties of a perfect animal that is now almost a machine in its regularity, while eliminating those points that are detrimental to the highest success.

The flesh of the Berkshire consists of well marbled streaks of lean and fat, and this fact alone will readily distinguish it to any one familiar with one slaughtered product. Not only does this great essential recommend the breed to the one who raises pork for home consumption, but it is taken into consideration by best butchers on the market and is no small factor in determining the animals that bring the top prices.

With these points of superiority altuce, by themselves in a lot enclosed ready acquired, and with the best interests of the breed in the hands of another lot the same size for the chilcksuch eminent and successful men as ens to range in. The year following, now compose the Berkshire Associalet the chickens be turned into the lot tion, the continued and future leaderchip of this breed is assured .- Indiana garden the lot vacated by the fowls. Farmer. By thus giving the garden plot to

As to Close Pasturing.

There is a general complaint that our common grasses run out, are not at all fit for permanent pastures because very early they give way to wild grasses and to weeds. It is true some grasses will sod the land completely, and make a fairly permanent pasture. but as a rule they will not furnish so much succulent pasture as does some of the other grasses that do not form so complete a sod for tramping or for close pleking. Indeed, many timothy pastures are completely destroyed because the animals are allowed to run over the field long after they are unable to get even a living from it. Late pasturing in the fall results in close picking and much tramping on the surface. Usually the fall is so dry that many grass roots get tramped up with the fine dust. Need we wonder that a good meadow pastured closely in the fall as a hard-picked timothy pasture, should turn to white-top, to wild grasses or even to cheat when it, is so abused in the fall? If forage is given, if plant-food is added in sufficlent quantities to act as a top-dressing of manure, then tramping the permanent pasture in the fall will do much less injury. The available plant food will tend to revive the old grasses and to nourish the young grass that may spring from volunteer seed. Feeding pumpkids, fodder or sorghum while the stock is still on pasture not only gives additional food for the stock but protects the pasture. It means much to the pasture if it is allowed to remain as a sod. If the fall grass is allowed to fall over occasionally and given a chance to grow more rank, all the common grasses will hold from year to gear much better than they usually do. The most persistent grass that furnishes forage in profitable quantities will be greatly benefited by a partial fall growth to cover the sod in winter, or by feeding on pasture sufficiently as to produce a top dress-

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL HOUSehold EPWORTH LEAGUE LESSONS

SUNDAY, JANUARY SEVENTH.

Laying Foundations for 1906 .- Luke 6. 46-49.

Foundation-laying is a matter of personal responsibility. Whatever may be said of the power of heredity, everyone may-rather, must-lay the foundation of his own life. He may not always choose the location of the building, or the nature of the materials- though these are largely in his own hands-but he must build the substructure, as well as the superstructure, himself. The only safe foundation for a human life is faith in God. That means not merely a vague sort of belief that he exists, and that he is more or less benevolently disposed toward us. It is a faith which intrusts all life to him, which believes that he has a purpose in our presence in the world, and which is sure that it is absolutely safe to commit ourselves to his guidance. That faith makes Christians of us, with our life hid with Christ in God. It puts us upon the impregnable rock of the atonement. We can stand erect and confident in God's sight when we stand on that foundation Storms come to everyone. The tempest that smote the house on the sands bent no less flercely on the the rock foundation. with There is no pledge of immunity from trial, or from conflict, in the Christian That would make it a more faith. asylum for the feeble. But our faith gives us power to bear the trial, endure the pain, and overcome in the conflict with evil. At the beginning of the year there is no need to lay new foundations, if you are already fixed on Jesus Christ, the Rock of Ages. You may need to strengthen your hold on his life, to make sure that the life you are building is in harmony with the life on which it is founded, to be more careful in the choice of the materials you use in the daily task of building, but you are already on the Rock.

The wise builder in the parable is who "heareth these sayings, and doeth them." By that test, who among us is the wise builder? Who will begin now, and by the help of God, be not a hearer only, but a doer of the Word throughout the year? The Epworth League offers admirable opportunities for foundation-laying. If you have not used them, begin this year.

Your need of regular and systematic use of the Bible can nowhere be better supplied than through League Bible-study course. Join the class in your own chapter. If there is no class, start one. Three or four earnest people will make the nucleus of a fine class. It will give definite ness and purpose to your reading of the Bible

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NOTES

JANUARY SEVENTH.

How Finding Christ Changes the Life .--- Matt. 13:44-46.

Christ is not hidden treasure, and yet we must seek Him; and when we have found Him, we wonder we have not seen Him before!

When one has found Christ, he does not hide Him, but is eager to show Him to others. No parable fits truth in all points.

Christ is like a pearl in perfectness, in beauty, in purity, in preciousness. To win Christ we must yield up all that we have; but He gives straightway back again, vastly enriched. No one has really found himself un would have caused them to doubt was made the sign unto them. "Any fear til he has found Christ.

Subject: The Shepherds Find Jesus, Luke il., 1.30-Golden Text, Luke il., 11-Memory Verses, 13, 14-Topic: The Savior Revealed to Man-Con entary

Savior Revealed to Man-Commentary I. The birth of Christ (vs. 1-7). 1. "In those days." After the birth of John and before the birth of Jesus. "Gaesar Augustus." The first of the Roman emperors. "All the world." All of the Roman world. At that time the Roman empire extended further than ever before, or than it has since, and was called "the empire of the whole earth." "Taxed." Enrolled. 2. "First made." There must have been two encolments. "Cyrenius."

been two enrolments. "Cyrenius." This is the Greek form of Quirinus or Quirinus. 3. "Into his own city." The Roman custom was to enrol per-sons at the place of residence, but the Jewish custom required the enrolment to take place in the native city. 4. "Went up." From Galiles to the much more elevated region of Bethlehem. "City of David." Where Devid. more David." Where David was "With Mary." It is uncer-'City of David.' tain whether her presence was obliga-tory or voluntury, but it is obvious that, after what we had suffered that, after what we had suffered (Matt. 1:19), she c. se to cling to the presence and protection of her hus-band. "Espoused wife," Better, "who was betrothed to him." R. V. 6. "While-there." Caesar Augustus was was but an instrument in the hand of prov-Idence to fulfil the prophecy of Micah. 7. "Her first-born son." That excel-

6. Her inst-born son." That excel-lent and glorious person, who was the first-born of every creature, and the heir of all things; whom all the first-born in the Old Testament prefigured; whom the angels adore (Heb, 1:6); and in whom those that believe become the first-born and the first-fruits of God's creatures. "Swaddling clothes." Strips of cloth; these were wound around the infant. "In a manger." It seems clear from the text that the manger was not in the inn, hence there is good reason to believe, with Dr. Thompson, that the birth actually took place in an ordinary house of some common peas-ant, and that the babe was laid in one of the mangers, such as are still found in the dwellings of the farmers. H.

"Same country." Near to Bethle-a. "Shepherds." The announce-8. "S hem. ment was not made to rulers or priests but to humble men who were ready to receive the glad news. "In the field." They undoubtedly had tents or booths under which they dwelt. "Keeping under which they dwelt. "Keeping watch-by night." Or, "keeping night-watches." R. V., margin. They watched by turns, against wild beasts and robbers. The fact that the shepherds were in the fields affords no ground for concluding that the nativ ity could not have taken place in the winter. The average temperature at Jerusalem for five years was, in De-cember, fifty-four degrees. 9. "An-gel." Divine messenger. "Came upon them." Stood over them. "Glory of the Lord." That extreme splendor in which the deity is represented as appearing to men, and sometimes called the Shechinah — an appearance fre-quently attended, as in this case, by a company of angels. "Sore afraid." Terrified with the appearance of so 10. "Good tidings." The literal meaning of "gospel." I am come to declare the loving kindness of the Lord. My message will cause great joy. It is a message to "you" (Jews) first, and it also reaches to "all the people" (R. V.), to the whole human race. See Gen. 12:3; Matt. 28:19; Luke 2:28-32; 24:46, 47; Col. 1:21-23, 11. "Is born." Isa, 9:6; John 1:14. "David's greater Son begins His carthly career in His ancestor's home. Seven hundred years before a prophet had pre-dicted the Messiah's birth at Bethlehem" (Micah 5:2). "A Saviour." 1. A deliverer. 2. A restorer. 3. A pre-server. See Matt. 1:21. "Not, 'shall be' a Saviour. but 'born' a Saviour." "Christ." The Anointed One. 12. "A sign." The very thing that

'Sarstogs Petatoes. Slice some potatoes very thin, let stand in ice water about one hour, then thoroughly dry with a towel, have a saucepan ready with boiling hot lard, drop each piece into the boiling fat and fry until crisp and brown. Remove with a wire spoon, drain and sprinkle with salt while hot.

Matters

Preserved Tomatoes.

Half peck of green tomatoes, quar-ter them, add four pounds of sugar, melt, strain and slice three or four lemons; cook until tender. To make a tender omelette use hot water in the proportion of a tablespoonful to each egg, instead of the milk usually, advised. Chives for salads are very nice.

Sauce For the Cecile.

Put in a frying pan one tablespoonful of butter and the same of flour, mix perfectly smooth without allowing to color. Four in one cupful of stock and return to the fire, stirring it all the time until quite thick. Season with half a teaspoonful of salt, a little pepper. Beat the yolks of two eggs, stir these into the sauce-add the juice of one lemon and one tablespoonful of capers.

Err a la Golden Rod.

White sauce to be made of two spoonfuls of butter, two even spoonfuls of flour sifted into the melted butter, scald two cups of milk and pour gradually over the above mixture until it is the right thickness. add pepper and sait, boil six or seven eggs hard, separate them, chop or slice the whites and add to the sauce. Place on platter toasted bread cut in points, squares or slices, pour the sauce over the mixture and sift the yolks over it. Use the potato ricer to sift the volks through.

make one pint of thick white sauce, mix with it (off the fire) four ounces of grated cheese, cayenne pepper and salt to taste, and, if mustard be liked, two teaspoons of made mustard may, be added. Fry some triangular croutons with white of an egg, stick a crescent-shaped border of them on a dish, inside them arrange a close row of sliced potato, cover it with some sauce, then repeat in alternate layers till the crescent is high. Mask the whole with the sauce, sprinkle it thickly with grated cheese and fried bread crumbs, heat and brown for about twenty minutes in the oven and serve Cecils of Beef.

Two cups of minced cold beef, one teaspoonful of chopped parsley, one teaspoonful of chopped onion, the peel of a quarter of a lemon. Half a teaspoonful of salt. Two.or three dashes of pepper. Two eggs and a cupful of crumbs. One slice of bread soaked in a quarter of a cupful of cream. Mix together the onion, parsley and bread crumbs. Beat up one egg and put it in with the meat, place it over the fire and let it heat thoroughly. After it cools sufficiently make up into balls the size of an egg. Roll the balls first in flour, then into beaten egg mixed with a tablespoonful of hot water, then roll in cracker crumbs. Have a pan of boiling lard; try a piece of bread first in the hot dard and if it browns instantly it is fight for frying. The lard must be half an inch above the top of the cecils, else they will split open.

hot.

Browned Potatoes. Cut some boiled potatoes into slices, in heart to heart work for souls, your substitute when the battle is on be-tween good and evil, while you go your business and household ways during the week and on Sunday enjoy your cushioned pews, criticise the scrmon and singing.

The Lord never called me to any like task. If there has been any such tacit agreement I now repudiate it. I am lied of God to point out the forms of godliness as means of obtaining its pow

The imperative needs of our inventive age have almost bodily transferred to our language the Greek here renive age dered "power," in the word dynamo. I believe in forms, just as the railroad engineer believes in the third rail, as believes in the elevated structure on the Williamsburg Bridge. But the mass of iron is a senseless eresore until it is connected with the main line. Even then it is useless until related to the power house, until the power. the fire-fed dynamo, sends forth the electric current, enabling the cars to carry thousands of wage-earners to and from their places of everyday toil. What private concern would be so in-ane as to sink for two years such a wealth of money in an enterprise for accumulating rust?

The forms of religion are essential as preliminaries to the accessories of power. Churches, ministers, Bibles were instituted and have been perpet-uated because divinely ordained and humanly tested to be good for making the kingdom of beaten "co" noon the kingdom of heaven "go upon earth. In themselves, they have no value. The power of godliness gener-ated in Christian lives must electrify them or they are encumbrances. You are commissioned to lead others to Christ. Your commission gives you "power to act." Are you availing your-self of that privilege? I find no verse in the Scripture which reads "Be good and you will be a Christian." I fin reiterated, over and over, "Do good." I find It Christianity is not coloriessness. I has no minus sign. It is ever positive A negative being is peculiarly abhor-rent to Him whose biography is epi-tomized by "He went about doing good." "I would thou wert either cold or hot" is His message to such borpid professors. "Because thou art Inkewarm, I will spew thee out of My mouth." Better the mistakes, het-fer even the sins that come from activter even the sins that come from activ-ity than the flabby absence of either, good or bad. True religion consists not in outward observances, but in the ward graces; not in semblance, but in reality. Because God is a living God. He has no satisfaction in half-alive maints. We must not only serve Him in this life; we must also live in His service. The arc lamp unconnected with the dynamo is in the way. Your presence in the church is in the way of others, unless the dynamo of power within you is at work and your light is shining. s shining.

A man may my "Church! Church!" at every word With no more piety than other peo-daw's not rectoned a religious bird Because it keens are wing from a stee Rest in Christ.

Coming to Christ, we enter into the rest of faith. The very act of trust brings tranquillity, even when the person or thing trusted in is human creatural, and therefore uncertain. For to roll the responsibility from myself, as it were, upon another brings re-pose; and they who lean upon Christ's strong arm do not need to fear, though their own arm be very weak.

The rest of faith, when we cease from having to take care of ourselves. when we can cast all the gnawing cares and anxieties that perturb us upon Him, when we can say, "Thou dost undertake for me, and I leave myself in Thy hands," is tranquillity depeer and more real than any other that the heart of man can conceive. "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee, because he trusteth The Cast yourself upon Christ, and live in that atmosphere of calm confidence: and though the surface may be tossed by many a storm, the depths will be "peace subsisting at the heart of end-iess agitation."—Alexander Maclaren.

Lofty Examples.

The lofticst examples of charity, devotion, self-sacrifice, heroism, trust, pa-tience and patriotism ever known to

A Little Parable. Hatred and Selfishness fell in love with each other because they saw that their deeds were alike evil. So they sought Beelzebub and asked him to marry them. "I will do it," he said, "but it must be on one condition."

"What is the condition?" they asked.

"That the two of you, when legally made one, shall take a new name." "It is agreed," they said.

So they were wedded with much comp and ceremony.

"Now what is our new name?" they immodiately inquired.

"Human Folly," was the answer. "That name hereafter will include the both of you, as, indeed, it practically has done heretofore."

So the united two wander over the arth, covoring it with unhappiness and frequently we refer to them by heir former names, but not the less ices their wedded name apply to either or both of them.—San Fran-out the great corn West. The Berk-shire immediately became very popu-iar, and fancy prices were paid for the animals throughout the new perk-pro-

See al

18

WHITE LEGHORN MALE.

Leghorn family. They are slightly their eggs are about as large as those of the larger breeds. They are sprightly and always on the hustle, though they stand confinement remarkably forage. well, and a dozen hens may be kept in a very small pen. Many people on the farm object to ing that they are shining mark for hawks and small animals which orey on the poultry yard, but this view seems hardly well taken, since it has been shown that the broods are con- in the Indianapolis News. stantly being robbed even among those that are totally black. Color makes no difference, and unless a better ob jection for discarding them can be advanced, we see no reason why they should not regain their former prestige.

There is certainly no prettier fowl. if we fancy solid color, and they certainly have merit .- Home and Farm.

Berkshire Hogs.

Will you please give a young beginner in swine growing something about the Berkshire breed, history and introduction in this country. GEO. R. STAHL

We cannot do beiter in reply to our correspondent than to give what Prof. W. D. May says of this breed. Prof.

of the Berkshires: From 1820 to 1828 the Berkshire was very much improved by Lord Barrington, who devoted much time and a most popular breed in England. That the efforts of Lord Barrington were the fact that most English Berkshires trace their ancestry to his herd. subject, states that the first importation of Berkshires into the United States was made in the year 1823, by John Brentnall, of New Jersey. In 1832 a Mr. Hawes, an Englishman, made the second, and afterwards other importations at Albany, N. Y. In 1839, Bagg and Walt, of- Osange County, N. Y., began importing largely and engaged extensively in raising and disseminating the breed through

Academy,

ing of manure over the entire area. Scattering the rotted manure from the larger than the brown Leghorns, and barnyard or from the rotted straw stacks upon the permanent pasture is sure to lengthen the life of the pasture and to increase its yield of

When the small pigs are allowed to run with larger hogs they often become completely covered with lice.

them on account of their color, claim-When they become thin the hair gets long and looks coarse, it usually indicates the presence of lice. Coal oil and lard is a good remedy for killing lice on young pigs .- W. B. Anderson,

Commercial Methods.

If the man whose life is spent on the farm would use his brains as well as his hands, he would find results much more profitable than at present. It is all well enough to understand what is necessary in farm operations, but of what avail is it if plans are not carefully laid and as carefully executed? There is a city business man who was brought up on a farm and is now spending some of his citycarned money at the old occupation. Largely, as a matter of sentiment, he bought the old homestead, and after a time used it for a summer home, leasing the land on the share plan. One summer, being at the farm considerably, he noticed the rather slip-shod May is in the Missouri Experiment methods of operation, and the next Station, and is a gentleman who has made a study of live stock. He says of the Berkshires:

over the place and planned just what he would do with it. He had no, trouble after his help discovered that great deal of care and judgment in his knowledge was not wholly theodeveloping what was even then the retical. The farm is making some money, solely as a farm, and will make more in the years to come. It is run as a business proposition, and every so signally successful is attested by detail of its handling carefully considered. The commercial rules applied A. B. Allen, who is authority on the to farming will bring success .- In-dinnapolis News. Style in French Sorlals. As examples of the French feuille-tonist's attitude towards style, let us take two gems from the work of Ponson du Terrail. One of them is: "The man's hands were cold and clammy like those of a serpent." The other: "The count paced up and down the garden, reading the newspaper, with his hands behind his back." - The

With 29,200 physicians, Germany has one for every 1700 inhabitans,

The discovery of Christ is more to me than the total of all the world's discoveries; It is the discovery of the other world.

One need only start toward Christ, for He comes swiftly the rest of the way

The reason why Christ cannot enter some lives is because they want Christ to allow them to remain as they are. Christ in the life is like the magic lamp placed in the German hut, that by its shining changed it, and all its furniture, to solid silver.

Health cannot come without disease's going; nor can Christ come without sin's going.

When next you go to a Christian Endeavor consecration meeting, de termine that it shall mean something definite.

Review your life and see where you are weak. Ask God to show you how you may strongthen yourself in that point.

Form a resolution for one advance Write it out. Speak it out. tep, Pray over it.

It may be to do one unselfish act every day. Or to speak at each meeting to some one likely to be neglect. Or to read larger daily portions of the Bible. Or to take a more help ful part in the meetings.

Whatever it is, you will help the other Endeavorers greatly if you tell them of your purpose, and ask them to tell of theirs.

Keep a record, and hold yourself to the accomplishment of your design. Adhere to it till it becomes a habit. Thus will each consecration meeting mark genuino progress in your life.

When Sailors Wore Earrings "Sailors don't wear earrings as they used to," said a city ship chandler. "In the past I had a jewelry case and sold carrings of all kinds. Lately I dld away with it, for there is now no money in sailors' carrings at all.

"But there used to be. Every salt had his ears pierced and was as proud of his earrings as a lady. For some varieties I got as high as $50 a pair. "A sailor would never wear pre-cious stones, like diamonds or pearls, in his ears. The only, stone he would wear was agate. That was a funny fact, wasn't it?"

Town Clerk in Petticoats.

Miss Clara McAlpine, the young daughter of William McAlpine of New Hartford, Conn., and recently a student at the Gilbert preparatory school. is the only woman town clerk in the state, having qualified to act in the abjence of F. A. Jewell of New Hartford, who has gone to Buffalo for an extended stay.

She invues marriage licenses and becharges the other duties of the fice satisfactorily to all applicants.

as to whether her hay hay offer Him their homoge is dispelled by the intimation of His lowly condition, while their car-nal views of the nature of His kingan views of the nature of Firs king-dom are thereby counteracted." 13. "A multitude." They descended to honor the Prince of Peace. "Heav-enly host." The army of angels.

nly host." The army of angels. 14. "Glory to God." Christ was the highest highest expression of God's glory. 'In the highest." 1. In the highest "In the highest." I. In the highest strains. 2. In the highest heavens. 3. In the highest degree. "On earth peace." Peace with God; peace to man; peace of conscience. "Good will." God has shown His good will be Measure the Measure "Toward sending the Messiah. "Toward n." We should show good will both men. to God and man. III. The visit of the shepherds (vs.

15-20).

"Let us now go." There is no 15. time to lose. Let us go now. "This is the language of obedience, desiring to receive assurance and strength," by seeing for themselves "this thing which is to come to pass." 16. "With haste." Filled and thrilled with holy that could not linger. "And ad." It is probable that by comloy. found." municating their experiences to one another their faith was increased.

17. "Made known abroad." As soon as they had seen the child they began to tell the giad news to every one they met. They were true preachers of the gospel. 18. "Wondered." The story of Jesus Is the most wonderful story to which human ears ever listened, and still causes those who hear it to ronder. 19. "Pondered them." wonder. Weighing or carefully considering face:

RAM'S HORN BLASTS

TAR S

R

them. Every circumstance was treas ured up in her memory. 20. "Glorify-ing and praising." These simple men returned to the care of their flocks giv-ing glory to God for all they had seen. ks glvcarving of furniture.

flow from a cut artery in the leg by putting the foot in three inches of O raise the falflour in a large jar and jacking flour to the top of the jar, beating the flour > ping cord be placed around the cdge of a buitonhole with the loop to the front and the stitches taken over it. This is recommended for children's clothes that will have hard usage,

> If newspapers are spread on the floor before the stove when ashes are to be removed much work will be saved, for the papers can be gathered up and burned and there will be no necessity for sweeping. The ashes should be sprinkled with water be fore the pan is overturned.

> > · Up to Date.

One day, as a certain schoolman with aspect flerce and cane upra was about to punish one of his pu-the little reliow said, guilts inner the little reliow said, guilts inner and doubtless with some vacuus flection of a visit to the application flection of a visit to the application

Lindis For the Lehouyekeeper

Clean gilt frames with rain water in which flower of sulphur has been stirred.

A little flour dredged over a cake before icing will keep the icing from spreading and running off.

When milk is to be used in tumblers wash them first in cold water and afterwards rinse in hot water.

When the washboller is rusted place the clothes in a bag or old pillow slip before putting them in to boll, writes a correspondent. But why not try the up-to-date soaps that do away with the boiling?

A novel way for one's overshoes to be identified is to fasten them together with a clothespin bearing one's name. A more practical idea, however, is to have the name written in each shoe with red ink.

The tops of wardrobes and cupboards (that do not reach to the ceiling) should have papers laid over them not only to keep dust from silfting down, but to lighten the monthly house cleaning.

Small pieces of cotton batting, slightly steamed, make good dusters that should be burned after once using, A medium-sized camel's-hair paint brush is most useful in dusting the

A quick-witted woman stopped the len is to reach His down with a piece of stove wood. It is suggested that a bit of wrap-God's will for all is the goodwill of all. Sympathy does not depend on a syllogysm. You can exer-

202 cise evil by the exercise of good. The only joy

Every good deed helps make a track

They who welcome new truth nevor have to wait long for it.

It is likely to be the faith more than the food that makes the feast.

Everything that strengthens home ties binds closer Heaven's bands. Preaching hell in the spirit of hell will only drive men in that direction

