A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING.

Hustle and bustle are not becoming to women. The bustle is a back number, anyhow.

A low neck dress is not always reduced in price, in spite of the fact that it is one third off.

"Is marriage a failure?" "You can never tell until you've seen the wedding presents."

Worldly friendships are like coffee grounds-the oftener they are drawn upon, the weaker they the world.

Some people are so mean that they want to kill two birds with one stone and then try to get the stone back.

from scrub conditions no more

Clover is richer than grass in the muscle formers; for young animals it is the better feed.

Cream should have uniform consistency as well as uniform

No an mal of any breed or species of domestic animals will uniformly produce yourg that are all of a superior order.

The pure-bied animal is the more valuable simply because of ts greater capacity to appropriate favorable circumstances

At no other time in the life of the animal is the influence of hberal or of scant feeding so great as when the animal is young.

It takes longer and costs more to make up a pound of loss than it does to add five pounds of gain under favorable conditions.

The age of the animal has much to do with the gain, and, other things being equal, a young growing animal will make a greater L gain from a bushel of corn than one Lear maturity.

A free use of the whip when unnecessary will make stubborn

Young, growing animals have more hearty appetites than mature ones, but this is because the impulse of their natures is to 11. It is probably the richest grow. To stand still is unnatuin the Kensas Farmer.

Fall and Winter Suits.

The gathered crops and the cool frosty nights remind us that winter will soon be here, and that our light summer clothing must be put aside. We must have a new suit for dress, and take our last winter's "good suit" for every day. Where shall that new suit be ordered? that new suit be ordered? At
