Against Health Law.

The annual convention of the State Farmers' Alliance at Williamsport, Pa., passed by unanimous vote a series of resolutions violently condemnatory of the present health law and its enforcement by the State Health Commissioner. The Alliance calls for the repeal or very radical modification of the Act.

The resolutions were prepared by a committee of which Mr. Geo. M. Brantthaver, New Franklin, president of the Franklin County Alliance without debate and by unanimous vote.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at Trout's drug store. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

"You people in Chicago," said Kadley, with a sneer, "think of nothing but killing hogs."

"Well, well!" replied the Chicago man, "I must have misunderstood you a minute ago."

"How do you mean?"

"I understood you to say you had been there."

LETTER FROM L. C. KELLY.

Former Merchant and Farmer at Burnt Cabins, But now a Resident of Kansas.

WENT TO THAT STATE LAST SUMMER.

wide, running the wheat heads into a header box driven along side of the header. When full, another header box is pulled in and the full one is driven to a stack. We can plough 5 acres, harrow 25 to 30 acres, and drill 15 to 20 acres per day, and ride to do it all. The only hard work about farming is in harvesting and threshing.

You never see a stone here unless it has been hauled. This reminds me of ex-commissioner L. K. Cline, when here last summer, seeing a Jack Rabbit sitting near, he commenced hunting for a stone to throw at it. This also reminds me to say, we have the best roads I ever saw. They are as level and as solid as a floor.

The climate here has been delightful since we came, with the exception of two or three stormy days. We are 384 degrees north latitude, while Knobsville is about 40 degrees, making us about 100 miles south of you, which, I think, has a great deal to do with our fine climate, although they tell me it gets pretty cold here sometimes, but only lasts a short time.

The wages for labor is fair—good farm hands command $30 a month, carpenters $2.50 a day, and other mechanics in proportion.

Now, a few words as to ourselves. We arrived here about the middle of July. I went west into Scott county and purchased a team (4 horses), came back, commenced turning part of Kansas upside down. Although I was two weeks behind my neighbors, and had three miles to go to work each day, I managed to plough and seed 143 acres in wheat. About the first of October we commenced building a house, barn, and other buildings, which we just completed last week, having had from four to ten men employed on them for more than three months. Of course, this gave us all plenty to do, and you may know we have not spent much idle time. We are now occupying our new house, which, we think, is one of the cosiest in the country. It is situated one mile west of Ransom, upon a quarter of land I purchased since coming here. I now have three quarters (480 acres) of land. We would be pleased to have any of our Fulton county friends pay us a visit at any time they can make it convenient. Mrs. Kelly and I both like the country very much; but, of course, have regrets in leaving so many warm friends behind. We think we have bettered our condition in life by doing so. I had almost forgotten to mention the water question. I drilled a well and struck sheet water at a depth of 64 feet, which we pump with a wind pump, and which is inexhaustible. In many parts of the west, the finding of good water is quite a question; but this section is well favored with excellent, pure water, free from alkali or other mineral substance.

With best wishes for the happiness and prosperity of the people in Fulton, and our friends and neighbors in and near Burnt Cabins, I will close this rather lengthy communication.

What has become of our Burnt Cabins correspondent?

L. C. KELLY.

Only 52 Years Old.

"I am only 52 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store. Price 50c.

It is said that members of the Pennsylvania Legislature have given up their daily reading of the Bible since the decree of the railroads abolishing free transportation. The frequent iteration of the phrase "and it came to pass" got upon their nerves.

Death of Mrs. John Mann.

Mary E., wife of John Mann, died at her home at Mann post-office, Pa., Wednesday, January 10, 1906, at two o'clock, of pneumonia in her 73rd year. Mrs. Mann has been an invalid for four years, suffering from dropsy and heart trouble. She bore her suffering patiently, was a kind mother, and good neighbor. She has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church for thirty years.

A husband and five children survive her, namely, William, of Louisville, Ky.; Albert, of Midway, Pa.; Mrs. James W. Rosley, of McKeesport, Pa.; Peter and Elmer at home. John Little, of Philadelphia; George Little, of Mt. Gilead, Ohio, and Mrs. Fred Fisher, of Warner, South Dakota are brothers and sister of the deceased. Interment in the family lot at the Tonoio-way Baptist church. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Meeks, of Hancock, Md.

Mary Elizabeth Little was born in Philadelphia, July 8, 1833. In 1843, she with her mother and two brothers and one sister moved to Buck Valley, (father died when she was quite young), later mother and brother moved to Mount Gilead, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Mann celebrated their golden wedding on the 18th of October, 1905. Although Mrs. Mann was in poor health at the time she enjoyed the event.

Mrs. Mann was postmistress for fourteen years.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing Nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics gripe, weaken—dissipate, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers simply expel all putrid matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to return our sincere thanks and appreciation to those who so kindly assisted during the illness and death of our dear wife and mother—John Mann and children, Mann, Pa.
