SHIVES—YAGER.

Former Fulton County Teacher Weds Accomplished Cambria County Lady.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last Friday by Rev. Waters, who united in marriage Mr. Ben F. Shives and Miss Effie Yager. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents two miles southwest of Johnstown, Pa., in the presence of a large number of invited guests, after which the company were invited to the dining room that was tastefully decorated and the table laden with good things. The bride was handsomely gowned in silk crepe de chene. She is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Yager, one of the most estimable and well-to-do families of West Taylor. Mr. Shives is a son of Andrew Shives, formerly of this county, and taught school in Thompson township. When he first went to Cambria county, he was employed by the Cambria Steel Co. as time keeper. He now holds a lucrative position as Principal of the Lanfair Schools, and has received special commendation from the Board for his services. Mr. and Mrs. Shives will go to house-keeping at Livott, Pa.

A Day with Rev. Chambers.

Infancy, youth, fullgrown manhood, and old age are steps in the pathway of time, which only a few fellow pilgrims are permitted to take. The inspired writer says "the days of our years are three score years and ten." Comparatively few men reach this advanced age. Nevertheless the golden days of four score years, are enjoyed by some fathers and mothers. What a picture to survey!

January 24th, the undersigned and part of his family, by the courtesy of a friend, had the privilege of spending a little while with our beloved brother, Lewis Chambers, of Big Cove Tannery, Pa., who has passed his four score and six years. It is both a pleasure and a profit to associate with a man of such years, and especially one whose life has been consecrated to the work of the Lord.

Bro. Chambers was born in Chester county, Pa., January 24, 1820, and was one of 7 children. He has one brother living in Neb. who is 11 years his junior.

Thirty five years ago, the subject of this article came to Fulton county, with his family, and pitched his tent near the spot he now occupies, awaiting the bidding of the master. At present he has 3 children, 15 grand-children, and 3 great-grand-children living. After his beloved companion had completed her earthly pilgrimage he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Jacob Pott, who tenderly administers to his needs.

The active ministry of Brother Chambers covered the greater part of his life. During that time he served congregations at Chattanooga, Tenn.; Laurel, Del.; Philadelphia, Westchester, Lancaster, Gatchellville, and various parts of Fulton county, Pa. During the war of the rebellion, he aided his congregation at Laurel to build a church, using some material from a structure, erected to the worship of God in the days of the Revolution. In Gatchellville he organized a congregation which has renovated and enlarged its temple of worship a number of times. At its last renovation this congregation showed its appreciation of his faithful efficient labors in its behalf by adorning its sanctuary with a window to the memory of its beloved Pioneer. Doubtless this was a well deserved honor. The congregation has manifested, not only in this particular act, the spirit of the apostle, wherein he said, "We beseech you, brethren, to know them which labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you. And esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake."

Though the weight of years has left its impress upon the body of Bro. Chambers, yet his mind is clear, vigorous, and stored with happy thoughts and precious truths; his heart is peaceful, happy and joyous with the presence of the never-failing Friend. Blessed be his day, happy be his night, and glorious be his life. A. G. WOLF.

At the Reformed parsonage, McConnellsburg, Pa., Rev. C. M. Smith, on Monday evening, January 29, 1906, united in marriage Mr. John A. Gress, of McConnellsburg, and Miss Mary F. Mellott, of Ayr to ushup.

At the Reformed parsonage, McConnellsburg, Pa., Rev. C. M. Smith, on Monday evening, January 29, 1906, united in marriage Mr. John A. Gress, of McConnellsburg, and Miss Mary F. Mellott, of Ayr to ushup.

GRACEY.

Chicken-Pox has made its appearance in this vicinity. J. F. Johnson and Erra Cleveger are still sawing for Jeremiah Heefner.

Jesse McClain, who got his hand very badly injured at the sawmill at Robertsdale, is somewhat improving.

The protracted meeting has commenced at Mt. Tabor church. Next Friday is groundhog day. Look out for the ground hog.

Mack Kerlin from Gracay; Jesse Grove from Kansas, and James Deaver from Woodvale, are visiting at the Eastern Shore.

Our school is prospering very nicely under the care of Frank M. Halston.

Mrs. A. S. Shaw is somewhat better at this writing. Mrs. Elizabeth Barnett and son Frank are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Mary McNeal at Johnstown, Pa.

Rev. Wm. M. Hann is visiting friends in this community.

District Attorney Geo. B Daniels left Monday for Kansas, where he will visit relatives and friends. It is not probable that he will invest in any gold bricks enroute, as they will soon discover that George is no Rube.

Among those who were guests in the family of J. W. Lake at Pleasant Pidge, during the past week were, E. N. Palmer, of Everett; Irene Upckensmith; of McKeesport; Etta Hockensmith, of Andover; Mrs. Laura Mellott and little son Luther, of Saluvia, and Mrs. Anthony Mellott, of Sipes Mills.

BUCK VALLEY

We are having some remarkably warm days for the time of year, and mud is quite plenty.

The protracted meeting is to begin at the Christian church on Tuesday evening of this week.

Mrs. Martin True, who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. C. Hendershot, has recovered enough to return to her home in Cumberland.

Mrs. Laura Hebler still remains in critical condition. We hope for her recovery.

Mrs. Crantz Jones has been visiting relatives in the Valley the past week. Jacob Hamman and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. Frances Fletcher in Bedford county.

Marshal Bishop, who has been indisposed for sometime on account of rheumatism is steadily improving.

Margaret McKibbin, after spending a month visiting relatives and friends in the western part of the State, has returned home.

Bertha Rhea, after spending a few weeks with her brother John and wife at Myersdale, returned home last Sunday.

Denton Smith of Piney Grove, Md., spent Saturday night in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Carson.

KNOSVILLE.

We are having a good deal of sickness in our vicinity. John Brukaker has been having typhoid fever, but is some better.

Ella Tice, who has been home on a few weeks' vacation, returned to Altoona last week.

Mrs. E. A. Sharp and daughter Verda, who have been spending the past four weeks visiting friends and relatives in Altoona and Pittsburg, returned home Tuesday.

One of McConnellsburg's most enterprising contractors spent Saturday evening and Sunday in the upper end of the Cove.

D. E. McClain, Saltito, Pa.

Who has successfully conducted a Hardware and Furniture Store since 1888, having failed somewhat in health has decided to close out his entire large Stock of Goods at Cost.

Hardware of all kinds, Ranges, Cook and Heating Stoves, Nails, Glass, Paints, Oil, Fencing Wire, Bar Iron and Water Pipe, Chamber Suits, Sideboards, Couches, Iron and Wood Beds, Springs, Mattresses, Tables, Chairs, Carpets and Wall Paper.

Prospects were never better for business at this stand than at present and bids fair for increase from now on, as Rocky Ridge coal mines, newly opened up are not far off. Good energetic business man can secure fine chance to take my business and continue at Saltito, Pa.

I invite correspondence from any one meaning business. Respectfully D. E. McCLAIN.
