

Andy Bolinger, of Taylor, has made it hot for us. He brought us a load of coal last week.

Don't delay in sending for J. Waters Russel's (Chestertown, Md.) catalogue of farms for sale.

Day Strat and Luther Kirk, of Hustontown, were in town a few hours, attending to business last Thursday.

E. H. Kirk and wife, of Taylor, came to town last Wednesday, and remained until Thursday afternoon in the home of this former's brother, Hon. S. W. Kirk.

HIDES.—Jan. 13, and 16c a pound cash, for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

WANTED.—Bright, honest young man from McConnellsburg to prepare for paying position in Government Mail Service Box one, Cedar Rapids, Ia. 1-10-St.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Booth, of Dublin Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Cromwell, of Clear Ridge, spent the time from last Saturday until Monday visiting relatives and friends in and near McConnellsburg.

Lillian Pott, of Big Cove Taney, was in town last Saturday. Miss Pott said that her grandtante, Rev. Lewis Chambers, who has his home with his daughter, Mrs. Amanda Pott, walked up to Webster Mills and back last Friday.

Miss Rebecca E. Sipes, of Hustontown, called at the News office and had a "7" placed on the label of her paper. Miss Sipes is now sewing in the family of T. Irvin Sipes near Harrisonville, and helping Mrs. Sipes to get ready for their trip west after the sale.

Just a little Kodol after meals will relieve that fullness, belching, gas on the stomach, and all other symptoms of indigestion. Kodol digests what you eat, and enables the stomach and digestive organs to perform their functions naturally. Sold by Stoutegle Bros.

Marshal McKibbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McKibbin, of Buck Valley, who has been postal clerk on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad between Cumberland and Pittsburg, will, in the near future, run between Cumberland and Baltimore, and will make his home in Hancock.

All old-time cough syrups bind the bowels. This is wrong. A new idea was advanced two years ago in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. This remedy acts on the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs and loosens the bowels at the same time. It expels all cold from the system. It clears the throat, strengthens the mucous membranes, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Sold by Stoutegle Bros.

Merchant John Plessinger and Farmer James C. McKee, of Whips Cove, spent last Thursday night at the Fulton House, and after attending to some business in town on Friday morning, returned to their respective homes. Jimmy has been suffering during the past three weeks from an attack of septicaemia on one of his hands. Mr. Plessinger has sold his store property and intends to engage in business elsewhere, but has not yet decided upon a new location.

One of the most unique undertakings of the Pennsylvania railroad in the course of improvements of the main line will be the digging of a new channel for the Juniata river from Vineyard bridge to the Juniata club house, on the middle division, preliminary to the construction of new tracks from Mt. Union to Ryde. A new bed, sixty feet deep and almost as wide as the river at that point, will be excavated and the channel of the river diverted. The present channel will then be used for the roadbed.

Don't deceive yourself. If you have indigestion take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will relieve you. Rev. W. E. Hocutt, South Mills, N. C., says: "I was troubled with chronic indigestion for several years; whatever I ate seemed to cause heartburn, sour stomach, fluttering of my heart, and general depression of mind and body. My druggist recommended Kodol and it has relieved me. I can now eat anything and sleep soundly at night. Kodol digests what you eat." Sold by Stoutegle Bros.

GRACEY.
Mrs. E. W. Lott, nee Miss Mary V. Booker, daughter of Mrs. James Doran, has been visiting in the home of James Doran. She came to this county from her home in Nebraska on the 30th of October, and expects to start on her way home on the 15th of this month. She will stop on her way home at Mount Union and at Altoona for a few days.

Mrs. Lott says that this county has improved greatly in the time she has been absent. She went west in '85, and with the exception of a visit home in '91, she has been away from the county. She is much delighted with the West, and says they have fine climate, and a splendid country. When she read the letters from Mr. Palmer and from Mr. Kelly, and others that have appeared in the "News," she said, "Every word they say about the country is true."

Mrs. Sallie B. Price, formerly Miss Sallie Cramer, of Juniata, Blair county, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. James Doran, and expects to return to her home this week.

IN SELF DEFENSE.
Major Hamm, editor and manager of the Constitutional. Emmence, Ky., when he was fiercely attacked, four years ago, by piles, bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of which he says: "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Quickest healer of burns, sores, cuts and wounds. 25c. at Tront's drug store.

A Correction.
DEAR EDITOR.—In a recent communication received from Rev. Lewis Chambers, he called my attention to a few errors made in my article published in last week's issue of your valuable paper. Permit me to make the corrections. 1. Bro. Chambers' brother lives in Nevada, Ohio. 2. Bro. Chambers did not organize the congregation at Gatchellville, but aided in erecting a new church edifice. 3. Bro. Chambers says he did not preach at Westchester but in addition to the places mentioned in my other article, he preached at Oxford, New London, Kennett Square, Chandlerville, and Rising-Sun.

Respectfully,
A. G. WOLF.

Have You Tried
the new Quick desserts that grocers are now selling? They are justly termed "Easy to Make" as all ingredients are in the package. Three complete products—D-Zerta Quick Pudding and D-Zerta Perfect Jelly Dessert, at 10c per package, and D-Zerta Ice Cream Powder, 2 packages for 25 cents. A trial will convince you how easy it is to have the finest desserts with no labor and little expense.

Tested the School Teachers.
Near Pittsburg recently at a county institute, an instructor sprung a spelling bee upon the almost 400 teachers, and the whole bunch were unable to spell 13 words correctly, and here are the words: Auxiliary, beefsteak, supersede, picnicking, seize, cylinder, desiccated, Tennessee, proceed, sieve, siege, succotash. Fifty missed on "auxiliary" and fifty more could not spell "beefsteak."

WANTED.—Two men in each county to represent and advertise Hardware Department, put out samples of our goods, etc. Traveling Position or Office Manager. Salary $90.00 per month cash weekly, with all expenses paid in advance. We furnish everything.

Local Institute.
The third educational meeting of Ayrtonship held at McNaughton's school last Friday evening, was called to order by the teacher, Maye Mellott, and Mr. C. J. Brewer was elected chairman. The subjects: 1. Nature study; value of; how taught? 2. School room freedom. 3. The teacher's duty to the community and to the profession, were well discussed. The literary part of the program which was well rendered, reflects much credit on teacher and pupils.—Hattie B. Kendall, secretary.

Ira Fore and wife, spent Sunday in the home of their uncle, D. E. Fore, Esq., in Tod township.

Sale begins at 10 o'clock.

WHEN ONE GETS GOOD ADVICE.

One Who Has Gone a Borrowing Tells Some of the Things That Happen.

"Have you ever been to a wealthy acquaintance when you were rather hard pressed," inquired one of two, "and intimidated that a small loan, $50 or $100 would help you along amazingly?" His friend shook his head. "Then don't," continued the first speaker. "Go without; let your beard grow and your trousers fray; wear a rusty collar on your overcoat; imagine that you're getting to stout and persuade yourself that one meal a day is better for you than three; pinch, deny yourself, starve, if you must, but don't borrow. Not that you'll always be refused, or put off, because you won't; but you'll be lectured, which is a thousand times worse."

"When you approach one of these fellows for money it's his inning. He may be pretty loose morally himself, but you'd think to hear him talk that he'd teach the means of bringing Jonathan Edwards to grace. His intimate knowledge of you and every blessed one of your shortcomings is something wonderful and startling. He doesn't omit a single fault or defect, and his interest in you puzzles you. He's that solemn and his face that long that he looks as if he might break down and cry at any minute; before he's half through you're feeling in your pockets to see if you can't lend money to him."

"And the surprising thing about it is that he has you right; he draws a perfect likeness. You wonder who told him. Summed up, you're improvident. You suspected as much. In the end you may get it, but you've earned it—and two or three thousand besides."

Wire Fence! Wire Fence! Much Cheaper Than Any Style of Wood Fence

Let us figure together. A stick of timber that will square 6 inches and is 164 feet in length, will make 494 feet of lumber, which at $1.50 a hundred, is worth 75 cents. Now, I can sell you a good wire fence for 32c a rod, which is less than half the cost of a board fence.

The style I sell at 32c is a "banker" fence. A witness in court was once asked what kind of fence he had, when he made the reply, "I have a "banker" fence." "What kind of fence is that, thundered the court." "A "banker" fence," answered the witness, "is a fence that is horse-high, bull-strong, and pig-tight." That is just the kind of fence I sell. The price ranges from 23c. to 60c., a rod depending on the style and height.

I also sell the

DEERING HARVESTING MACHINERY

—the best on earth. I have just bought my time and will guarantee the price now. Machine Oil from 15c. to 40c., a gallon. Linseed oil, harness oil, cylinder oil, turpentine, white lead, and ready-mixed paints—all at rock-bottom prices.

I am closing out a lot of good horse blankets at cost. Collars, collar pads, trace chains, halter chains, &c., at very close prices. I have the best assortment of axes to be found anywhere in town. Axe handles, pick handles, sledge handles, Simon cross-cut saws, Dixon cross-cut saws, handsaws, a complete line of strap and heavy barn-door hinges. Plumber's supplies—such as pipe, fittings, spigots, &c. I have on hand all the time a stock of Lau's patent band or hangers and trucks—the best hanger on the market—can't get off the track. Proved cable chain from 1/2 to 1 on hand all the time, price ranging from 4 1/2 to 7 cents a pound.

You Are Not Busy

The holiday rush is over and you now have time to complete your wardrobe, to finish that quilt you had laid aside, or to do the many little things you were obliged to neglect on account of having so much to do.

How about that best dress? A wholesaler came to us and offered us the same quality of Mohair that we have been selling at 60c at a big reduction. It was a good chance for us to give you that very popular fabric at a lower price than you have ever bought it.

Just think of it! 45c per yard is our price on a regular 60c article. The patterns are stylish and attractive. Who ever heard of St. Almo cloth, just the thing for waists selling at 15c per yard. We have it in cream white and it is considered cheap at 25c, but this is another of our fortunate purchases and you are getting the benefit of it.

Samples of either Mohair or St. Almo cloth gladly furnished by mail upon request.

Called remnants 4c a yard; Outing Flannels 5, 7, 9 and 10c a yard; Shaker Flannels 5 to 11c.; Canton Flannels 5 to 12; Heavy red Flannel 25c. Special good value Lancaster Gingham 6c. yd.; Cotton for quilts 10c., worth 12c. We are still selling lots of Granulated sugar at 5c. lb.; Brown sugar 5c. lb.; Star Soap, 8 cakes for 25c.; Town Talk Tobacco, 25c. plug; 20c.-broom, 15c.; 4 lbs. Lima Beans for 25c. It's your fault if you are paying more elsewhere.
