The statement has been made by Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, the State Health Commissioner, that free anti-toxin has reduced the deaths from diphtheria in this state eighty per cent. This is certainly very gratifying and has been a blessing to many a poor family, as the great expense of this treatment placed it out of the reach of the poor.

All old-time cough syrups bind the bowels. This is wrong. A new idea was advanced two years ago in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. This remedy acts on the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs and loosens the bowels at the same time. It expels all cold from the system. It clears the throat, strengthens the mucous membranes, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Sold by Stouteagle Bros.

Photogravure reproduction of the President's Daughter.

It's because "all the world loves a lover" that there is such unusual interest in the matrimonial event that will take place in Washington next Saturday. Literally, all the world is interested and will have a share in the ceremonies and festivities.

To remember Miss Roosevelt as a bride will be a genuine pleasure to thousands who may live to see and read of her as a grandmother. In other countries it is the custom to preserve the memories of great weddings like that of Miss Roosevelt and Mr. Longworth with some appropriate souvenir. The custom is to be adopted in this country by The North American, of Philadelphia, which on Sunday next, will publish as a part of its regular edition a handsome photogravure reproduction of the best likeness of the President's oldest daughter. The bride herself selected from scores what she considered the best photograph of herself, and it is from this that the reproduction has been made. It has been excellently printed on high-quality paper in photogravure brown, the tone that reproduces the original, and by a process that renders it more artistic. It is a picture that is worthy of preservation in any home, and will certainly be kept by thousands as a reminder of the most brilliant of White House weddings.

In the same issue of the paper there will be a full detailed account of the wedding ceremony of the previous day, and illustrations showing the magnificence of the ceremony and the incidental festivities. The best descriptive writers of The North American's staff and its ablest artists will contribute their best efforts.

Wire Fence! Wire Fence!

Much Cheaper Than Any Style of Wood Fence

Let us figure together. A stick of timber that will square 6 inches and is 164 feet in length, will make 494 feet of lumber, which at $1.50 a hundred, is worth 75 cents. Now, I can sell you a good wire fence for 32c a rod, which is less than half the cost of a board fence.
The style I sell at 32c is a "bunkem" fence. A witness in court was once asked what kind of fence he had, when he made the reply, "I have a 'bunkem' fence." "What kind of fence is that, thundered the court." "A 'bunkem' fence," answered the witness, "is a fence that is horse-high, bull-strong, and pig-tight." That is just the kind of fence I sell. The price ranges from 25c to 60c, a rod depending on the style and height.
I also sell the
