Raymond Henderson, cashier of the Washington County Bank of Hancock, and lady, called on some of their friends here last Friday evening.
Walter and Tillie Palmer, of Pigeon Cove, were guests of the family of T. W. Peck last Saturday evening.
J. P. and Paul Peck, of Knobsville, spent a few days last week with friends here.
The moves in our village were Eli Peck to the farm he recently bought, Dr. Mellott to the house vacated by Peck, Charley Kershner to the P. O. S. of A. Hall, and Mrs. Mary Peck to the house vacated by Kershner, and Ted Wink to the rooms over Runyan's store.
Brooks, a ten year old son of Joseph Garland, while playing with a dynamite cap last Sunday a week, caused it to explode in his hands. He escaped with a couple of badly torn fingers.
Miss Orpha Snyder spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at the County Seat.
N. H. Peck made a business trip to lower Thompson on Monday.

Our village was thrown into a fever of excitement last Saturday afternoon by the cries of "fire!" The fire was soon located in the residence of Mrs. Mary Peck, known as the Mill property. A shed kitchen attached to the house was in flames. An impromptu bucket fire company of about twenty-five was soon formed, and by hard work the main house was saved but considerably damaged. The kitchen with many culinary articles, was entirely destroyed. Before it was certain the house could be saved, almost everything was carried or thrown out. The fire is supposed to have originated from the stove pipe.
