Letter to Wm. Storer, McConnellsburg, Pa.

Dear Sir: Lead and oil is not good paint; don't wear the rule is, as every one knows, repaint in three years.

Devco lasts six, in the same way—allow wide margin in all such statements. What does it mean, to last? It means the same with both.

As to covering; that's another. Here's an instance.
Mr. J. J. Hall, Sheffield, Pa., painted two houses, lead-and-oil, took 40 gallons.

Last summer bought 40 gallons Devco for the same two houses; returned 10 gallons.

The paint, that covers, lasts; it's all paint, true paint, and full-measure. Lead-and-oil is all paint but not good paint; the lead wants zinc. Better paint Devco.

Yours truly
F. W. DEVCO & CO.,
14 New York.
S.—F. C. Bare, Fort Littleton, sells our paint.

Too Much "Funny Business."
A well-known Kentuckian, according to Success Magazine, tells of a marriage ceremony that Justice of the Peace in the Blue Grass State was hurriedly called upon one day to perform.

It appears that the bridegroom, a big mountaineer, very roughly dressed, had brought his prospective bride with him to the office of the clerk of the Court, thinking to secure his license and have the ceremony performed at one visit. When his license had been duly granted the mountaineer asked if there was a Justice of the Peace then in the Court house who could tie the knot. Upon being advised by the clerk that he himself was a Justice of the Peace and that he was willing to join the two lovers, the bridegroom said:

"Waal, then, we're ready; go ahead!"

"But you'll have to secure two witnesses," smilingly observed the clerk and justice, "before I can proceed."

At this the mountaineer demurred, saying that he did not care for witnesses. Nevertheless, he was convinced in a moment that this formality was an indispensable one, and accordingly the necessary witnesses were procured and the ceremony began. When the couple had promised to love, obey, etc., together with the rest of the service, the Justice of the peace quite innocently observed that the bridegroom should "kiss the bride."

Thereupon the mountaineer exhibited fresh impatience at the exactions of the official "Look here!" he exclaimed, angrily, "it seems to me that you're draggin' in a lot of funny business, in this wedding. Why, I kissed her before we came in!"

FAMOUS STRIKE BREAKERS.
The most famous strike breakers in the land are Dr. King's New Life Pills. When liver and bowels go on strike, they quickly settle the trouble, and the purifying work goes right on. Best cure for constipation, headache and dizziness. 25c. at Trout's drug store.
