Pretty Wedding.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Strait was the scene of a very pretty wedding Sunday, May 20, 1906, when Myrtle L., their eldest daughter, and Cleveland Gordon, son of John and Margaret Gordon were united in marriage by Rev. J. C. Garland.

Promptly at 11 o'clock the bridal party consisting of Flossie Sharpe as flower girl, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Hess as best man and maid of honor appeared before the minister, who with the impressive German Baptist ceremony, pronounced them man and wife. After congratulations the bridal party and twenty five invited guests assembled in the dining room where a beautiful, decorated table groaning beneath its weight of good things awaited them. After all were served, the afternoon was spent in social chat.

The bride wore a white India liner dress elaborately trimmed with lace and ribbon; the maid of honor also wore white India linen. The groom and best man wore the conventional black.

Those present were Martin Bishop, Mrs. Susanne Bishop, M. L. and S. W. Fruax, Mrs. Amos Sharpe and daughters Flossie and Gladys, John Bishop, wife and children, Mrs. Fred Gordon and daughter Elsie; Wesley McKee, wife and son Leonard; Samuel H. Hess, wife and son Blair; Barbara Peck, and T. B. Mellott and wife.

The bride was the recipient of many useful presents. About 3 o'clock the bride and groom drove to the home of the groom, where a number of friends and supper awaited them. The young couple are of Thompson township's best young people, and their many friends wish them a smooth and pleasant voyage together over the sea of life.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

It is possible to obtain relief from chronic indigestion and dyspepsia by the use of Kodol for Dyspepsia. Some of the most hopeless cases of long standing have yielded to it. It enables you to digest the food you eat and exercises a corrective influence, building up the efficiency of the digestive organs. The stomach is the boiler wherein the steam is made that keeps up your vitality, health and strength. Kodol digests what you eat. Makes the stomach sweet—puts the boiler in condition to do the work nature demands of it—gives you relief from digestive disorders, and puts you in shape to do your best, and feel your best. Sold by Stonteaagle & Bro.
