THOMPSON.

The three-day meeting at Damascus was largely attended last Sunday, and an immense crowd gathered at the Iron Bridge to see the baptism of six new members. There were persons there from Hancock, Big Cove Tannery, Webster Mills, and many other points, more or less distant. The rain scattered the crowd a little prematurely.

Rev. Pittenger will preach at Mt. Zion next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, and Rev. Garland at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Annos Sharpe, wife and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Gregory, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hess, were guests of David Gregory's last Sunday.

Mrs. Olive Stoops, of McKeesport, is visiting relatives here.

Reid Simpson and W. H. Pittman expect to go to Charlestown, Va., to place themselves under the treatment of Dr. Joe Pittman.

Emma Mellott and Lillian Pott, of Big Cove Tannery, were guests of Bess Simpson, last Sunday evening.

P. P. Shives and Frank Martin are remodeling the dwelling house of Miss Amanda Pott, near the Tannery.

A Texas Wonder.

There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure cough and cold cure. Guaranteed at Trout's drug store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SIBLING HILL.

The well drilling at Cedar Grove church last Saturday night was well attended.

A. H. Hixson is going to put an addition to his house. Wesley Geenger is the carpenter.

Cattle buyers seem to be plentiful in this vicinity. That is a pretty good sign of a bountiful hay crop some where.

Raney Booth and Mamie Golden of Franklin Mills, visited Otis Hill Sunday.

Mrs. Denton Hendershot and son Leamed of Warfordsburg, visited Job Hill's recently.

May Akers has returned home from McConnellsburg, where she had been attending normal school.

Ed Hendershot visited the family of Geo. Hill Sunday.

Rexie Hess was the guest of Moses Hess Sunday.

Rev. S. J. Pittenger will preach at Bedford Chapel, Sunday evening, July 8th.

Thousands annually bear witness to the efficiency of Early Risers. These pleasant, reliable little pills have long borne a reputation second to none as a laxative and cathartic. They are as staple as bread in millions of homes. Pleasant but effective. Will promptly relieve constipation without griping. Sold by Stout-egale & Bro.

The cigarette fiend is being hit hard upon all sides in the business world. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad company has announced that every employee found smoking cigarettes by the company will no longer be given employment. They have ascertained to their satisfaction that a cigarette fiend cannot, or does not, perform his duties in as satisfactory a manner as does the other fellow. This is poor encouragement for the boys.

DOTI.

Mrs. Geo. Wilson spent Friday evening with her aunt, Mrs. Rachel Hill.

Mrs. Jonathan Sipes is on the sick list.

Wm. Carnell, wife and children spent Sunday with Allen Smith, at Pleasant Grove.

Bennett Robinson, of Hancock, spent Sunday with Wilbert Layton.

James Sharpe's had an ice-cream supper last Sunday evening, in honor of their son, Stanley's second birthday.

There will be preaching at Cedar Grove next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Hendershot.

S. M. Carnell and wife spent Sunday at the home of James Truax.

NEW CURE FOR EPILEPSY.

J. B. Waterman, of Watertown, O., Rural free delivery, writes: "My daughter, afflicted for years with epilepsy, was cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills. She has not had an attack for over two years." Best body cleansers and life giving tonic pills on earth. 25c at Trout's drug store.

A Good Job.

Chas. K. Kershner, of Needmore, has finished plastering G. W. Fisher's house near Forest Mill, now owned by James Johnson. Mr. Fisher is well pleased with the work. Mr. Fisher has built one of the most modern and expensive houses in the county for a farm house. If you want any plastering done, get Charley, as he is one of the best—and I believe the best mechanic in his line in the county.

From a painter,
PHIL. SCHREIBER.

LONG TENNESSEE FIGHT.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Hells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at Trout's drug store.

SALUVIA.

Emery Hessler is laying 200 feet of pipe to bring the water to his kitchen.

S. S. Haan, of Webster Mills, was called to Saluvia last Saturday on account of the death of his sister, Mrs. Joseph Everts.

A very delightful Children's Day service was held at Asbury church last Sunday. The house was not large enough to hold all the people in attendance. The officers and teachers deserve much credit for the success of the service.

Odd fellows sermon next Sunday evening at half-past seven o'clock at Greenhill M. E. church.

Outwits the Surgeon.

A complication of female troubles, with catarrh of the stomach and bowels, had reduced Mrs. Thos. S. Austin, of Leavenworth, Ind., to such a deplorable condition, that her doctor advised an operation; but her husband fearing fatal results, postponed this to try Electric Bitters; and to the amazement of all who knew her, this medicine completely cured her. Guaranteed cure for torpid liver, kidney disease, biliousness, jaundice, chills and fever, general debility, nervousness and blood poisoning. Best tonic made. Price 50c at Trout's drug store. Try it.

Lloyd Poffenberger, of Philadelphia, and sister, Miss Stella Poffenberger, of Foltz, spent last Wednesday, the guests of Miss Estelle Logue, in the Cove.

MARRIED IN IOWA.

George W. Ashton and Mrs. Laura B. Snaveley are united by Rev. I. H. Benedict in Athens.

George W. Ashton, of Wheeling, W. Va., and Mrs. Laura B. Snaveley, of Ida Grove, were married last evening, at 8 o'clock, in Iowa City.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. H. Benedict of the Baptist church, at the home of Dr. Leora Johnson, 22d North Clinton street. The happy couple will reside in West Virginia.

The bride is a former resident of North Liberty, where she was widely known and well liked, for many fine qualities. The groom is a noted Iowa educator, having served five years as a teacher at Ames, six years as superintendent of the Boone City schools, and six years, as county superintendent of Boone county, Iowa.

A host of old friends of the bride and newer, but no less devoted, and friend of the groom, will wish Mr. and Mrs. Ashton lifelong joy and prosperity in the sunny south land, where they will be at home ere long.—Iowa City Daily Press, June 9th.

SIPES MILL.

The time was Wednesday, June 13th, and the place was the hospitable home of Obed T. Mellott and wife. What occurred was—not a birthday party, not a wedding, nor a circus, but a jolly old-fashioned barn raising. About 75 persons were present, and the big structure went up without a hitch. The names of those at the raising are:

Michael, Charles, Sherman and Oliver Bard; Andrew and Will Swope; Thomas, Levi, Dan, E. R., George, William, Nathan and Sampson Mellott; George Haan, Johnson Traux and wife, Thomas Traux and wife, Riley, Aaron, Jordan and George Deshong; Charles Mellott and wife, G. S. Mellott, wife and three children; Charles Brant, Elijah Mellott and wife, John Pittman, J. Lake, Geo. and Elias Haeman; Randolph Palmer, Logue Wink, Joseph and Homer Sipes, Harvey Baidorf, Dick Schooley, Edward and Russel Swope, Frank Gracey, Bennet Mellott, wife and two sons; Milton Mellott and wife, Nathan Palmer, Philip Schreiber, E. N. Akers, Roland Sharp, Edward Mellott and family, Robert Mellott and family, John Hollenshead, Edward Straut and Angelina Mellott and daughter.

There was lots of fun and music by the graphophone while the folks were eating supper. After they had one raising they thought they would have another; so they raised Mr. Mellott and set him down to supper.

Permanent Certificate Examination.

The examination for Permanent certificates will be held in the public school building at this place Thursday and Friday, June 28 and 29. The examination will begin at 9 o'clock, a. m.
