Pleasant Social Affair.

Last Saturday was the eighty-third birthday of Mr. William Patterson, one of Ayr township's oldest and most highly respected citizens. Mr. Ephraim Houck is Mr. Patterson's tenant farmer. Inasmuch as Mr. Patterson is one of the very best of landlords, it occurred to Mr. and Mrs. Houck to give their landlord a surprise birthday party. Preparations for a splendid dinner were made, invitations sent out to about three dozen mutual friends, and at the appointed time Mr. Patterson was taken into the parlor and let into the secret that had been so carefully kept from him up to this time. Of course he was delighted, and the friends present were glad for the opportunity of taking their old friend by the hand and wishing him "many more happy returns."

Mr. Patterson is a remarkably well preserved man for one of his years. Being a man of temperate habits, his mind is as clear as a bell, and it is a great pleasure to sit and listen to him as he recounts events that happened in the Cove in the good days of auld lang sune. He told the folks that day that he almost felt like a stranger in his own home. All of his associates of early days had passed from earth. His father died fifty-seven years ago; his mother, forty, and his wife fifteen years ago.

He was born and reared on the farm that he now owns, and has spent his long life upon it, with the exception of the last five years which have been spent in the home of Hon. D. A. Nelson.

He does not think it any great feat to walk to McConnellsburg, a distance of five miles and return; also, he generally walks to church, preferring to do so rather than to ride in a carriage.

Mr. Patterson related the fact that during his younger days he hauled hundreds of cords of wood to McConnellsburg, and, said he, "I got paid for every stick of it except two loads, and one of the men that owes me is dead, and the other has left the county."

Huston, of Saltillo, pays 15c., a dozen for eggs; 11c., a pound for bhicken, and 50c., for potatoes.

AKERSVILLE.

Fine growing weather. A very heavy rain descended in Brush Creek, Sunday evening.

A number of people from Gapsville and McKendree attended the Children's service at Akersville, Sunday.

Mrs. Mary E. Hixson spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Rhoda Akers.

George McKibbin and sisters Clara and Ivy spent Sunday evening in the home of John N. Hixson.

Viola Hixson has returned from Everett where she had been studying music.

The Children's service at Akersville was well attended. Those taking part in rendering the very interesting program, especially the children, deserve much praise.

John N. Hixson, wife and son Morton, have returned after taking a trip to Westport, Williamsport and Parker. Mrs. Hixson visited her brother the Rev. G. A. Duvall, of Westport, while Mr. Hixson, who was selected as a juror to the United States court, attended it, which convened at Williamsport June 11th.

Our "boss" carpenter, U. H. Williams, is building a wagon shed for Mrs. Irene Truax at Emaville.

HONEST SHOES
More shoes sold in April and May than in four months last year. Scarcely a day passes that we are not asked for a pair of shoes like a pair bought last season. This fully demonstrates that we are selling honest shoes at honest prices. The fact that we bought our spring shoes before the heavy advance in shoes has placed us in position to sell you shoes at old prices which means a big saving to you. Remember a dollar buys shoes worth a dollar here.
We will be pleased to show you anything in our line and will leave it to your good judgment to decide whether it pays to trade here.
