The Walnut Grove Camp-meeting will start on August 10th and will continue for ten days. The session this year promises to be unusually good. Talent has been provided for the various sessions and already all the tents, upwards of 75 have been taken. The meeting this year as in the past, will be in charge of the "Church of God" denomination. The restaurant and boarding house will be under the efficient management of Mr. E. R. Wible, who has had charge of this department for four years. Walnut Grove is a delightful place, situated near Madsdensville. For a ten day's summer outing, amidst the quiet and serenity of the country, it measures up to one of the best in this part of the state.

Picnic.

There will be a grand picnic at Harris's mill, 1 mile below Big Cove Tannery, on Saturday, August 11, 1906, in the evening. Good music and a platform for dancing. A full line of refreshments to be served on the ground.

Lutheran Synod.

York, Aug. 1.—The date for the holding of the eighty-second annual convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of West Pennsylvania, which was scheduled to meet in St. Luke's church, West Maple street, beginning Monday, October 15, has been changed to one week earlier. This action was taken after a conference with the president of the Synod, Rev. T. T. Everett, pastor of Zion church.

The cause for the changing of the date was to keep the event separate and distinct from the meeting of the encampment of Odd Fellows, which opens in this city on October 15. On account of there being so many visitors in the city at that time it will be very hard for the ministers and delegates to get accommodations at the hotels.
