MADE MIDNIGHT TRIPS TO BANK

Stensland's Methods Disclosed at the Investigation.

REASON FOR THE PRESIDENT'S FLIGHT.

Shortage Already Discovered in the Milwaukee Avenue Bank is Between $800,000 and $1,000,000 Bookkeeper Says Stensland's Son Knew What Was Going On-Night Visits to the Bank.

Chicago (Special).-State Bank Examiner J. C. Jones continued his examtration of the affairs of the defunct Mil wankee Avenue State Bank. The examiner was reticent concerning the exact results of his investigations, but intimated that the total shortage discovered is between $800,000 and $1,000,

Inspector Shippy examined more than dozen of the bank's employes. The bookkeeper was positive that Stensland son was cognizant of the shaky condi-tion of the bank before July 14, the date on which young Stensland says he first suspected irregularities on the part of his father. Other employes told inspector of midnight trips to the bank by President Stensland and Cashier

The real reason for the precipitate flight of Stensland is that he knew that he had had his day, and that the end was in sight. For years he had hood-winked Examiner Jones and carried on his tremendous robberies of the 22,000 poor depositors directly under the nose of that official. But now he was to be brought face to face with a surveillance that he could not deceive-watch upon his own and other banks instituted by the Chitago Clearing House Associa-
