There is nothing so pleasant as that bright, cheerful, at-peace-with-the-world feeling when you sit down to your breakfast. There is nothing so conducive to good work and good results. The healthy man with a healthy mind and body is a better fellow, a better workman, a better citizen than the man or woman who is handicapped by some disability, however slight. A slight disorder of the stomach will derange your body, your thoughts and your disposition. Get away from the morbidity and the blues. Keep your stomach in tune and both your brain and body will respond. Little indiscretion of over-eating can be easily corrected and you will be surprised to see how much better man you are. Try a little Kodol for Dyspepsia after your meals. Sold by Trout's Drug Store.

WEST DUBLIN. Stephen Wilson and Jesse Miller killed eight copperhead snakes and one horned snake near the State road in two days. Last Monday afternoon they had killed seventy-eight snakes of different kinds this year.

During last week several of the smaller folks and some of the older ones of our community were sick. All seem to be better now. Quite a number of our people attended camp meeting at Walnut Grove on Sunday.

Mrs. David D. Deshong of Licking Creek township, and son David, were business visitors to this township on Saturday afternoon.

The trustees are preparing to roof the M. E. church at Green Hill.

Pleasant Social Event.

The home of Prof. Clem Chesnut in Hustontown was the scene of a very pleasant social event last Friday evening; and while the genial professor may not be accused with having had anything to do with the getting up of it, he no doubt found as much enjoyment in the little gathering, as though he had been responsible for the whole business. In fact, it was a surprise party gotten up in honor of the twentieth birthday anniversary of Miss Thena Wible, a most estimable young lady, who is about to leave the village and join her parents in Franklin county. The happy thought of giving this young lady this pleasant surprise was conceived by Mrs. House, who did the inviting, and so well had the affair been managed that Miss Wible knew nothing of it until the guests began to arrive about eight o'clock.

Those present were: Elsie Cutchall, Nellie Kirk, Sally Fields, Mae Barton, Nellie Dancy, Jane Heitner, Mamie Wink, Nellie Curran, Edna Hoover, Georgia Deshong, Lydia Newman, Nettie Rank, Viola Newman, Elizabeth Chesnut, and Katharine Daniels, Rev. Daniels and wife, Mrs. Jere Laidig, Mrs. Emmeline Chesnut, Mrs. W. W. Hoover, D. K. Chesnut, H. P. Barton, A. V. and A. H. Woodcock, Allison Koller, Howard Denisar, and Robert House.

After refreshments, consisting of tea, cream, cake and candies, the presents which were many were presented. The merry party then wishing Miss Wible many such events, returned to their respective homes.

Luckiest Man in Arkansas. "I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley, of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lungs; and I owe my good fortune to the world's greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if taken in time. My wife improved with first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At Trout's, the druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SALVIA. The damp, clammy weather of the past week has not been conducive of health; and, in consequence, a great many of our people are complaining of something like grip. Among those who seem to be suffering most are William Moore, Mrs. Henry Betz, and Mrs. Catherine Enslay.

Howell Swartz, wife and two sons were visitors in the home of Howard Hann last Sunday.

The lovers of the genuine old-fashioned buckwheat cakes and honey are looking forward with much gratification to the coming of cold weather when they will draw up around the kitchen table and breakfast on those two famous products of Fulton county; for the prospects of an abundant crop of the former is most promising, while the bees are "improving each shining hour, and gathering honey all the day."

Jacob Hasman's countenance is as bright as an illuminated match box, and it all comes about because his wife presented him the other day with a pretty little baby-girl.

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES. Itching, blind, bleeding, protruding piles. Druggists are authorized to refund money if Pazo Ointment fails to cure in 6 to 14 days. 50c.

Misses Pearl Gress and Mamie Fix spent Sunday with Miss Goldie Lake.

Bruce Taylor and lady friend attended prayer meeting at Bethlehem Sunday night.

Miss Rosella Gress spent Sunday with Minnie Fix.

Howard Fix and son Gerald of Clear Ridge, were visiting friends a few days last week, entertaining them with fine music on a graphophone.

Mr. and Mrs. J. in Lake visited John Ott's family Sunday.

FRIGHTFULLY BURNED. Chas. W. Moore, a machinist, of Ford City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "A quick and perfect cure." Greatest healer on earth for burns, wounds, sores, eczema and piles. 25c at Trout's, the druggist.

A Graceful Tribute.

Roanoke, Va., July 30.—A handsome memorial window to Gen. Thomas ("Stonewall") Jackson was unveiled in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church (colored) yesterday. The window was erected by the pastor, Rev. L. L. Downing, colored; the money for its purchase coming wholly from negroes.

The exercises were largely attended by both races, the Confederate camps of Roanoke and Salem and the chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy of the same addresses were by leading white citizens of Roanoke.

Downing's father and mother were members of a Sunday-school class of negro slaves taught by Jackson at Lexington before the war; and to-day's exercises marked the realization of an ambition Downing has had since boyhood, to pay fitting tribute to the Confederate commander.

The picture presented on the window is that of an army camp on the banks of a stream, the inscription underneath being Jackson's last words: "Let us cross over the river and rest in the shade of the trees."

Don't drag along with a dull, bilious, heavy feeling. You need a pill. Use DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Do not sicken or gripe, but results are sure. Sold by Trout's Drug Store.

Double Birthday Social.

Last Friday at the home of Riley P. Sipes, four miles west of McConnellsburg, was a social event which celebrated the fifty-first birthday of Mrs. D. H. Myers and the twentieth of Mrs. Riley P. Sipes. About 10 o'clock A. M. friends and neighbors began to arrive by twos and threes, and later in family groups, each bringing boxes and baskets of good things to eat. After greetings and congratulations had been extended to the two in whose honor the gathering had taken place, to the complete surprise of Mrs. Sipes, whose house was thus invaded, there was heard the bustle and noise attendant on preparations for a feast of good and substantial dainties. An extensive table was set in the large dining room which was soon laden, and it did not take long to find occupants for every seat. Once, twice and thrice was each and every seat occupied and again, a fourth time was most of the seats filled by the happy people. Ice cream was served to all. After the feast all engaged in pleasant chat and rally. "Titching horse-shoes was one pastime in which James Fix and James Connolly, Jr., were champions. The number assembled was forty. After a couple of hours of pleasant intercourse and talk of old times, the presents were produced which included many, both ornamental as well as useful for both Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Sipes.

Those present were: John Lake, wife, daughter, and two sons; D. H. Myers and wife; John Oakman, wife and three daughters; Nevin Strait and wife; Mrs. Clara Strait, son and daughter; Balthazar Cutchall, wife and three children; Mrs. Rebecca Bardef and three children; Mrs. Della Mellott, son and daughter; Mrs. Joseph Edwards; Jas. Fix and sister Mamie; James Connolly Jr.; John Connolly of Bedford; Riley Sipes; James O. Sipes; Susan Sipes and infant; Grace Mellott and J. E. Sipes.

When arrangements were being made to leave for home, another surprise was sprung by Nevin S. Strait who asked those assembled to gather into a group that he might take a snap shot photograph. This being accomplished, many departed for their homes; but some not yet being fully satisfied with the festivities, remained, and after supper, assembled at the residence of John Oakman, where an ice-cream supper was served, and festivities continued into the wee sma' hours of the night.

May those in whose honor these festivities were held, remain with us to see many returns of such days, and may there be more of those social occasions in our communities at large is the earnest wish of
