While the editor enjoys anything that is good to eat when he is fortunate enough to have it in his possession, he is especially fond of peaches. Whether this fact is known to his friends or not, he was the recipient during the past week, of two lots of as fine peaches as can be grown anywhere. One lot came from Mrs. Rebecca Stenger, of Jugtown, and the other, from Mr. John Hoopgardner, of Thomastown. The peaches were of the Crawford variety—large, red checked, ripe, juicy, fine flavored, luscious, delicious, meaty—in fact they were "great."

In these days of rush and hurry courtesy is often forgotten. In the mad, pell-mell rush of our life little things are done to offend that we rather remained undone. A nastily eaten meal and its resultant headache may cause us social or financial loss. The wise man or woman is the one who relieves little ills of this sort by a little dose of Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat and puts your stomach back into shape. Sold at Trout's drug store.
