

A LAWYER'S UNIQUE WILL.

Devising the Beauties and Blessings Which Belong to All.

Several years ago Charles Lounsberry, a Chicago lawyer, who at one time ranked high in his profession, died an insane patient in the Cook county asylum at Dunning. Although this man was absolutely destitute and penniless he left a "will." This will was duly sent to the probate court, but there being nothing to probate the document was merely placed on file.

Referring to this will at the time the Chicago Record-Herald said that it was framed with such perfection of form and detail that no flaw could be found in its legal phraseology or matters, yet devising only those beauties and blessings which the Great Father long ago devised to all human creatures.

The Record-Herald printed the document as it stood "For the sake of its intrinsic beauty and peculiar interest," for the same reason it is now reproduced here:

"I, Charles Lounsberry, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make and publish this, my last will and testament, in order, as justly as may be, to distribute my interest in the world among succeeding men.

"That part of my interest which is known in law and recognized in the sheep bound volumes as my property, being inconsiderable and of none account I make no disposition of it in this my will. My right to live, being but a life estate, is not at my disposal, but this thing excepted, all else in the world I now proceed to devise and bequeath.

"Item: I give to good fathers and mothers in trust for their children, all good little words of praise and encouragement, and add quaint pet names and endearments, and I charge sad parents to use them justly, but generously as needs of their children shall require.

"Item: I leave to children inclusively, but only for the term of their childhood, all and every, the flowers of the fields, and the blossoms of the woods, with the right to play among them freely according to the customs of children, warning them at the same time against thistles and thorns.

And I devise to children the banks of the brooks and the golden sands beneath the waters thereof, and the odors of the willows that dip therein and the white clouds that float high over the giant trees.

"And I leave to children the long, long days to be merry in, in a thousand ways, and the night and the moon, and the train of the milky way to wonder at, but subject, nevertheless, to the rights herein after given to lovers.

"Item: I devise to boys jointly, all the useful idle fields and commons, where ball may be played; all pleasant waters where one may swim; all snow clad hills where one may coast, and all streams and ponds where one may fish, or where, when grim winter comes, one may skate, to have and to hold these same for the period of their boyhood. And all meadows with the clover blossoms and butterflies thereof the woods with their appurtenances, the squirrels and the birds and echoes and strange noises and all distant places which may be visited together with the adventures there found.

And I give to sad boys each his own place at the fireside at night, with all the pictures that may be seen in the burning wood, to enjoy without let or hindrance, and without any encumbrance of care.

"Item: To lovers, I devise their imaginary world with whatever they may need, as the stars of the sky, the red roses by the wall, the bloom of the hawthorne, the sweet strains of music and ought else they may desire to figure to each other the fastidiousness and beauty of their love.

"Item: To young men jointly, I devise and bequeath all boisterous, inspiring spots of rivalry and I give to them the disdain of weakness and undaunted confidence in their own strength. Though they are, rude, I leave with them power to make lasting friendship, and of possessing companions, and to them exclusively, I give all merry songs and brave choruses to sing with lusty voices.

"Item: And to those who are no longer children, or youths, or lovers I leave: enquiry, and I bequeath to them the volumes of the poems of Burns and Shakespeare and of other poems, if there be others; to the end that they may live the good days over again, freely and joyfully with us or our children.

"Item: To our loved ones with snowy crown, I bequeath the happiness of old age, the love and gratitude of their children until they fall asleep."

Commenting upon this peculiar document the Record-Herald said:

"The human mind is a peculiar instrument. The mind of a man justly adjudged insane by his fellows will turn out veritable masterpieces of poetry or literature now and again. The ways and means by which the unbalanced mental machinery accomplishes at once such real wonders and such wonderful mistakes constitutes one of the most perplexing mysteries known to the scientific student—a mystery second only in intensity, in strangeness and interest, to the mystery of life itself."

Rescue of a Merchant.

A prominent merchant of Shongon, N. Y., J. A. Johnson, says: "Several years ago I contracted a cough which grew worse and worse, until I was hardly able to move around. I coughed constantly and nothing relieved my terrible suffering until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. Before I had taken half a bottle my cough was much better, and in a short time I was entirely cured. I surely believe it saved my life. It will always be my family remedy for colds." Fully guaranteed; 50c and $1.00 at Trout's drug store. Trial bottle free.

Statistics show that one person in every 1200 in the United States is blind and that one in every 850 is deaf. This high proportion will no doubt cause surprise to those who believe these maladies to be less prevalent in this country.

It will probably be an item of news to most readers that the postmaster is not compelled to make change for you when you make purchases at Uncle Sam's office. This is a queer rule that not one in a thousand persons knows. Buyers of stamps or any purchases at a postoffice must furnish their own change; i. e. the postmaster could insist on the buyer furnishing his own change if he sees fit to do it; but usually the postmaster is willing to accommodate the public by making all the change it asks for.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember what it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, pushing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mr. D. Kauble, of Nevada, O., says: I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

Kodol Digests What You Eat and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure. Bottles only $1.00. Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c.

CLEAR RIDGE.

There are several cases of typhoid fever about Hustontown. Adam Long and wife, of Saltville, passed through our town Sunday morning.

Jacob Crider and wife, and Christopher Hershey expect to go to Altoona next Monday.

Richard Truax came near being seriously hurt last Wednesday. He was standing on a scaffold helping Ross Stams to thresh when the scaffold gave way, throwing Mr. Truax, and giving him a severe shaking up and some ugly bruises. Ross applied the turpentine and Mrs. Crider found the bandages, and together they had Mr. Truax as good as ever in a short time.

Howard Kerlin and Omah Cutchall, of Salea, spent last Sunday at J. P. Kerlin's.

Z. B. Barnett lost a valuable horse a short time ago. Mr. Barnett has been unfortunate with his stock, he having lost three horses and one cow the last year.

Mrs. A. W. Brown is spending two weeks with the family of Jacob Crider at New Granada.

Mrs. Wilson Cutchall returned to her home in this place last week, after having spent two months very pleasantly visiting her son Clarence in Pittsburg.

Mrs. James Appleby and children, of Decorum, have been visiting the former's parents, N. B. Henry and wife.

Bess Fields was the guest of her many friends here Saturday.

Levi P. Morton, of Fort Littleton, spent Saturday and Sunday at J. D. Steve's.

Mrs. Catherine McClain, her daughter Cordelia, and Minnie Black, spent Sunday at A. W. Brown's.

Mrs. T. E. Fleming and daughters Ada and Zelpha, spent Sunday at D. Rubie's.

B. S. Fleming was at the County Seat Monday on business.

Mr. Hockensmith of Johnstown, is visiting in the home of Howard Fix.

Mannie Grove spent Sunday with her cousin Lou Brown.

B. S. Winegardner is nursing a very sore finger.

D. K. Chesnut and Harper Barton spent Saturday evening at W. L. Fields'.

Rella Raker spent part of last week with her sister, Mrs. C. E. Stevens.

Everybody loves our baby, rosy, sweet and warm. With kissy places on her neck and dimples on her arms. Once she was so thin and cross, used to cry with pain—Mother gave her Cascasweet, now she's well again.

You know what you are giving your baby when you use Cascasweet. The ingredients are on every bottle. Contains no opiates. For loss of sleep. A vegetable corrective for the bowels. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Hurrah! For The I. H. C.

The Gasoline Engine is one of the most useful things a farmer can own. With one of these useful machines he can saw wood, grind feed, shell corn, pump water, and many other things. They are being used in some places for electric light plants. I have sold two since Jan. 1, 1906, and expect to sell several more before the year is up.

The demand for Pittsburg fence is still growing. This is a positive proof that it is all right. I have it on hand, and am selling it right along at the lowest price possible.

The time for fodder twine is coming on, and I have just bought one and a half ton of it. I expect to sell it at a very close margin. See me before you buy.

My space in the paper does not give room to mention all the different kinds of goods I sell; but will name a very few such as:

Machine oil, 18 to 37 per gal.; Linseed oil, 50c a gallon; Barrels oil, 60c a gallon; Cylinder oil, 30c a gallon; Axle grease, 10 lb., 60c; Collars, Collar pads, Wire, Wire nails, Buggy tire, Horse shoes, White lead, 7 and 7c; Ready-mixed paint, $1.15 a gallon; Shovels, Hoes, Picks, Trace chains, Halber chains, Fork handles, Pick handles, Hand saws from 40c. to $2.50; Hay forks, rope and pulleys; Cross-cut saws, from $1.10 to $4.00; Single and Double Axes.

Thanking those who have so liberally patronized me, and kindly soliciting the continuance of the same, I am Yours respectfully,
Geo. B. Mellott,
McCConnellsburg, Pa.
