Walter Aller, well known in the upper end of the county, is one of Colorado's successful homesteaders. About fifteen years ago he took up eighty acres of land in Grand Valley, 160 miles south of Leadville, Colorado, and recently sold half of it for $4,000.00. His attention is principally given to fruit raising and this fall he has marketed about $7,000 worth. We have on our desk a fine peach grown on his farm and it is a "bute" sure.

RUTH WEST MARRIED.
Grand-daughter of Rev. Wm. A. West, D. D., of this Place, Bride of Prominent Altoonan.

Tuesday afternoon of last week, at the residence of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings, of Harrisburg, Miss Ruth Waddell West was united in marriage to Thomas Elder Campbell, of Altoona. The ceremony was performed by the bride's grand-father, the Rev. Dr. Wm. A. West, of this place, in the presence of only the immediate families and some college friends. She was given away by her uncle, William Jennings.

Exactly at 4 o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by a stringed orchestra, the wedding party entered the doorway and through an aisle of ropes of asparagus and white dahlias, held by her pages, Christian Lynch Jennings and Edward Jennings, reached the deep bay window at the end of the parlor. This room was lovely with its simple decorations of white dahlias and asparagus fern and with the soft light from many white candles glowing from silver candelabra.

The ceremony was performed in the bay window, which was a mass of ferns and dahlias. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white messaline, trimmed with princess lace, a tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern. She was attended by Miss Anne Nelson, Chambersburg, as maid of honor, and by two bridesmaids, Miss Riddle Media, and Miss Grace Baxter, Trenton, New Jersey. They wore dainty gowns of yellow louisine and carried large bunches of yellow chrysanthemums. The groom was attended by Fred Brown, Clarion, Pa., as best man, and Daniel S. Horton, New York, and Clyde Gutherie, Indiana, Pa., as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left for the north, and will be at home after November 15th at Altoona.

DEVIL'S ISLAND TORTURE
Is no worse than the terrible case of piles that afflicted me 10 years. Then I was advised to apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and less than a box cured me, writes L. S. Naylor, of Hughes, Ky. Heals all wounds, burns and sores like maggot. 25c at Trout's the drugist.

The members of the Hazleton Game and Protective Association are in hearty accord with the bill being prepared by the State Game Commission, compelling every hunter to pay $1 per annum for the privilege.

Can you win? You realize that to win in anything these days, requires strength, with mind and body in tune. A man or woman with disordered digestive organs is not in shape for a day's work or a day's play. How can they expect to win?
