Keep the bowels open when you have a cold and use a good remedy to allay the inflammation of the mucous membranes. The best is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Sir. It contains no opiates, moves the bowels, drives out the cold, is reliable and tastes good. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Miss Lula McCleary, very kindly remembered as a former resident of McConnellsborg, but now residing in Dixon, Ill., in advancing her subscription to the "News," says business is booming in her city. A new City Hall, a new Y. M. C. A. building, and lots of private residences, have been erected this summer and fall.

There will be an educational meeting at the corner school in Ayr township, Oct. 19th. Questions for discussion: 1. Elements of a successful school. 2. Spirit and form of politeness in school. 3. How do you teach grammar to both grades; its value. All patrons and friends of education are cordially invited to attend.—Lillian Bishop, teacher.

Baby had a little pain. Father said "That kid again!" Mother gave her Cascasweet. Father said "It can't be beat."

Cascasweet is a vegetable cord for the stomach and bowels of babies and children. Contains no opiates and the ingredients are on each and every bottle. Pleading to take. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Miss Emily C. Hall, of Keyser, W. Va., a graduate of the West Virginia University—her course of study having included civil engineering, has accepted a position with the Pennsylvania Highway Department, and is at present in the office of Engineer Taylor assisting in the drafting of the roads in this county. Miss Hall is also a skillful stenographer and typewriter.

Mrs. Felix Bellman, formerly Miss Amanda Hohman, of Ayr township, now a resident of the state of Washington, in sending us the cash to advance her subscription to the News well into the year of 1909, says, "We are all so anxious to read the News." It is just like reading a good letter from the friends back in "Little Fulton." My mother and John are both very well.
