

If you want 20c. per lb. for your butter, 25c. per doz. for eggs, 75c. per bushel for onions—take them to Huston, at Saltillo.

George Finiff, Sr., is Tod town ship's champion pumpkin grower. He has just harvested one that weighs 90 lbs., and measures 71 inches in circumference.

Nellie Williams and Becket N. Howard, of Chambersburg, left for home Tuesday, after having spent a pleasant time in the home of Miss Nora Weston.

For backache and rheumatism use DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. Cleanse and purify the blood. A week's treatment for 25c. Sold at Trout's drug store.

The Holy Communion service, which was to have been celebrated on Sunday last, in the Knobsville M. E. church, has been postponed until Sabbath afternoon, November 4th at 2:30 o'clock.

Joseph Booty and family, of Bedford, are spending a few days visiting friends and relatives in this county. They, with Mrs. Booty's mother, Mrs. Ruth W. Swope, were over at Foltz, on a visit last week.

True and tried friends of the family—DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Best for results and best to take. Rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes follow the use of these dependable little pills. They do not gripe or sicken. Sold at Trout's drug store.

A L. Shirk and Fritz Thomas, of Chambersburg, were out at Bert Hann's a couple of days last week for a little hunt. They, with Charley Deshong and Bert Hann, went out and succeeded in bagging three turkeys, two coons, five squirrels, and a pheasant.

Keep the bowels open when you have a cold and use a good remedy to allay the inflammation of the mucous membranes. The best is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Sir. It contains no opiates, moves the bowels, drives out the cold, is reliable and tastes good. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Mrs. J. J. Conrad, of Ayr township, left last Friday morning for a month's trip among friends in the West. She will spend a day or two with her daughter, Miss Nora, in Pittsburg; thence to the home of her sister Dossa, widow of the late Jacob W. Mellott, at Princeton, Minn., and returning will visit her brothers, Upton and Cal Fryman in Michigan.

And now, to wit: Ayr township makes claim to the championship for big pumpkins. J. K. Tritle, on the Ridge west of town, has just gathered one from his garden that tips the beam to the tune of 98 pounds. It measures 67 inches in circumference one way, and 64 another. It developed from the blossom in less than three months, and after it got warmed up to growing, gained from six to seven inches in circumference a week.

Baby had a little pain. Father said "That kid again!" Mother gave her Cascasweet. Father said "I can't be beat." Cascasweet is a vegetable corrective for the stomach and bowels of babies and children. Contains no opiates and the ingredients are on each and every bottle. Pleasing to take. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Prayer Meeting, following Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.—John C. Grimes, pastor.

Can you win? You realize that to win in anything these days, require strength, with mind and body in tune. A man or woman with disordered digestive organs is not in shape for a day's work or a day's play. How can they expect to win? Kodol for Dyspepsia contains the digestive juices of a healthy stomach and will put your stomach in shape to perform its important function of supplying the body and brain with strength building blood. Digests what you eat, relieves indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, palpitation of the heart and constipation. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Local Institute.
There will be an institute at Fort Littleton school, Friday evening of his week. Topics: 1. Little things in school, and the importance of them. 2. The misfits in school. 3. Attention; how secured and held. 4. Signs that a teacher is nearing the dead line. 5. Personality of the Teacher.—Levi P. Morton, teacher.

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES.

Pleasant Event.
A very pleasant event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sipes recently. It was the coming home of the Sipes family. Those present were Wilmer Rupe, wife and two children, of Birmingham; Homer Sipes, wife and four children, of Harrisonville; Joseph Booty, wife and three children, of Bedford; Mrs. May Lake was not present on account of bad weather, neither was A. C. Mellott and family. The parents were delighted, and the grandchildren had a delightful time. There was a sumptuous meal prepared to which all did ample justice.

A LUCKY POSTMISTRESS.
Mrs. Alexander, of Cary, Me., who has found Dr. King's New Life Pills to be the best remedy she ever tried for keeping the stomach, liver and bowels in perfect order. You'll agree with her if you try these painless purifiers that infuse new life. Guaranteed by Trout's the druggist. Price 25c.

Home from the Army.
S. V. Hoop, who has spent the past three years in the regular army, being a member of 119 Company, Coast Artillery, has concluded his term of service, and was honorably discharged on the 23d of September. He expects to remain at home until about the first of January when he will go to Washington and enter the civil service.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Arm Broken.
Mrs. William Baumgardner, of this place, sustained a painful accident last Saturday morning. In walking through the lot at her home on East Main street, she stepped on a wet board, slipped, and to protect herself from a violent fall, threw her right hand forward. In the fall, however, the hand and arm were not strong enough to support her, and her arm was broken between the wrist and elbow. Dr. McKibbin was called and rendered the necessary surgical aid.

If an article is initiated, the original is always best. Think it over, and when you go to buy that box of salve to keep around the house, get DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is the original and the name is stamped on every box. Good for eczema, tetter, boils, cuts and bruises, and especially recommended for piles. Sold at Trout's drug store.
