Surprise Party.

On Thursday, November 15th, the home of George Miller, at Webster Mills, was the scene of a joyous event occasioned by the celebration of Mrs. Miller's 30th birthday. About half past 10 o'clock, her friends and neighbors began to arrive, laden with baskets, and boxes. After greetings had been exchanged, and a little social conversation indulged in, all sat down to a table that groaned beneath its load of good things—such as rolls, bread, cakes, cold ham, chickens, jellies, tea, coffee, and many other appetizing things.

Mrs. Miller was the recipient of quite a number of useful presents to remind her of the event. About 4 o'clock in the evening, all returned to their homes, feeling that time was not lost in spending a day in social intercourse with friends and neighbors. Those that were there, were: Nat Rotz, wife and son Paul; John Lake and wife, Riley Peck, Mrs. Chas. Vores, Mrs. Catherine Vores, Will Summers, wife and children, and Henry Everts and wife—all of McCounellsburg; E. B. Lake, of North Dakota, Mrs. Harriet Mellott and daughter Rosa; Mrs. John Mellott and daughter Blanche; Oliver Mellott, wife and son—all of Gen.; Mrs. Robert Graham and daughter Georgie, of Webster Mills.

Besides killing the rabbit and the turkey, he also on the same trip, shot and killed a hawk that measured four feet and four inches, from tip to tip.

Last Saturday as Edward Linger, of Dutchtown, Franklin county, was busy husking corn, he was not a little alarmed at an imperative summons to come to the house quickly.
