A Social Event.

A very enjoyable event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Kesselring, near Gracey, last Friday evening, in honor of their oldest son Harry, who had reached his twenty first anniversary. It was a grand and complete surprise to him. He had remarked that evening to a man, that it was his twenty-first birthday, and he had been watching them at home all day. About three o'clock in the afternoon he and his mother went to Clear Ridge to do some shopping, and returned home about eight o'clock. After he had put the horse to its place, he went into the kitchen and found that something was "doing," and in a few minutes, started for his room to make a hasty change in his toilet, when about three of the able bodied boys hoisted him up against the ceiling, till he thought they were trying to crack his skull. Promptly at 9:30 o'clock, the dining room door swung open, where stood a large table that groaned under its heavy load of good things to eat. The friends had not forgotten the presents, which were many and useful. Harper Barton, of Hustontown, was there with his graphophone and a fine lot of records, which helped the cause along. After supper was over the games began, which made things lively. When the hall clock began to strike the long and solemn midnight hour, the friends began to disperse, all wishing Harry many more such happy occasions. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, not more than one-third were present that were invited.

GRACEY.

The farmers are now worrying about the winter's wood.

King Mellott has moved his saw mill to Will Gracey's, where he is sawing out a bill for a new barn.

There will be a Christmas entertainment at Mt. Tabor, next Tuesday night.

William Witter is on the sick list.

Jesse Berkstresser left last Monday for Urichville, Ohio, to take a course in Telegraphy.

The protracted meeting is in progress at Center M. E. church.

The people of this community were shocked last Saturday morning to hear of the death of Mrs. Curt Aucker man (formerly Gracey). She leaves a husband, nine children—the youngest being about six months old, and her aged mother, Mrs. Betty Gracey, besides four brothers and two sisters. Interment Monday afternoon at Center cemetery.

Mrs. Clara Bergstresser spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Wathen, at Three Springs.

Isaac Bolinger's children at Dublin Mills, are sick with scarlet fever.

Daniel Landers is having an extension put to his house.

Reprint, News Herald: "There is at least one effectual, safe and reliable Cough Cure—Dr. Shoop's—that we regard as suitable, even for the youngest child. For years, Dr. Shoop bitterly opposed the use of opiates or narcotics in medicine, offering $10 per drop to any one finding opium, chloroform, or any other poisonous or narcotic ingredient in Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And the challenge is as yet unanswered. Here is one manufacturing physician, who welcomed with much satisfaction the new Government Pure Food and Drug Law. The public can now protect itself at all times, by insisting on having Dr. Shoop's, when a cough remedy is needed." Sold at Dickson's drug store.
