Weekly Review of Trade and Latest Market Reports.

New York.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s re-view of trade says: The new year opens bright with promise in business circles, no ex-censive stocks being carried over, and results of inventories fully equal san-guine anticipations. It is especially noticeable in dispatches from the West that there was less than the customary full in business during the holiday season, while bargain sales are rapidly disposing of the moder-ate supplies remaining on hand. In the leading industries contracts on the books are very large and plants periate fail time, except when ma-terials or fuel cannot be secured or inished products cannot be forwardinished products cannot be forwarded to consumers. "There is much complaint from Northwestern flour mills on this point, and export trade is also re-stricted because grain and other merchandise fail to reach the sea-board promptly. To this delay may be attributed part of the decrease of $12,246,655 is export from this port $1,749,665 in exports from this port for the last week, as compared with the movement a year ago, while im-ports exceeded the very heavy total for the previous year by $1,581,590.

"Many new contracts for a large tonnage of steel appeared during the last week, notably structural materal for San Francisco. "Wheat was depressed by accumu lated stocks at the Northwest and weather conditions are favorable for winter weat in this country, while the Argentine harvest is progressing rapidly. Shipments to Europe thus far this season from all surplus na-tions have not reached the dimen-sions promised by large crops, and the smaller yield in Russia is a sustaining factor in the markets for distant options. But domestic trading lacks vigor, speculators at the West taking little aggressive action. Steady absorption of spot cotton and tear of pressure against the short account in the option market brought higher quotations and much cover-ing of outstanding contracts."

A feature of the 1905 returns is the increase in the number of deaths, both of human beings and cattle, at-tributed to leopards. It is suggest-ed by a writer in Balley's Magasine that these beasts seek their prey more readily than they used to do in the neighborhood of villages. The fact that more licenses to dearest fact that more licenses to possess firearms were held in 1905 than in the previous year may be noticed; but it has long been recognized that it is impossible to discover any re-lation between the number of firearms in native hands and the num-ber of deaths from wild beasts.

During 1905 more dangerous wild beasts were killed than in 1904. Deasts were killed than in 1904. The official figures are: tigers, 1,355: leopards, 4,811; bears, 2,236; wolves, 2,016, and hyenas, 554. Well-known man-cating tigers were killed in several districts. A regu-lar crusade against wolves has been carried on in parts of the Central Provinces, where these brutes are most numerous and most trouble-some.-N. Y. Sun.

THE LAXATIVE OF KNOWN QUALITY

There are two classes of remedies; those of known quai-ity and which are permanently beneficial in effect, acting gently, in harmony with nature, when nature needs assistance; and another class, composed of preparations of unknown, uncertain and inferior character, acting temporarily, but injuriously, as a result of forcing the untural functions nunccessarily. One of the most exceptional of the remedies of known quality and excellence is the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., which represents the active principles of plants, known to act most beneficially, in a pleasant syrup. in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to contribute their rich, yet delicate, fruity flavor. It is the remedy of all remedies to sweeten and refresh and cleanse the system gently and naturally, and to assist one in overcoming coustipation and the many ills resulting therefrom. Its active principles and quality are known to physicians generally, and the remedy has therefore met with their approval, as well as with the favor of many millions of well informed persons who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual experience that it is a most excellent laxative remedy. We do not claim that it will cure all manner of ills, out recommend it for what it really represents, a laxative remedy of known quality and excellence, containing nothing of an objectionable or injurious character.

There are two classes of purchasers; those who are informed as to the quality of what they buy and the reasons for the excellence of articles of exceptional merit, and who do not lack courage to go elsewhere when a dealer offers an imitation of any well known article: but, unfortunately, there are some people who do not know, and who allow themselves to be imposed upon. They cannot expect its beneficial effects if they do not get the genuine remedy.

To the credit of the druggists of the United States be it said that nearly all of them value their reputation for professional integrity and the good will of their customers too highly to offer imitations of the

Ten years ago our yearly produc-on of coal was 170,000,000 tons. and we thought it a heap. Last year we mined 400,000,000 tons. In 1896 we produced $,600,000 tons of pig iron. Last year we produced 25,fron. Last year we produced 25,-600,000 tons. Our copper output of ten years ago was 240,000,000 pounds. It is now 900,000,000 pounds. In 1896 we dragged from the bowels of the earth minerals and mineral substance worth about $625,000,000. The value of our mineral produce in 1906 approxi-mates $2,0.0,000,000. These figures are bewildering in their immensity. It is no wonder that we are the rich-est nation on earth. Yet in spite of it all there is something left to hope for, and there may be something left to fear.---N. Y. Sun.
