The Blair County Court granted rule to revoke the license of the Altamont Hotel, the largest hotel in the county, on the grounds that the proprietor declined to sell liquors across the bar to colored people. The hotel men of the county are discussing the advisability of opening Jim Crow bar-rooms to avoid outbreaks of race prejudice.

It has been decided that the night schools must be closed until the con tagious diseases now afflicting the children of Scranton are checked. That the health authoraties have control of the stiuation now seems ovident. The school buildings are to be fumigated and all text books are not to be taken from homes where contagious disease has existed. There are 124 prisoners in the Northampton County Jail, the great-est number in the history of the county. The number of prisoners have increased about 30 per cent, in the last year. The jail is over-crowded. Many of the prisoners are men sentenced to thirty days and less by the police courts of Easton. It has been suggested that if these men were placed on a bread and water diet during their imprisonment the fact would soon become general-ly known, and the number of prisoners would probably be reduced.
