Communicated.
EDITOR NEWS: Will you kindly give me space in your paper to make public a very great wrong done to some of the voters of this election district—myself included. In November last a number of qualified voters of this district went to the election house, received our tickets, marked and deposited them in accordance with the law, but that was the last of them. The official returns published in the county papers fail to show that they were counted. From a letter in my possession it seems that the election board, either intentionally or unintentionally, did a grievous wrong. I am inclined to think from the evidence at hand that the election board is responsible for the misdemeanor, for misdemeanor it is; and that of no small nature.

And, again: I have been informed that at this February election, this same board violated the constitution which they swore to support by refusing two voters the right to exercise the privileges assured them by Article VIII, Section 7 of the constitution of the State of Pennsylvania. Now, there is no excuse for this last act. Some of the board knew these same two voters all their lives, and knew them to be freeholders and, furthermore, knew that these same two voters were born and raised in Belfast township—the one living on his farm—the other living with his father within a stone throw of his farm, and both living contiguous to this same official, who sat quietly, not even raising his voice in protest against the outrage. What are we to think when men who have paid tax for forty and more years, can be brow-beaten and turned away from the polls in so high-handed a manner as this? Let this board vindicate itself if it can do so.

Respectfully,
THOMAS LALEY.
Gam, Penna.,
