We are sorry to learn that J. Milton Unger has been suffering during the past month with gangrene in one of his toes. Dr. Mosser is treating the diseased member, and we hope for a speedy recovery.

Joseph B. Mellott, who has been keeping store at Andover for some time, will close his business at that place next Saturday, and will reopen the store at his farm south of Andover, where he will be glad to welcome all his old patrons and as many new ones as shall favor him with their custom.

A cross and peevish child is not natural. There is something wrong. Usually it's the stomach. Use Cascasweet and put the stomach right, and the sun shine will return to the baby's face. Cascasweet is best for babies and children. 50 doses 25c. Sold by Trout's drug store.

Mr. Ellwood Carbaugh and family have moved from Thompson township to S. A. Nesbit's farm in Tod township. Mack Chesnut who had been living on the Nesbit farm has moved to T. J. Comerer's farm near Burnt Cabias.

For Catarrh, let me send you free, just to prove merit, a Trial Size Box of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. It is a snow white, creamy, healing, antiseptic balm that gives instant relief to Catarrh of the nose and throat. Make the free test and see. Address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Large jars 50 cents. Sold by Dickson's drug store.

In answer to inquiries, we are informed that there will be a Normal school in town this year, beginning about the same time as last year.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. Its nice even for the youngest child. Sold by E. R. McClain.

The Editor Who Broke Loose. E. H. Harriman, at a Gridiron club dinner in Washington, urged originality on several newspaper correspondents in a striking way.

"I'd like to see you cut adrift from old-fashioned, cut-and-dried, insincere methods," said Mr. Harriman. "In a less extreme way, I'd like to see you write with the candor of a certain Southern editor. He, on the occasion of a society marriage, broke loose from all conventions. He went too far, of course, but in spirit it was right. What he said was:

"Miss Jane Smith was married to young John Jones yesterday afternoon. The bride is the usual type of town girl, and knows no more about housekeeping than an Indian. She is not a beauty by any means, and her laziness and vanity have caused her parents a good deal of trouble in the past. The groom is well known here as an up-to-date loafer. He has been living on the old folks all his life, and now when he needs a job, will probably have some trouble in finding one. We hasten to extend no congratulations. This couple will have a hard life while they live together, and we don't think any good can come from such a union."

Kind Remembrance.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lake Garland, near Cross Roads school house on Timber Ridge, was made happy last Saturday morning when friends and neighbors began to assemble to remind Mrs. Garland that it was her thirty-eighth birthday.

At 12 o'clock the many filled baskets were emptied of their contents and placed on the table in the dining room and all were invited to partake of the many good things which go to satisfy the appetite.

Those present were, Rev. Powers and wife, Aaron Garland, wife and children; Grandma Garland, Mrs. Georgie Hess and son, Mrs. Anna Mellott and daughters; Mrs. Laura Funk, Oliver Mellott, wife and children; David Hill, wife and daughters; William Summers, wife and daughters; E. B. Lake, of New Rockford, N. Dak.; Wilbur Deshong, Misses Rosa V., Janet, and Blanche Mellott, Sharpe, R. Y., and Ralph Mellott.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland and children were all at home and many other friends were prevented from being present on account of sickness. The time was spent in social conversation, songs, and an address by Rev. Powers, taking for his subject, "God's Mercy and Care for Us as The Years Come and Go." The merriment of the children was very attractive. Mrs. Garland received many good and useful presents.

A FRIEND.

A Sweet Tooth.

You needn't be ashamed to admit that you have a "sweet tooth"—that you like candy. Sugar is just as essential to your physical well being as salt. To supply this demand in the most agreeable way, is the work of the candy-maker, and your chief concern is to get pure wholesome goods. E. R. McClain has the finest line of confections in this county; and the beauty of it is, they all come under the requirements of the Pure Food Law. If you want choice candies for yourself, your girl, or your children, go to M'CLAIN'S.
