

Houston of Saltito is buying wool. Pays cash or trade.

C. B. Stevens of this place sold his driving horse to Dr. Swartz welder at Mercersburg last week.

Sections for all kinds of Reapers and Mowers at W. H. Nesbit's at prices lower than ever before.

The Elihu Anderson farm at Sheriff's sale Monday, was sold to Dr. D. A. Hill, of Fort Littleton, for $510.

When you feel the need of a pill take a DeWitt's Little Early Riser. Small pill, safe pill, sure pill. Easy to take—pleasant and effective. Drives away headaches. Sold by Trout's drug store.

The only reason advanced for the increase in price of graves in Pittsburg, is the fact that all the other "necessities of life" are going up.

For scratches, burns, cuts, insect bites and the many little hurts common to every family, DeWitt's Carbolyzed Witch Hazel Salve is the best remedy. It is soothing, cooling, clean and healing. Be sure you get DeWitt's Sold by Trout's drug store.

Mrs. Josephine Garrettsen, last surviving sister of Mrs. M. B. Trout of this place, died at her residence in Morristown, N. J., last Monday. Her husband Justice A. O. Garrettsen, of the Supreme Bench, New Jersey, died just a week previous.

Piles get quick and certain relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Please note it is made alone for Piles, and its action is positive and certain. Itching, painful, protruding or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Large nickel capped glass jars 50 cents. Sold by Dickson's drug store.

Rev. Dr. West is attending the annual alumni reunion of the Franklin and Marshall College at Lancaster this week. Dr. West graduated from the old Marshall College at Mercersburg, fifty-seven years ago, and of his classmates, but two others than himself are living.

LOST.—A black leather purse containing about sixteen or seventeen dollars, was lost on Wednesday of last week between the tollgate west of town, and Newton Knable's in the Meadowgrounds. The finder will receive five dollars reward by returning the purse and money to the News office.

Mrs. Harriet Sipes, widow of Robert Sipes, a former esteemed resident of this place, but for a number of years visiting at Portland, Indiana, was a guest of Mrs. E. N. Palmer for several days past. Mrs. Sipes is going to make her home at Emmaville, Fulton county.—Everett Republican.

Mrs. Edith M. Barton, widow of the late County Superintendent Barton, after having made sale of most of her personal property, left McConnellsburg with her two little sons George and Charles, for Newport, Pa., where she expects to reside for the present. During Mrs. Barton's stay of five years here she endeared herself to a large circle of warm friends who greatly regret that circumstances have arisen by which she severs her relations with our people.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, which are unequalled for Backache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary troubles. A week's treatment for 25c. Sold by Trout's drug store.

J. W. Fields, of Oklahoma City, Okla., who had been on a business trip to New York City, spent the time from Friday evening until Monday with his father, D. T. Fields, in this place. John, who for several years was Director of the State Agricultural Station at Stillwater, Okla., has severed his connection with that institution, and removed to Oklahoma City, where he is publishing the Oklahoma Farm Journal, one of the leading farm journals in the West, and that John is making the enterprise a big success, goes without saying.

Birth Day Surprise.
Last Thursday morning as Mr. Jacob Sharpe was going about his work, he saw vehicles coming up the road which he took for a gang of gypsies. When he saw them enter the lane he said, "Now for a horse trade;" but by the time they came around the barn he found they were his friends and neighbors.

When he noticed the well-filled baskets he remembered that it was his 54th anniversary. A cut of 11 o'clock the large dining table was groaning under its load, which only a woman like Mrs. Sharpe knows how to prepare.

Mr. Sharpe received quite a lot of fine and useful gifts, which makes him wish his birthday came twice a year.

Among those present were: D. H. Fore and wife, A. L. Wible and wife, William Kelso and children, Lewis Kelso and family, M. and Mrs. Peter Scheideman, son Dewey and daughter Helen, Easton Stinson, wife and daughter, N. F. Sharpe and wife of Kearney; George W. Sipes and wife of Harrisonville; Miss Melvina Hershey, Mrs. Enoch Kerlin and son Norman, and Mrs. Geddes Johnson and daughter Goldie.

The guests were entertained by some fine music both vocal and instrumental, and the men enjoyed a few games of horse-shoes.

The friends returned to their respective homes in the evening all wishing Mr. Sharpe many more such occasions.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him. Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles by Trout's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

About Letter Writing.

In these busy days, letter-writing is an almost forgotten art. The telephone and the telegraph play such important parts in the sending of messages and the transmission of news, that they take the places of the social call and the family letter.

Yet there are dear, far-away friends and relatives from whom one would like to hear once in a while, and with whom one would like to exchange occasional greetings.

An efficient way to accomplish this object is to establish the custom of exchanging letters once a year at a specified time.

Three women of my acquaintance, who were college friends, have for over 20 years, written to each other a letter which reached each recipient on her birthday. These letters are always long and interesting, containing the news of the year, and are always eagerly anticipated by each one.

These friends are so widely separated by distance and circumstances that they have visited each other but once in all this time, yet through the yearly letter they have never lost interest in each other.

Under such arrangements, there are no awkward breaks in the correspondence, no excuses to be made for not writing sooner or oftener, and no question arises as to whose turn it is to write.

A DANGEROUS DEADLOCK that sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back, at Trout's drug store. 25c.

The Newton Hamilton Campmeeting will be opened for tenters July 1st. The meeting will open August 5th and close the 20th. The services will be in charge of Rev. W. C. Wallace, of Wallacetown, Pa. The singing will be in charge of Prof. Arthur Watkins, of Harrisburg.
