A few days ago David Weaverling who lives in the old toll-gate house just east of Everett, was taking an after-dinner nap in a Morris chair in the sitting room. Being disturbed as he supposed by a fly, he slowly opened his eyes and saw a big snake coiled around his shoulders, the head of the reptile looking him square in the face and darting its tongue out tickling his nose. We leave the reader to imagine just what happened, but Mr. Weaverling is living yet, and the snake is not.

Like man that told us that a whip that cost him 50c, he sold for $1.00. We don't do that. We have now whips at 9-10-15-20-25-35-42, up to 75c, and the whip at 75c, is the same as lots sell at $1.50.

Just That.

There is a certain old gentleman who partakes of the qualities of the diamond as it is mined, but whose lack of "polish" is a sad trial to his eldest daughter. The old gentleman, as he expresses it, "got thar with both feet when some dude investors come piratin' round the range." Not long ago the family was gathered in the library, one of the windows of which was open.

"That air"—the father began, but was quickly interrupted.
"Father, dear, don't say 'that air.' Say 'that there,'" the daughter admonished.
"Well, this ear"—he again attempted, but was as quickly brought to a halt.
"Nor 'this ere.' 'This here' is correct," he was told.

The old gentleman rose, with an angry snort. "Look here, Mary," he said, with asperity. "Of course I know you have been to school and all that, but I reckon I know what I want to say, and I am going to say it. I believe I feel a cold in this ear from that air, and I'm going to shut the window."—Harper's Weekly.

A Clear Claim.

An official of the pension office at Washington offers the following excerpt from an especially amusing letter received from a claimant for pension.

"The way I got my injury was a ketchin of a hog. The hog were a sow hog and our Capten wanted her for forage. He was chasin the sow and she crawled threw a hoal in a rale fence—it were a big hoal and I thot I were about the size of the hog and tried to crawl threw, but I stuck and trying to wigle out I throd the rales off and one hit me on my hed and necked me senseless. I do not think the sow had nothing to do with my line for duty for I did not ketch the hog. Wich she never were caught."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Must Pay $50 License.

It is not generally known but it is a fact that the last legislature enacted a law requiring a license fee of $50 in every county in Pennsylvania, in which a gypsy band encamps. Frequently gypsies come to Fulton county. They usually pitch their tents on the Ridge west of town, or in Trout's woods north of town. The famous Lovell tribe were annually wont to come here and the members of the tribe visited town homes, telling fortunes and soliciting food. A convention of gypsies is to be held near Flemington, Clinton county, where one band is already camped, to consider what the wandering fortune-telling fraternity had best do about the requirements of the law. The convention is to be held about August 1, and it is expected there will be about 200 in attendance.

Nearly all old fashioned Cough Syrups are constipating, especialy those that contain opiates. They don't act just right. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup contains no opiates. It drives the cold out of the system by gently moving the bowels. Contains Honey and Tar, and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by Trout's drug store.

The Average Woman.

What the bulk of women want is a decent home, a respectable means of earning a fair wage, and good men to look after them, whether those men stand in the position of father, brother or husband. That is all the average woman desires.—London Lancet.

What It Costs To Die.
It costs us about $125,000,000 a year to bury our dead in America. There are 6,000 funerals a day, and, included in the expenses are coffins, caskets, metal or slate outside boxes, upholstery, craps, hire of horses, carriages and trains, purchase of cemetery lots and fees for the undertaker.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mr. D. Kautle, of Nevada, O., says: "I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me."
Kodol Digests What You Eat and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressures.
Bottles only $1.00. Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c.
