LAW IN FULL FORCE.

Governor Vetoes Bill Repealing Vaccination Law.

To satisfy the demands of the people for a change in the vaccination law the legislature last winter passed a bill repealing that section of the law making vaccination compulsory except when there was small pox in the community, but when the bill reached the governor he vetoed the measure, and the law remains in full force. The encouragement of the advocates of the law have thus received will doubtless encourage them in enforcing it to its full extent.

Surprise Party.

On Sunday, the 7th inst., as Mr. Simon Daniels was sitting in his home at Pleasant Ridge, incidentally reading that page of the Fulton County News that is prepared especially for Sunday reading, his attention was diverted by the arrival of numerous friends and neighbors. Mr. Daniels had read of frequent instances where friends and neighbors had swarmed down on people, who had a birthday, and as his birthday came on Sunday, this business had to be attended to on Sunday—else it would belike celebrating Fourth of July on Christmas.

The usual ceremonies were observed in a manner befitting the day, and at noon all surrounded a bountifully laden table, and ate and drank to Mr. Daniels' health—not drinking anything stronger than ice tea, of course.

Mr. Daniels now spends his spare time looking at the large number of valuable and useful gifts left by his friends as they departed for their homes.

The people who were responsible for this trouble, are Misses Georgia, Belle, Myrtle, Anes, Mary, and Lucy Mellott; Mrs. Lydia Mellott, Pearl Akers, Mrs. Dennis Mellott, Ephraim, Harry, Bryan, Alfred, Sampson, James, and Dennis Mellott.

If it were not that he has no wish to rob Methuselah of the World's Championship Record of birthdays, Mr. Daniels would be glad if one came every day.

"Who, in your estimation, was or is the greatest woman in the world?"

Mr. Nesbit's reply was: "The unknown woman who invented apple pie. She was, and is, and ever will be, the woman who has done more than any other to gladden the heart of man."

IN COILS OF BLACKSNAKE. York County Woman Had Frightful Experience in Harvest Field. Mrs. John Dunlap, mother of Rev. James F. Dunlap, presiding elder of the Williamsport district of the United Evangelical Church, had a frightful experience with a huge blacksnake, which coiled itself about her while she was assisting in the harvest field on her farm, in York county last Thursday afternoon. Her experience easily furnishes the champion snake story of this season. Mrs. Dunlap, who is 58 years old, had been forced by lack of laborers to assist in the field. She was alone on a newly-cleared tract of land, awaiting the return of the wagon from the barn, when she felt that her legs were entangled in what she believed to be binding twine. Attempting to disengage herself, she was horrified to find that she was in the coils of an immense snake. As she fell to the ground, crying for help and struggling vainly to tear away from the serpent, the wagon appeared and the farmhands ran to her rescue. Their united exertions were not sufficient to remove the snake, which tightened its coils with every effort to drag it away. Finally, with their knives, the men hacked it from her body piecemeal. It measured more than seven feet in length.
