"We never repent of eating too little," was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to every one without exception during this hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by Trout's drug store.

HUNTING FOR TROUBLE.

"I've lived in California 20 years, and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters, of Alleghany, Sierra Co. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed Trout's drug store. 25c.

Popular Sunday School Teacher.

Last week's Index, an illustrated paper published in Pittsburgh, has a picture of Mr. H. W. Cromer and members of his class at the Smithfield Street Methodist Episcopal Sunday School off for a row in the war canoe of the Duquesne Canoe Club. The Index says: The members of the Sunday school class at the Smithfield Methodist Episcopal church, of which Mr. H. W. Cromer is instructor, enjoyed a delightful outing on Saturday at the Duquesne Canoe Club. The class, which is one of the largest in the city, having enrolled 36 members, spent the afternoon on the river. At 6 o'clock supper was served on the lawn at the club house, the party returning to the city at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Cromer is better known here as Horace Cromer, a native of Fort Littleton—the husband of Mary Woodal—but for many years a popular business man in the Iron City.
