Mrs. Emma Smith and her niece Jane McKelway, who have been spending several weeks in McConnellsburg, will leave for Pittsburg, Saturday, for a week's stay, when they expect to return to their home at Flushing, L. I. Mrs. Smith and her niece are delightful people, and a glad welcome will await their return at any time they may find it convenient.

Don't accept a cough cure that you may be told is just as good as Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup because it isn't just as good—there is quite a difference. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently upon the bowels and clears the whole system of coughs and colds. It promptly relieves inflammation of the throat and allays irritation. Sold by Trout's drug store.

Mr. John H. Gaster, together with his family and his niece Miss Letitia M. Duganna, are spending a very pleasant vacation visiting their friends and relatives in Fulton County.

After having spent a few days with his sister Maggie E. Gaster of Altoona, they have departed for Wells Tanery where several days will be spent visiting another sister Mary E. Harman. Before returning to his home in Sewickley, Mr. Gaster expects to visit another sister in Chambersburg, Mrs. Sarah A. Tice. This is the first time Mr. Gaster had an opportunity of visiting the old homestead since the death of his mother, and his vacation among his old friends in Fulton County is proving one of great pleasure and benefit to him.

"We gave, repent of eating too little," was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to every one without exception during this hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by Trout's drug store.

"A Plea for Religion in the Nation."

The National Reform Association has issued a leaflet with this title. It is not a plea for an establishment of religion or for any formal religious acknowledgments or observances on the part of the nation, but an argument for faith in God and regard for his law as a factor, the chief factor, in the life of the nation. It quotes from Washington, Adams, Lincoln and Webster as to the importance of religion as a determining force in the life of nations. It expresses the concern of earnest citizens lest religious convictions cease to govern our life as a nation, points out the evil consequences which would follow, and makes specific appeals to parents, to teachers, to ministers of religion, to the press, to Christian young people, to the Christian manhood and womanhood of the nation, to uphold and inculcate the principles and the institutions which are involved in our claim to be a Christian nation. The observance of the Sabbath and the suppression of profanity are urged on patriotic grounds. On the same grounds it pleads for chastity, the suppression of vice and the reformation of our corrupt divorce laws. It asks all citizens to consider whether any man who proclaims by his conduct that he does not fear God and has no regard for his moral laws can be rightly or safely elected to civil office. This plea is signed by more than fifty representative men and women who thus signify their concurrence in it. Among these are ex President Cleveland, Governor Hoch of Kansas; Judges Lanning and Groscup, of United States District Courts in New Jersey and Illinois; Bishops Andrews, Mallicote and Warren of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Bishops Niles, Brewster, Whitaker, Mackay Smith, Oimstead, Coleman, and Leonard, of the Protestant Episcopal Church; Bishop's Selwyle and Hogue, of the Free Methodist Church; Dr. William H. Roberts, Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly; Dr. Ethelbert D. Warfield, President of Lafayette College, and other College Presidents; Mr. S. B. Capen, President of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions; Dr. Henry M. MacCracken, Chancellor of New York University; J. Campbell White, General Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement; Charles Gallaudet Trumbull, Editor of the Sunday School Times; Amos R. Wells, Editor of the Christian Endeavor World; Dr. Charles W. Smith, Editor of the Pittsburg Christian Advocate, and other religious leaders. Bishop Mallahan insists that this Plea ought to be scattered by millions of copies. Although it is a leaflet of thirty-two pages, in order to facilitate its widest possible circulation, a single copy will be sent to any address for three cents, and ten, or more, for two cents each. The cooperation of earnest citizens everywhere, in its distribution, is earnestly solicited. Send orders to the National Reform Association, Room 603, Publication Building, 209 Ninth Street, Pittsburg, Pa.

HUNTING FOR TROUBLE.
"I've lived in California 20 years, and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters, of Allegheny, Sierra Co. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed Trout's drug store. 50c.

Barn Burned.

The large bank barn on the Melvain place, on the top of Sideling Hill was burned to the ground on Sunday last. A few days before a large lot of damp hay had been stored in it and the supposition is that the hay heated and caused spontaneous combustion. Partially insured.

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed; and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alive; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God; I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Uncephor, of Grovetown, Stark Co., Ind. This King of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed by Trout's drug store. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
