The advertising merchant is the one who does the business in these days of push and enterprise. There are more newspaper readers to day than ever before in the history of the world. The newspaper places your business under the eyes of the buyer. He sees what he wants, and, knowing where to find it, looks up the wide awake merchant who asked him to come and see him.

There are many hundreds of dollars expended annually by Fulton county citizens who send to the city for merchandise, which could be bought just as cheap at home. It's a bad practice, and against the best interests of town. And, strange to say, some of the offenders in this respect are business people—persons who depend on this community for support.

One of the most important bills relative to the Post Office Department to be presented to Congress during its next session is with reference to the passage of legislation providing for a three-cent postal note, or other substitute for postage stamps and coins in remittances of small amounts through the United States mails. The demand on the Department to provide such a note has been growing steadily.

Or if you would rather have a nice pair of high shoes, we have them. Look over this ad and our stock and see how much we have advanced goods, and you will find it very little. We can sell you wall paper as cheap as 3c. a bolt.

We have Clothing at prices that can't be matched by any one. In working garments we handle the Shippensburg goods.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mr. D. Kauble, of Nevada, O., says: I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

Kodol Digests What You Eat and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure. Bottles only $1.00 Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c.
