That there is a monstrous bear prowling around in the vicinity of Webster Mills admits of no varied in length from one foot to doubt. Several times within the past few weeks have tracks been seen. Just a few days ago, Scott S. Hann and Jeff Harris were up at Scott's buckwheat fineld, and noticed where his bear ship had gone into the field and tramped down the buckwheat with his great broad feet, as he passed through the field: Judging from the size of the tracks the bear's a whopper, and no mistake.
