Two Banks Close.

Hagerstown, Oct. 10.—The doors of two banks in this county closed yesterday—the Washington County Bank, Hancock, of which Raymond Henderson is cashier, and the Keedysville Bank, Keedysville, Charles E. Koogle, cashier. Both are branches of the Farmers' Trust, Banking and Deposit Company, of Baltimore. The cashiers said that instructions had been received from Baltimore during the afternoon to close the banks.

Tightness of the money market is the reason assigned for the failure of the Farmers' Trust, Banking and Deposit Company, Baltimore, of which receivers were appointed.

After a newspaper man has yelled himself hoarse in an effort to persuade people to patronize home merchants and accidentally stumbles on to the fact that some fellows he is trying to protect are sending away for their job printing or are using printed matter sent out by patent medicine houses, soap factories or other concerns, it rather shakes his confidence in mankind, and makes reciprocity look like a lead dime with a hole in it.
