NUMBER 8

PROPOSED ENTERPRISE.

Opportunity for McConnellsburg to Have a New Industry That Would Afford Employment for Many Girls and Women.

UP TO OUR HOME PEOPLE TO DECIDE.

Last Thursday morning a big automobile brought to our town J. Gosh Bower, of Hagerstown, and H. W. Byron, of Mercersburg, two prominent and substantial business men, who made a request that the business men of this place assemble at the Commission's office in the Court House at 11 o'clock, stating that they had an important proposition to submit. At the time mentioned, the Commission's office was well filled with the representative business men of this place, and the proposition submitted was practically as follows:

Messrs. Bower and Byron intend to erect a factory in some available town for the manufacture of light articles, such as caps, shirts, &c., which would give employment to not less than fifty girls and women, and to as many more as would want employment to the number of five or six hundred. The skill required in the operator is just what is possessed by any one who is able to handle a needle or run a sewing machine. The rooms in which the operators would have to work, would be clean, well lighted, and in cool weather, comfortably heated, with every convenience for the best sanitary conditions—in fact, the work rooms will be veritable sewing parlors, and the girls and women will be as tidy and neat as though employed in an up-to-date millinery establishment.

Those gentlemen stated further that they had several towns in view, and that some of them were very anxious to secure the location of the plant; but, as far as they were concerned, there were reasons why they would like to give McConnellsburg an opportunity to secure the enterprise—the principal one being, that they want a large number of girls and women, and they thought that more might be secured here than in towns where there are more opportunities for employment.

How much will these operators be able to earn a week, was asked? O well, that depends. They will work on piece work, and the more industrious and skillful will earn more than the listless and idle. Ordinary operators soon earn anywhere from four to nine or ten dollars a week.

Some one in the crowd, who was handy with a pencil, found that a hundred girls averaging even six dollars a week, would mean a distribution in the town of over thirty thousand dollars a year, and, of course, twice that many girls would mean twice that much money—and so on. The gentlemen making the proposition said there was practically no limit to the number of girls that could get employment.

In addition to an assurance that the necessary help could be secured, Messrs. Byron and Bower stated, that, inasmuch as an enterprise of the kind proposed would be of great benefit to the town and surrounding community, it was only fair that the citizens should show their interest and good will by donating ground sufficient for a site for the plant.

To this proposition, those present readily assented, and a committee composed of Hon. John P. Sipes, D. L. Grissinger, and Cashier W. H. Nelson was appointed to accompany the visitors to the grounds that might be available for their purpose, and after a trip around town, the visiting gentlemen selected the acre lot of Thos. J. Comerer, west of the Court House, and the west half of the acre lot on which the Presbyterian parsonage stands, which adjoins the Comerer lot, or, as a second choice, the Irwin lot, located between the Creamery and J. B. Ryan's land. It re-

Church Dedication.

The new church at Saxton, The Fulton Memorial Presbyterian, will be dedicated on Sunday, November 10th. The dedicatory services will be held at 10:30 a. m., and the sermon will be preached by Rev. W. Henry Schayler, Ph. D., of Center Hall. A Jubilee service will be held at 2:30, at which addresses will be delivered by Hon. John Fulton, of Johnstown; Hon. Joseph E. Taropp, of Everett, and Wm. Reed, Esq., of Huntingdon. Evangelistic services will be held in the evening, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. J. W. Boal, of Centre Hall.

All will be welcome to this, the most important occasion in the history of Saxton. Entertainment will be provided for all visitors attending these services.

We notice that Will Hoise, formerly one of the trustees of the Presbyterian church in McConnellsburg, is one of the trustees of the new Saxton church.

Shake in a Bottle.

Now is the time when the doctor gets busy, and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. This is the advice of an old eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble weather is here, and also tells what to do in case of an attack.

Get from any good prescription pharmacy one half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple home-made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if your back aches or you feel that the kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be a splendid kidney regulator and almost certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood, which the kidneys fail to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.

Druggists in this town and vicinity, when shown the prescription, stated that they can either supply these ingredients, or, if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for them.

END.

S. A. Foster is taking a few days' rest on account of the H. & B. T. tralumen's strike.

Corr. hocking is beginning to be the occupation of the farmers here now.

Chas. Schenck, who had been at Bedford for the last few weeks has returned home.

Stunkard's cider mill closed for the season, last Wednesday.

Mrs. H. C. McClain, of Juniata, is visiting her parents this week.

Miss Nora Griffith, of Everett, spent Wednesday night in the home of A. G. Edwards.

Oliver Mock and wife, of Altoona, are visiting the latter's relatives in Wells.

Not to be outdone by other great cities, Enid decided to have a "mummer's parade," and accordingly our young people, together with a number of others from Wells Tannery, assembled and paraded to the home of James Lockard, on Hallows'a, where they spent the evening most enjoyably.

means to be seen yet whether either of the selections named can be purchased.

To make a canvass of the town see how many girls and women can be found willing to work in the factory, the following committee was named: J. G. Reinsner, Geo. W. Hays, J. Campbell Patterson, M. W. Nace, and D. E. Little. These gentlemen made a canvass of the town and found that fifty persons were willing to take work.

A SEVEN DOLLAR BILL.

A Relic of Colonial Days in the Possession of Albert Stoner of this Place.

When Merrick A. Stoner, of Bedford was visiting here a few days ago, he gave his brother Albert a seven dollar bill issued by resolution of Congress more than one hundred and twenty-nine years ago. The bill, which is in fairly good state of preservation, is 2 1/2 x 3 1/2 inches. On the face is printed "No. 85489. Seven Dollars. This bill entitles the Bearer to receive SEVEN Spanish milled DOLLARS, or the value thereof in Gold or Silver, according to a resolution passed by CONGRESS at Philadelphia, September 20th, 1778." The bill bears the signatures in red ink, of N. Donnell and J. Snowden. On the back of the bill, we learn that it was printed by HALL and SELLERS in 1778.

As his Fulton county friends know, Merrick is a first class furniture maker, and carries on a good shop in Bedford. Some time ago, one of the old families of that old town, brought an ancient piece of furniture to Mr. Stoner's shop, with the request to "do it over." In this piece of furniture Merrick discovered a secret drawer, which upon being opened, contained several hundred dollars in Continental currency, the bill given to Albert being a sample. Of course, the money is not worth a "continent" now, but it is interesting for its historical association.

GRACEY.

October 30.—We have been having very dry weather for the past few weeks, and the rain last Sunday was very acceptable to the farmers.

Hayes Witter and wife, of Pitscairn, are visiting in our community for a few weeks.

Miss Edith Kerlin, of Tyrone, visited her cousin, Mrs. Theresa Heefner last week. She was accompanied by Mrs. Heefner's sister, Mrs. Mintie Miller.

Bertha McClain has been visiting relatives in Robertsdale for some time.

Jesse Berkstresser, of Eurichville, Ohio, is visiting his parents near this place.

Jesse B. Heefner, wife, and little daughter Olive, spent part of last week visiting Mr. Heefner's brothers, Ezra, at Alexandria, and James at Petersburg—both of whom are in the mercantile business, and doing well. They also visited Newton McClain and family at Mount Union.

Some of our men spent last Thursday working on a piece of road between Gracey and Waterfall, which will be fine when completed.

Our school is progressing nicely under the care of Mr. Wink.

Mrs. A. J. Fraker spent the past week in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Theresa Heefner, assisting Viola McClain keeping house for Mr. and Mrs. Heefner during their absence.

Leisure—Summers.

At the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. W. M. Hann, in Ayr township, on Wednesday, October 30th, Thomas A. Leisure and Miss Minnie B. Summers were united in marriage. The contracting parties are both residents of Ayr township, and have gone to housekeeping at the home of the bride.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee is in either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. E. R. McClain.

STEWART-STOLL WEDDING.

W. N. Stewart, Son of James A. Stewart at Greenhill, Wins Trenton Bride.

The following description of a beautiful church wedding in the city of Trenton, N. J., is taken from the Daily State Gazette, of that city, dated Thursday, October 24th.

"The First Presbyterian church last night was again the scene of a pretty wedding, when Miss Helen A. Stoll, daughter of Major and Mrs. Augustus F. Stoll, of 838 West State street, became the bride of William N. Stewart, of McConnellsburg, Pa.

The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Henry Collin Minton, and was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The church was prettily decorated with chrysanthemums and potted plants.

The bridal party walked up the aisle to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," and as they left the church, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Jennie Hatton.

The bride was given away by her father. She was attired in a gown of white chiffon cloth over white silk, trimmed with hand-made lace and satin. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Marjorie S. Alpaugh. She wore a gown of yellow chiffon cloth, trimmed with mousseline silk, and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were Miss Leila Titus and Miss Emily Alpaugh. They wore white batiste, trimmed with baby Irish lace.

The flower girl was Miss Elsie Titus. She was attired in white and carried a basket of lilies of the valley. The best man was J. R. Wrenshall, of Harrisburg.

The ushers were D. Taylor Ivms, Dr. A. W. Beltung, George Bell and Weiling Titus, of this city, and William Clark and C. B. Harveson, of Philadelphia.

After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, there being about 200 guests present. There was a large canopy extending from the curb to the house, which sets back some distance from the street.

It was a chrysanthemum wedding and that favorite flower predominated in the decorations. The parlors and dining room were prettily decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums. The large veranda was entirely enclosed and made comfortable with rugs and flowers.

All along the canopy there were many various colored electric lights, southern smilax, potted plants, and wild flowers. At the entrance to the house was a white papier mache bell, and a piano was placed on the room-like porch.

The bride and groom, after spending several days in the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stewart, at Greenhill, and visiting other relatives and friends in this county, have returned to Trenton, and will reside at 838 West State St.

Social.

On Friday evening, November 15th, the Rehoboth Sunday school in Thompson township, will hold a social and chicken supper at the home of Geo. W. Fisher, the proceeds to go to the benevolent collections of the Rehoboth M. E. church assessment. The school extends a cordial invitation to the public generally to attend and help the cause along and have a jolly good time.—Annie Brewer, Secretary.

Dr. Garthwaite Weds.

Cards announcing the marriage of Dr. I. Singleton Garthwaite, formerly of Webster Mills, this county, to Mrs. Minnie S. Byron, of Denver, Colo., on Thursday, October 10th, have been received by some of the groom's friends in this community.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES.

Held This Year In Buck Valley, and at Warfordsburg, November 18th-21st.

The farmers of this county should be interested to learn that the annual Farmers' Institutes will be held this year at Warfordsburg, and in Buck Valley. They will be held in the Valley on Monday and Tuesday, November 18th and 19th, and at Warfordsburg, on Wednesday and Thursday, 20th and 21st.

A number of instructors from other parts of the State, will be present to join with the farmers of this locality in the discussion of topics relative to agriculture. These meetings are free and open to all, and we have no doubt the farmers of this county will avail themselves of the advantages to be gained by attending these meetings.

Only those farmers who attend these meetings from year to year know how much the farmers miss who do not attend them. One of the best evidences of their value is, that those who once attend do not need any urging to attend the meetings afterward. Then, they are free, too. While it is true that every farmer through the payment of his taxes, helps to pay the expense of holding these institutes, he pays nothing further, and if he does not attend upon the instruction when it is thus brought to his door, he shows by his action, that he does not know a good thing when he sees it.

DUBLIN MILLS.

Isaac Bollinger, who had been on the sick list for quite a while, was on the mend, but he has taken a setback again.

Harry Chamberlain, of Sixmile Run, was in our town last week.

Rev. Daniels, of Hustontown, killed a fine turkey last week.

Mrs. Margaret Bollinger has returned home from Woodvale, after a week's visit, to help wait on her son Isaac.

Mrs. Michael Laidig is visiting relatives at Robertsdale.

Allie Forrenburg has had a very bad spell of inflammatory rheumatism that has disabled him from work.

Bert Knepper is the lucky boy of our town. He has killed a fine big turkey, but I think it must have been a blind one.

Blaine Booth went to Finleyville to dig coal, but the strike has thrown him out of work.

Bertie Bollinger has returned home, after a long visit with his brother and sister at Woodvale.

Mrs. Corn Bartow, who was visiting friends in our town last week, was called home very unexpectedly.

John A. Henry, of Clear Ridge, passed through our town last week.

Newton Black attended the dedication at Finleyville last Sunday.

Mercersburg Bank Cashier Dead.

James W. Witherspoon died at his home in Mercersburg last Sunday morning, aged 63 years, 7 months and 15 days. He had been cashier of the Farmers' Bank at Mercersburg for thirty years prior to his death, a position he held to the entire satisfaction of those with whom he had business relations.

The third Educational Meeting of Ayr township was held at Webster Mills School, last Friday evening. It was called to order by the teacher, Miss Mary Houston. The following questions were ably discussed: 1. Difficulties in the way of teaching History. 2. Employment for Friday afternoons. 3. Thinking in the Reclamation. Seven teachers were present. A number of recitations and songs were well delivered by the school.—Rhoda Kendall, Sec.
