The showing made at the State mcreased activity in many coun highway. ties during the year.

A word of warning, however, should be sounded right at the beginning of this year's cam paign. To "get busy" simply for the purpose of capturing the prize of State banner at the next striven for solely and purely be cause of the incalculable benefit it brings to the local school. To and tried methods in teacing druggists. God's Word and in securing de cisions for Christ is the business of the organized Sunday-school work in Pehnsylvania, and this should be done independent of prize banners.

The State Association, however, delights to houor the county association that is standing true to the purpose of its existence and bringing about results such as were shown at the State

It will be well for all Sundayschool workers to study the County Association Standard and consider the position your county now occupies and then consider what individual help you can lend to give it a more honored posi-
