Any use which tends to cheapen and above all, any use which tends to secure its being treated in a levity, is from every standpoint profoundly to be regretted. It is a motto which it is indeed well to have inscribed on our great national monuments, in our temples of jus tice, in our legislative halls and in buildings such as those at West Point and Annapolis--- in short wherever it will tend to arouse and inspire a lofty emotion in those who look thereon. But it seems to me eminently unwise to cheapen such a motto by use on coins, just as it would be to cheapen it by use on postage stamps, or in advertisements. As regards its use on the coinage, we have actual experience by which to go. I have never heard any human being speak reverently of this motto on the coins, or show any signs of its having appealed to any high emotion in him, but I have literally hundreds of times heard it used as His an occasion of and incitement to the been sneering ridicule which it is above himself since his retirement from the presidency. WAS LEFT OFF Weekly Review of Trade and Latest Market Reports.

> R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: There were fewer commercial failures in the United States this week than for two weeks past, reflecting the improvement of conditions as forecast in the meat of conditions as forecast in the reports received. The failures of the week numbered only 239, as against 273 hast week, 252 the preceding week and 172 the corresponding week of hast year. Another encouraging and satisfactory feature of the failure report is that only 76 of this week's failures involved liabilities of $5,000 or more, as against 93 hast week. The financial storm which broke on October, and which now seems weath-ered, as viewed by the returns for the ered, as viewed by the returns for the first week of November, showed its effects in the liabilities of commer-cial failures during the month. They aggregated. $27,414,990, as against $10,552,714 in October, 1906. Continues Continuing, Dun's review will say: "Scarcity of money, unseasonable weather and the holiday combined to make the volume of business smalthan usual the past week, but the situation is more encouraging be-cause of a general belief that the financial storm has been weathered remarkably well.

"Leading industries are handlcap-ped by lack of funds, and so many ped by lack of funds, and so many contemplated undertakings have been deferred that working forces are re-duced, especially at steel mills. Prices of commodities have declined still further and exports should be increased thereby, but for the last week foreign commerce at New York showed a loss of $2,512,691 in value of merchandise exported, as comof merchandise exported, as compared with the same week last year while imports gained $165.061.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Great Britain's annual import of apples is nearly 9,000,000 bushels. Built early in the eleventh century, there are great cracks appearing in the north and south transepts of the Cathedral of Southwell Minster, England. The sperm whale can remain below the surface for about 20 minutes at a time. Then it comes to the surface and breathes 50 or 60 times, taking about 10 minutes to do so.

The average temperature of the year in England has risen just over a degree in the past half century.

England has 144 churches for every 100,000 people. In Russia there are only 55 churches for a similar number.
