NEEDMORE.

John Mann and a couple of other gentlemen from McKeesport, spent last week here hunting.

John D. Mellott moved his saw mill last week near the Cross roads school-house, where he has a set to saw out.

Mrs. Hattie Dixon, of Chambersburg, after a visit of about ten days with her people here, returned to her home on Tuesday.

Sam Hess and Harry Peck, early last Monday morning, struck out for Sideling Hill, deer hunting, each with a buggy to haul home their game, but did not bring in venison enough to feed a hungry cat.

Floyd Hart is spending this week at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Dixon, in Chambersburg.

Ira Gordon was installed mail carrier on the route from here to Hancock, this week.

J. W. Powers, the blacksmith, is moving into the rooms over Ruynan's store.

The records of the freight of ice at Biglersville, Adams county, show that there were shipped from that place to November 9 this season ninety-seven carloads of barreled apples, seventeen carloads of loose apples and twenty-three carloads of canned and evaporated fruit making a total of one hundred and thirty-seven cars, with a large number of cars of canned and evaporated goods to follow.

Sterling Silver Spoons.

Our stock of sterling silver tea-spoons, dessert spoons, table spoons, spoons, knives and forks, is now more complete than at any time in our history. The tendency in the style of silver tableware today is toward the severely plain. Many of the ancient styles are boldly reproduced. To those of you who wish to add to year or more old patterns in table silver for Xmas, we would suggest that you place your orders early, because all the factories are behind with their orders for the new plain patterns. For a lasting and highly appropriate Christmas present, there is nothing more fitting than a dozen of the above, or if your purse is heavy, a chest of silver would be grand. Write for samples and prices.
