The entertainment given under the auspices of the public school children last Thursday evening in the Court House was a decided success, and the large number of people who attended were more than pleased. The entertainer of the evening, Mr. Charles Lodge, won his audience from the start, and his fine stage presence, and agreeable manner will insure him a hearty welcome by any audience before whom he may appear. The net receipts for the evening, we understand, were about fifty dollars.

The Magic No. 3.

Number three is a wonderful mascot for Geo. H. Parris, of Cedar Grove, Me., according to a letter which reads: "After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by the failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man to day. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best remedy for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Trout's drug store. 50c.

Most people believe the Panama canal enterprise to be of recent conception, going back no further than the French engineer who attempted to dig the ditch which was to separate the two Americas. But in fact the isthmus canal idea was originated by Cortez, and was the talk in Spain four hundred years ago.—Wichita Eagle.

Praise from New England.

Mrs. S. Joyce, Claremont, N. H., writes: "About a year ago I bought two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy. It cured me of a severe case of kidney trouble of several years standing. It certainly is a grand, good medicine, and I heartily recommend it." Trout's drug store.

The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It cures the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to irritate or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call the shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Dickson's drug store.

Gustav H. Grimm, of Rutland, Vt., a maple sugar expert, says that the yield of the famous Vermont product this year will be the best in 15 years. He predicts that the figures will show an average of four pounds to a tree. Last season, which was better than the three or four preceding, the yield was a little more than two pounds to a tree. Reports gathered in 1906 showed that about 5,000,000 trees were tapped and that the output was 11,000,000 pounds, so that this season's crop will be, approximately 20,000,000 pounds.
