HOLIDAY WEDDINGS.

The Happiest Period of Life Blended with the Gayest Season of the Year.

REACY TO BOARD THE NEW SHIP "1908"

MILLS-MCLUCAS.

At the Methodist Episcopal passonage, December 26, 1907, Rev. C. W. Bryner united in ter of Mr. Abner McLucas of Ayr t vnship and Mr. Jacob C. Mills, of Mercersburg. We extend c agratulations, to the happy couple.

MELLOTT-SHAFFER.

At the home of the bride's parents in Hydman, Bedford county, on Christmas Mr. Unger ing. Every Siturday night he Mellott, of Johnstown, Pa., son locks up a comfortable profit in of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua L, Mel the safe The money is getting lott, of Belfast township, this to be a nuisance. If he wished, county, was united in marriage he could pay off almost the whole to Miss Rathel Shaffer, by the interest bearing debt with yellow Rev J. H Wise. Mr. Mellott is chunks. a prominent teacher, and the bride is an estimable young lady, use of our prosperous relative's and the happy couple start out money. Our currency system life's jurney with the best was made when the wolf was wishes of their many friends.

HILL-COMERER.

parents, Mr. and Mrs. William sight of real money. But the Comerer of this place, on Christ. capitalists will have to hoard very mas Eve, in the presence of only hard, and the grafters will have the immediate relatives of the to steal industriously and the lacontracting parties, Rev J. C. borers must loaf a long time be-Fassold, of the Lutheran church, fore they can bring about a real united in marriage, Miss Martha panic in a country which is so Annetta Comerer and Mr. Ralph shamefully rich.-Success Maga-E Hill. The bride and groom zine. are among our very best young people, and have the kindest a long and prosperous journey the most of your readers, but ger and wife, Rev. W. R. Truax wishes of their many friends for through life.

APPLEBY-FLEMING.

Ou Tuesday evening Dec. 24th, at the Methodist Episcopal par sonage, at Burnt Cabins, Rev. W. keep soul and body together. M. Cline, spoke the words which May the Lord bless them with an made Theodore C. Appleby and abundance of spiritual food. Miss Adda Louella daughter of T. E. Fleming, of Clear Ridge; husband and wife. The bride m., their daughter, Miss Mayme, Fulton county's most estimable young ladies, who by her amiable disposition, is endeared to a wide circle of friends. The groom is one of Huntingdon county's highly respected young men. After a ten days trip to different points of interest, they were given a re ception at the home of the bride's parents. The young couple start out on the matrimonial sea of life with the best wishes of their many friends for a long voyage of happiness and prosperity.

MH.LER-HUSTON.

nesday, December 25, 1907, Miss Grace Huston, and W. Brinton Miller of Dublin Mills, Pa., were united in mairiage by the bride's pastor, Rev. John Forrest. Only the immediate relatives, and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony. After con- the bride's parents, on Tuesday Mervin Stewart, spent a part gratulations the guests were in vited to the dining room where Rev. C. D. Russell, pastor of Zion Franklin county. Mr. Stewart they partook of a sumptuous Lutheran church of Everett, of is preparing himself for the wedding feast.

- In the evening the happy relatives and friends. A sum- cester, Ohio, and is spending his young couple were serenaded by ptrons and elegant repast follow- holiday vacation with his mother. the Saltill Band, after which ed the ceremony. the Calithum; ians made the usual racket.

mvited.

The groom is a prosperous county. The many friends of is a young man of industrious daughters. the bride and groom wish them habits and good character. His a long life of happiness and pros-

CUTCHALL-FIX.

Christmas, 1907 will be long re membered with pleasure by those lowoship; for at two o'clock, p. nation.—Everett Republican.

Our Rich Uncle. The President calls attention to the significant fact that in 1893. when the panic began, we had but $161,000 000 in gold in the government treasury, while we now have $604,000,000. Ten years ago the circulation per capita was $28 23, now it is $33 23. We had hard times then because the country was poor; now the country is r'ch. The United States, total stock of marriage, Miss Gertrude, daugh- gold is about $1,600,000,000. There is no other government on earth that can approach this ligure. Opulent Germany and pros perous France fall, far behind; England is poverty stricken by comparison; Austria Hungary has in her banks a beggarly $286,-

Uncle Sam's business is thriv-

We do not always get the best howling about the front door and the old man had nothing but car At the residence of the bride's fare; it gets embarrassed at the #### Needmore.

Dec. 30 .- We are strangers to through your paper, to the kind lott and wife, and Geo. Tice. people of this community who have so kindly remembered us with so many things useful to sary of their married life. s. J. P.

J. W. POWERS AND WIFE.

was beautifully attired in white became the bride of Mr. Aley silk, the groom in the convention- Cutchall, of Three Springs, Pa. al black. The bride is one of The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bryner, of the M. E. church, McConnellsburg. Promptly at 4 o'clock, the dining room doors were thrown open and a sumptu ous dinner was served. The bride attired in a sult of levely steel gray with white silk waist, looked very pretty. The guests present were Daniel Elvey and wife, Mrs, George Brant and son, Samuel and Jacob Oyler, William Fix and family, Luther Fix and family, and Mrs. George Fix and sons. The bride was the recipi ent of many useful and valuable presents. The happy couple have At the home of the bride in the best wishes of their numer-Schille, Pa., at high moon Wed ous friends for a long and pros perous life.

RINEDOLLAR-BOOR.

Mr. W. Scott Rinedollar, of time. Everett, and Miss A. Orphelia Boor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Boor, of Saxton, were united in marriage at the home of December 24, 1907 at high noon. of last week visiting relatives in

The bride and groom departed at Dudley, and Miss Jess Henry on the afternoon train on their at Battle Ridge spent Christmas Belva, Goldie, H sen, Vernou, The next day a reception was honeymoon which will include a at their respective homes here. Benson, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. given at the home of the groom's a visit to the home of Mr. Rineparents, to which a large num- dollar's parents at Webster Mills, ber of relatives and friends were Fulton county. They will reside financially and socially. in Everett.

wife is a most excellent young d with her parents in this place. Both are memners of the Lutheran church and have been promin- be given anyone for the return of who spent the day at the home of ently rlantified with the young Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fix, of Tod people's societies in that denomi-

2,400 LBS. OF CHILDREN.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. H. Bard Had Delightful Family Reunion on Christmas.

THIRTEEN NOT AN UNLUCKY NUMBER.

At the home of Michael E. H. Bird of Pleasant Ridge, Pa, a family requion of all the children, grand children was held on Christ- sented that amount. mas day. A sumptuous dinner was served, which consisted of eight chickens, four turkeys, cakes, dition. It was in wads and rolls, fruits and many other good things.

lott, of Needmore, photographed become excited over the financial conduct d by her pastor, Ray, C. turned to their homes. Those his parents at Webster Mills. Mr. Bard, wife and children in a group. There are thirteen children-all living, and stateen grand children living. All of the children are married, except Sherman and Jessie, who remain at home

The children are: Charles of A., of Pittsburg; Mrs. Frank chewed and torn into pieces. Spayde, of Emmaville: John W. of Emmaville; Sherman, M. H., Oliver L., and Jessie C, at home. All of Pennsylvania.

The ages of the children range from 17 to 39 years. The aggre gate weight of the thirteen children is 2400 pounds.

During the day many presents were distributed by the boys

Their pastor, Rev. S. J. Pittenger was kindly remembered by the

Those who were present beside the family were Rev. J. S. Pittenwish to extend our many thanks and daughter Mibel, Biltzer Mel-

On December 26th Mr. and Mrs. Bard celebrated the 40th anniver-

CLEAR RIOGE.

Mrs. William Leobard, of home of her father, John Henry, for the past three weeks-first, nursing her mother who died of pneumonia, and later, her sister, Saturday in the Valley. Miss Gertrude Henry, who has to say, is improving, Miss Bertha Gill, of Decorum, spent X mas as a guest in the home of J. V. Carmack.

Lloyd Fleming, who has been ill the past six weeks is getting well again.

Levi P. Morton and Miss Myrtle Stevens attended the institute at Glunt's school last Friday evening.

Philip Hileman, wife and daughter Elsie, of Altoona who had been visiting Mrs. Hileman Jno. M. Schenck. parents, have returned home. They were accompanied by her youngest brother Jay Baker, who will remain in the Hileman home for an indefinite period of Miss Myrtle Kelso, of Kuobsville, spent a day recently in the home of J. A. Henry.

Mrs. J. W. Mower and son, J.

Misses Elsie Baker, teacher press his thanks for same.

28th ult., was a success both Mr. and Mrs. A R. Hixon; Viola,

We cannot help feeling a little spots above eyes, and a scar above left hind knee; a reward of $5 will dog or information leading to his recovery by J. S. Alexander, McHOGS ATE HIS MONEY.

The Hard Luck of a Man Who Had Lost His Confidence in Banks.

There is at least one man in the country whose confidence in banks has been restored, says the Indianapolis "News." This man appeared last week at the First National Bank with greenbacks to the amount of $598, rath sons-in-law, daughters-in-law and er, what two weeks before repre flurry, and had drawn the money from one of the banks.

He took it home and buried it where he thought its presence would be least suspected, name ly, in the hog los. He was shock Wilham A, of Needmore, Penna; part of it was eaten. A hundred C. A., of Pittsburg; Mrs. Lewis dollar bill was missing, and the Kelso, of Knobsville; Ross A., of remainder of the roll, which was Logue; Newton J., of Logue; Geo. in smaller denominations, was

He washed all the money as clean as possible and pasted the pieces together as well as he could. The bank accepted the money and will send it to the United States Treasury. The banking officials are of the opinion that he will lose at least half of the money he buried.

Miss Marian Edwards, of Mil ersville Normal, spent the holi day vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Edwards.

H. M. Truax and wife, of Juniata, spent Christmas with Levi

Jno. Rider and wife, of Mc-Keesport, are visiting relatives and friends in the Valley and at Three Springs.

Jno. A. Ready, of Sedalia, Mo., stopped, on his way home from Huntingdon, has been in the Philadelphia to see his sister, Mrs. Cassie Lockard,

> Prof. Geo. W. Ready, of Al toona, spent from Tuesday until

Miss Jessie Cunningham, one been critically all with typhoid of Altoona's teachers, spent the nouncing the death of Harry Hoke pneumonia, but who we are glad X mas vacation with her mother, Mrs. C. A Cunningham.

Miss Bessie Willett, after hav ing spent some weeks with her ancle, A. G. Edwards, returns to stones, but on being operated up Altoona this week, to take up her on in one of the hospitals in Alle work again.

J. Clark Burnside, of Hillard, O, is visiting his uncle, E. A. Horton.

Frank Cunningham spent Sun day in Trough Creek valley.

Ambrose Wertz, of Bedford, spent some time with his uncle,

J. C. Foster spent Xmas with his mother at South Fork.

Mrs. Harry Zera visited relatives in Pittsburg and Allegheny lately.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wagner spent Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. Catherine Tice.

Miss Cynthia Keith has returned to Altoona.

A Christmas Gift.

The good people of Bedford M. E. church presented their pastor, ficiated, in the presence of a few Presbyterian ministry at Wor- Rev. S. J. Pittenger, with a nice purse of money as a Christmas gift. Their pastor desires to ex

Those who contributed are

The oyster supper held on the Akers; Flora, Queen, Pearl, and Virgie, Job and Riley Garland; Carrie, Charlie, Ray, Emma, and that Mr. and Mrs. Wilham Pay- a week until he was about half burg friends. Elmer is serving The groom is a member of the pouty at the young Huntingdon Rexie Hess; Amos Layton; Mrs. lor, of Ayr township have had asleep, he was partially aroused as school director on his home tarmer, and the oride was a for- firm of Emme & Rinedollar, mer- county man, who came into Dub Anthony Lynch; J. Riley and their children all at home togeth- by a knock at the door, but his school board, and says they are mer successful teacher in this chant allors, of this place, and hn and took one of our fair young Scott Lynch; Martha, Achsah, er. A sumptuous dinner con wife was first to answer the rap, having all kinds of trouble with Anna, Titus, and Wilham Giffin; sisting of turkey; chickens, and and to har surprise, there stood the vaccination question. J. H. H. and Ella Lewis; Russell all the accessories, was served, her son la-law H. W. Hayes and Rev. H. B. Mohler, formerly of LOST-Dec. 20, black and tan Barnhart; Charley and Maye and greatly enjoyed. Those daughter Florence of Northamp. Dillsburg, Pa, but later a resilady and for several years resid dog resembling a hound, with tan Golden, Wesley Hembaugh, Wil- present were George Paylor and ten Mass., of course, this was a dent of New Mexico, spent the bert Layton, Shelby Hill, Otto family, Philip Ott and family, very agreeable surprise to both holiday week at the home of Miss Hill, Emily and Mrs. Geo. Hill, John Souders and family, Henry Mr. and Mrs. Duffy, for the baby Minnie E. Mock, in Tod. Rev. Gordon and Gladys Winter, Maye Carbaugh and family, Samuel was along, and now at has pos- Mohler preached in the Lutherain Carnell, S. C. Kirk.

Subscribe for the NEWS.

DEATH RECORD.

The Weird Spectre Intrudes His Presence into the Midst of Hollday Festivities.

ALL SEASONS ARE THINE, O DEATH!

SHIMER

After a protracted illness of pulmonary tuberculosis, Mas About 7 o'click the car mges be-Mary Elizabeth Shimer, daugh- zan to arrive, and soon her home The money, when brought to mer, died at her home in this countiful supper was prepared the bank, was in a deplorable con place Friday morning, December and all did ample justice. All 26, 1907, aged 36 years, 6 months and also in many pieces. The and 12 days. Funeral Saturday Mrs. Clevenger many more After dinner, Mr. Grant Mel. man acknowledged that he had afternoon at two o'clock, services happy returns of the day, re-W. Bryner, and interment made present were: D. A. Nelson and graveyard in this place.

Miss Shimer was a young lady of lovely christian character, and and wile Miss Bess Patterson bore her long affliction with chris Miss Ella Johnston, W. C. Pat ed to find that his treasure had tian fortitude. Her mother, 5 rson, Amos Clouser and wife, Sipes Mill; Henry T., of Pittsburg; been rooted up by the hogs and brothers and sisters have the sin C. M. Ray wife and children cere sympathy of their many Cyrus Mentzer and wife, Miss friends.

ROBINSON.

Samuel Reed Robinson, Esq. died at his home in Philadelphia. after a brief illness, December, 24; 1907, in the 54th year of his Reed, as he was more familiarly known to the people of this c unty, was a son of John and Mary Ellen Robinson, and was he spent his boyhood days. Af ter having grown to young man hood, he read law with the late J. McDowell Sharpe, E q, of Cham ersburg, and was admitted to practice in the courts of Frank in and Fulton counties. During the years 1873-1-5, he edited the Fulton Democrat, then owned by his cousin, John A Robinson, Esq , and during the early eighties, he assisted his cousin, S. M. Robinson, Esq., in conducting the Waynesboro Gazette. From Waynesboro, he removed to Phil adelphia, where he resided up to the time of his death.

Interment in Mount Peace Cemetery, I hiladelphia.

HOKE.

Word has been received anson of the late David and Mrs Mary E Hoke, of Altoona. Mr. Hoke was taken ill wi h what was thought to be an attack of gall gheny, was found to be gangrene of the bladder, and proved fatal Mr. Hoke was 48 years of age on the 15th of December.

BENSON.

Grandmother Mary Benson died at the home of her son James Rev. Harry Daniels officiating.

Wednesday of last week was the first Christmas for nine years Paylor, Mary and Helen Clagston,

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Friends and Neighbors spent Last Surday Evening Pleasantly at Himey Clevenger's.

The many friends and neighoors of Mrs. Ahimaaz Clevenger of the Cove gave her a pleasant surpri e on last Saturday evening in bonor of hir tirthday. ter of the late Robert Nixon Shi was well filled with guests, enjoyed the evening; and wishing a the family lot in the Methodist | wife, George Mellott and wife, C. F. Sloan and wife, Daviel Mc-Quade and wite, Peter Morton Hattie Sloan, Herbert Runyan, Harry Clouser, Andrew Rotz and wife.

A Problem in Mathematics.

make as tressurer of our Moth born at Big Cove Tannery, where meeting, and to morrow is the day for my first report, and I am awfully confused over it. Now it is like this: the former treasur er turned nothing over to me but sixty nine cents in money and thirty cents in postage stamps, and I returned her twenty cents of the money for car fares she had forgotten to deduct before she gave me the sixty nine cents. Then I paid her seventeen cents for stationery she had forgotten to put in her bill, and she gave me back six cents of it because she found that the stationery had nine cents for the sale of some of McKibbin in Buck Valley. our literature, but one lady bought because she found that so I gave her back the twelve Mason of this place. cents she gave for it, and I spent eight cents for stamps and six cents for postals, and a member of the club donated fifty cents to our general work, and I paid a printing bill of two dollars and forty cents, but the printer sent me back ten ceats in stamps be cause he said that he found that one of the items had already been paid for, and I spent that ten cents for car fares, and one lady in Clay township, Huntingdon gave me some money at our last county, near Oak Grove, at the meeting, and I foolishly put it age of 85 years, 7 months and 5 right into my purse with my othdays. She is the widow of Wil- er money, so I don't know how ham Benson, who resided many much there was of it, and I bate years in Taylor township, this to ask her for fear she would county. Three children survive think I was a mighty careless her-James, as above stated; Liz treasurer. Then I think I lost a of Mahaffey, Clearfield county, says she paid me tifty cents that half. The cause of her death was sim- I have no record of, altho I have ply old age. She was well all some remembrance of her paying along, considering her age, until it to me. But I am all mixed up, day night, she slept peacefully ever so grateful. It is so much place. and quietly away, and is now easier for men to work with fig

> While Harry Duffy was sitting by the stove reading last Sunday the holidays

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Snapshots at Their Comings and Goings Here for a Vacation, or Away for a Restful Outing.

NAMES OF VISITORS AND VISITED

Reed Ray is home from Everett spending the holidays.

Ed. W. Swope, of Sipes Mill, spent a few hours at the County Seat Monday.

Emanuel Keefer, of Thompson, was a very pleasant caller at the News office Monday.

Mr. Herbert Duffy, of Chambersburg, spent Christmas with been spending reveral months in Altoona, is home for her boliday vacation. Mr. Nathan Everts, of Harris-

Miss Maye Johnston, who has

burg, spent his holiday vacation among his old friends in McConnellsburg. Mr. Daniel Fix left on Monday

for Pittsburg to visit his daugh-Viss Bess and other friends in the Smoky City. Hon. S. P. Wishart and W. H.

Baumgardner, two of Wells Val-"Henry, dear; could you stop ley's prominent citizins spent reading long enough to help me | Monday night in town.

alittle with this report I have to Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reisner are spending this week ers' Club? You see, I have to among friends at Hagerstown, nake a report at each monthly Shippensburg and Harrisburg.

Mr. Alfred Schetrompt, of Franklin Mills, spent last Thursday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mason of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. F. McNaughton Johnston, of Washington, D. C., spent several days the past week among their Fulton county friends.

After an absence of two years, J. Clyde Strait, of Buda, Ili., is home spending the holidays, and seeing his old friends. Clyde is greatly in love with the West.

Prothonotary and Mrs. Geo. A cost only eleven cents. Then I Harris, spent Saturday and Sunreceived three dollars and a half day in the home of the latter's for membership fees and thirty. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W.

Miss Zoe Mason, who is teachbrought back a pamphlet she ing at Wai fordsburg this winter, spent Saturday and Sunday with she already had one like it, and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank > Prof. W. Don Morton, of Maplewood Institute, near Philadelphia. spent last week at home with his parents, Judge and Mrs. Peter Morton near town.

Philip B. Melius and his father Geo, C. Melius were in town last Friday. Phil is still smiling over the arrival of a big baby boy at his home a few days ago. Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Crooks, of Warnock, Ohre, have been spending the boliday season with the latter's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Grove, of this place. Mr. Ohver Hill, one of Bethel township's substantial farmers spent a few hours in town last Friday. It was his first visit to zie Mott, of Toledo, Ohio; Riley, quarter, and one of our members the County Seat for a year and a S. D. Stevens and fauily, of Chambersburg, came over to McConnellsburg and spent a two months ago, when she began and if you could make out my re few days with Mrs. Stevens' fuling very rapidly, and last Fri | port for me I would be ever and | mother, Mrs. L. E. Harris in this Mr. R. A. Stouteagle, who reaping the reward of the faith- ures than women, and now that I came over to see his mother and ful. She was a member of Cen- have given you the figures, I wish other old time friends, returned ter M. E. church. Funeral at you would puzzle the thing out to Altoona last Friday. Robert that place on Sunday morning, for me-that's a dear."-The Cir is looking well, and is prospering in the Mountain City.

Mr. Elmer Suders, of Wampum, Beaver county, is making a holiday visit among his McConnellssession of the home. Mr. Hayes church in this place last Sunday and Georgianna Pittman of and family are staying through morning, and in McConnellade) shurc's in the evening.