FRANKLIN MILLS.

Whatever to the contrary may be said by the pessimists, this is an age of kind y feeling. Never before have people been so keen ly interested in the common wel fare of mankind as at present; and throughout this broad land, there is no one, be be ever so humble, who may not enjoy the pleasures of the Christmas sea son. From the general expres sion of kindliness, it would seem that Santa had touched the bosom of every man, woman, and child.
