CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Huston at Saitillo is paying 11c a pound for chickens and 24c dor. for eggs this week.

A Portland cement plant is to be located not far from Murtius burg and Ohio railroad. In anticipation of this project the Baltimore and Ohio has already completed the necessary sidelings and the plans and estimates for the plant have been approved by the promoters.

If you want your hens to lay lots of eggs, feed alfalfa meal, alfalfa mash, and crushed oyster shells. Get them at Irwin's.

Mrs. B. T. Shives of Laurel Ridge, brought to town last Friday evening Miss Katie Comerer who is this winter teaching the Laurel Ridge school and boarding with Mrs. Shives. The Ladies expected to return Sunday but the drifted condition of the roads prevented their doing this and they were compelled to wait until Monday evening.

Foley's Orino Laxative is a new remedy, an improvement on the laxatives of former years, as it does not gripe or nauseate and is pleasant to take. It is guaranteed. Trout's drug store.

The house of Samuel Johnston, of Spring Run, was burned to the ground at noon on Wednesday of last week. The fire started in the fue and owing to the high wind it could not be check-ed. When the church bells began to ring the people responded.
All the household goods were saved except the goods in one room and in the attic.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are sold by Trout's drug store.

The will of the late Robert Bridges, of Hancock has been admitted to probate. Mr. Bridges divided all his property located in Washington county equally among his wife and children.
The sum of $4,000 is left to the Presbyterian Church, at Hancock. All property outside of Washington county, including a large timber tract in West Virginia and holdings at various other places, is put into a trust estate with Mr. Bridges' sons, F. Wilbur Bridges and J. Taha-ferro Bridges, as trustees.

When Mrs. J. W. Kimmel, at Saitillo, arose one morning and entered her sitting room where she had renewed the fire the evening previous for night comfort, she found to her astonishment the room burning hot. No damage was done to the papered wall or sofa only about two feet from the stove, out at a distance of 9 feet the water in the aquarium bowl was uncomfortably hot and her gold and pearl fishes scalded to death. Her beautiful house flowers as far away were cooked and lying down all around the cans. This seems mysterious but nevertheless a close call.

Let's We Forget.

Promises like eggs are easily broken.

Many a man has proven himself a bird going on a "lark." As long as a man lives he is a dead loss to the undertaker.

Many a large hope has been created on a small foundation.

Some men's preaching is as bal as some other men's practicing.

Good temper is like a sunny day; it sheds brightness on everything.

Giving advice to some people is like presenting a bald headed man with a brush and comb.

The one time when the world is willing to take a man at his word is when he owns up to having made a mistake.

When a girl is a high flier it doesn't necessarily follow that she is cut out to be an angel.

Few welcomes are warranted not to wear out.

troubles may be preferable to the one who tells his jokes.

E. R. McClain,

McCONNELLSBURG, PA.

Lincoln as a Judge of Men.

Lincoln was a great politician.
He was the most sagacious of all the great leaders of his party in attaining political results, altho a stranger to the common methods of political manipulation. He studied men most intelligently, and he rarely, if ever, erred in assigning a friend to the performance of a political duty. He alone nominated Andrew Johnson for Vice President in 1864, and there were not a score of men in the country who knew of his purpose to accomplish it. He had no prejudice against Hamlin; on the contrary, would have been glad to have Hamlin on the ticket again with him, but he had carefully looked over the field, and he felt that a change in the Vice-Presidency was a necessity for two reasons, which he gave to me personally the day before the meeting of the convention in Baltimore, in which I was the delegate at large from Pennsylvania, when he asked me to vote for Johnson for Vice-President and told me why it should be done. He anticipated a severe and perhaps a doubtful contest with McClellan; he believed that it would be necessary to bring into the support of the Republican ticket, in addition to the Democrats who had become Republicans, the large number of loyal war Democrats who yet maintained at least passive relations with the Democratic party. Among them were such conspicuous characters as Dix, of New York, Holt of Kentucky, Butler of Massachusetts, Johnson of Tennessee, and many others. While he regarded that as a strong and controlling political reason for the nomination of Johnson, there was behind it what with him was even more forceful. The nomination was made in the early summer of 1864, when no important victories had been achieved by our armies under Grant or Sherman, and the dark pall of recognition of the Confederacy by England and France yet hung over us. He believes that in no way could our friends in the European countries be so greatly strengthened as by the election of a man to the second office of the Government from a reconstructed State in the heart of the Confederacy, and a man who had filled every important office within the gift of his State, and he thought it important thus to nationalize the Republican party.—From "Lincoln as a Politician," by Col. A. K.
McClain, in The Circle for February.

It Died Last Night

In McConnellsburg, alone and without a murmur or any indication of approaching trouble, it calmly gave up the struggle.

Poor thing, no wonder it died; its vital parts clogged with the accumulated filth of six long years, without any attention whatever to its needs, can you wonder that it ceased to tick.

The best of watches will die unless they receive proper treatment—have your watches cleaned and fresh oil applied at least once a year, and thus prolong their usefulness. We have good watch doctors in our repairing department.

Are You Going to Buy A CARPET
This Spring?

We have just received a full and complete line of samples of carpets, which we are going to sell for the next 30 days at prices below market.

We can do this because we will not have to carry several hundred dollars worth of carpets in stock, but will sell from samples at lower prices than we could if we had our money tied up in carpets in our store.

Measure your room carefully and bring us the measure, and we will get the carpet for you, and will match and sew it ready to lay on the floor, for you. We can show you Union In-grains, Super Ingrains, Three Ply Unions, Tapestries, Brussels, Velvets, Ax-minsters.

Remember it will pay you to pick out your carpet now, and get it any time between now and May.

We want your carpet business, and are sure you will give it to us, if you want a nice lot to select from, at prices lower than ordinarily.

Very truly

John S. Wilson's Underselling Store,
Three Springs, Pa.

Remember that a constantly increasing trade is evidence of satisfaction. Our customers are always satisfied. They get just what they want, and at much lower prices than they would be required to pay elsewhere, for the same quality of goods.

You will save trouble by coming to WILSON'S STORE first. If you look around elsewhere, and then come here, you'll buy here anyhow, because in no other store in this and in Huntingdon county, can you be as well satisfied. We have

MEN'S OVERCOATS

in Dry Goods, Groceries, Notions, Underwear, Boots and Shoes, Miners' Supplies, Harness, Horse Blankets, Cook Stoves, Ranges, Heating Stoves, and general Hardware, Drugs, and Paints, Flour and Feed. We have SPECIAL BARGAINS in

SPECIAL BARGAINS

at prices that you will wonder how we do it, but we bought a whole job—all the manufacturer had—and we are giving our customers the benefit of our low prices. If you need an overcoat, don't delay coming, for they are going right out, and we only have a few left. Those

All-Wool Blankets

(white), full size, are going right out, and we don't expect to have any more of them this winter, when our present supply is exhausted.

SPECIAL PRICES

dominate throughout our entire store. This perhaps, explains why our trade increased so immensely during this season.

When in town come in and see us. No trouble to show goods. HIGHEST MARKET PRICE paid for produce.

Thanking you for past favors, and asking a continuance of the same. I am Yours for business,

Entertaining and Instructing With Stories.

A girl living in a neighborhood where there were many children discovered that her chief accomplishment consisted in telling stories. She called on the mothers of these little friends with the result that a story-hour was organized, in which she both entertained and instructed ten to fifteen children each week with a carefully selected series of stories—myths, historical facts, and simplified tales from our oldest and best writers. Each child was charged the modest sum of ten cents an hour, which netted the story-teller a pleasant little sum, and returned the mothers a sense of safety and satisfaction for the expenditure.—From "The Girls' Own Circle of The Circle

State May Get Carlisle School.

According to a clause inserted in the report of the Committee on Indian Affairs, presented in Congress, Pennsylvania is to have the opportunity, if the State wishes, to take over the entire plant of the Indian School at Carlisle.
There is only one stipulation in the proposed gift. It is that the State must maintain the school as an educational institution, to which Indians may be admitted on the same footing as white children.
