GRACEY.

The people of this community are making good use of the alighting.

W. C. McClain, wife and daughter Byrde, of Robertsdale, came down to their old home last Sunday.

Joseph Shaw is quite ill at this writing.

Miss Mary Heefner, of Hustontown, is spending some time with her brother, George Heefner and family.

Daniel G. Rinehart, who has been sick for some time, is able to be out about his work again.

Mrs. Bland Barnett and son Frank, spent Saturday night and Sunday with the former's brother, Henry Huston.

Some person was so kind as to break one of the locks on one of W. C. McClain's buildings, and quite a few articles are missing.

Blair Bergstresser is all smiles over the arrival of a new boy.

Our school is getting along nicely under the care of Grant Wink.

Jesse B. Heefner, wife and daughter Olive, spent Monday with Mrs. Heefner's parents, A. J. Fraker and wife.

Mrs. Jane Berkstresser is quite ill at this writing.

Miss Floss Knepper is spending some time with her brother Charles at Robertsdale.

A NEW STYLE CARD OF THANKS.

Here is a Model For The Persons Who Do Not Know What To Say.

The day is not far distant when "card of thanks" will be a thing of the past.

One subscriber, however, not to be outdone, sent in the following:

"Mr. Editor: I desire to thank the friends and neighbors most heartily in this manner, for their co-operation during the illness and death of my late husband, who escaped from me by the hand of death on last Friday morning, while eating breakfast.

To my friends and all who contributed so willingly toward making the last moments, and the funeral a success, I desire to remember most kindly, hoping these lines will find them enjoying the same blessing.

I have also a good milk cow and roan gelding horse, 8 years old, which I will sell cheap. God moves in a mysterious way, his wonders to perform. He plants his foot steps upon the sea, and rides upon the storm.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR LA GRIPPE.

La grippe coughs are dangerous, as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared.

HUSTONTOWN.

Rev. H. W. Newman, wife, and daughter Helen, have returned to their home in Beaver Meadows after visiting relatives and friends here for a few days.

Mrs. Mack Chesnut and two children of Burnt Cabins are visiting her parents, David Fohner and family.

Mr. Horton, of Broadtop, has been visiting Harry McElhaney and wife the past week.

Samuel Speck, of Pittsburg, spent Friday with his sister, Miss Dora.

John Vallance has been circulating among his relatives near this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Black, of Johnstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Mellott and son Silas, of Knobsville—all spent Thursday night at J. M. Chesnut's.

The roads that were drifted shut, have all been opened up.

Mrs. James Connelly, of Daze, returned to her home Friday, after spending a week with her brother, Samuel McElhaney.

John Sipe spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Fort Loudon.

Mrs. Emaline Chesnut and two children spent Sunday at J. M. Chesnut's.

Mr. Campbell and Mrs. Magie Bughman and children, of Neelyton, are spending a few days at Jacob Strait's in this place.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. A. C. merer in Ayr township, was the occasion of a delightful social event on Tuesday evening.

NEW GRENADA.

During the past week a bountiful harvest of ice has been stored in this neighborhood, and now most ice houses are filled with beautiful ice, which will add much to the comfort of the owners during the hot weather of next summer.

Baldwin Fraker and his best girl, Zella McClure, of Fort Littleton, drove up to New Grenada last Sunday and took dinner at the Central.

A sled-load of young folks of this place spent last Friday evening very pleasantly at the home of Gideon Duvall's in Clay township.

Two sled-loads of friends from Sallito, visited John and Frank Thomas here last Sunday.

Miss Grace Lodge spent Saturday and Sunday with the families of Geo. W. Sipes and J. C. Kirk, in the Valley.

Wilbur Mills and family left last Thursday for Canada where he will engineer a steam shovel on a job that is supposed to last for two years.

A. N. Witter, of Waterfall, assisted in conducting another spelling bee—this time at Oak Grove school. Andy, since you are passing them around, why not bring one to New Grenada?

Daniel Bollinger sold last Saturday his home farm near Oak Grove, Huntingdon county, to Jacob Black, of Six Mile Run.

The new United Brethren church at Oak Grove is about completed, and we are authorized to say that it will be dedicated Sunday February 23rd. Services morning and evening of that day. Everybody is invited, and when you leave home, do not forget the one thing needful—the Almighty Dollar.

A sled load of young folks from Wells Tannery and vicinity drove down to the Central Hotel at New Grenada last Thursday evening, had supper, and spent a very pleasant evening.

Mr. James Edgar Grissinger, son of our townsman J. L. Grissinger, was married to Miss Elsie Belle Mears, of Broadtop City, on the 25th of January. The ceremony was performed at Cumberland, Md.

A SENSATION.

The marvelous curative properties of Foley's Honey and Tar has proven a sensation in many cases of severe coughs and colds that had refused to yield to other treatment.

Thirty-five prominent members were last Tuesday dropped from the rolls of the First Baptist church, Franklin, Pa., "owing to lack of interest as shown by not contributing to the necessary finances or in not sustaining the services by their attendance."

Included in the list are Mrs. Mary Wiley, wife of Major General John A. Wiley, of the National Guard; Mrs. Adelaide Miller, first wife of General Charles Miller and sister of Representative Joseph Sibley; John E. Gill, who was a candidate for Congress four years ago on the Prohibition ticket; Mrs. McCalmont, wife of Prohibition State Chairman David B. McCalmont.

One man was dismissed for drunkenness, one for fraud and one for immoral conduct. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. F. Kes, said the wedding out would continue.

Must Report Births. State Health Department officials attach the greatest importance to an opinion of Judge Allison O. Smith, of Clearfield county, who decides that doctors and midwives are responsible for the reporting of births occurring in their practice to local Registrars of Vital Statistics.

Refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake were served, and those present report an enjoyable time. Mrs. Mellott was the recipient of many useful presents.

UNO WHO. American farmers who emigrate to Canada expecting to find labor cheap over there, will be disappointed if statistics from the Dominion are to be trusted.

The number of factory operatives has steadily increased for five years past, and the average pay of wage earners has jumped 25 per cent in that period. Amari can experience shows that manufacturing industries outbid the farm in the labor market.

The Best Spread For Bread. Karo CORN SYRUP. The delicious extract of whole corn of unequaled quality and flavor.

Characters.

A game played by any number of persons, one of whom leaves the room while the others agree on some historical character he is to represent. He is then called back and each player asks him a question, or makes a remark to him, as if he were the person agreed upon.

The questions are usually put so as to puzzle the guessers as much as possible. For instance, if Washington be the character agreed upon, one player may ask, "Do rifle balls bound from you as if you were made of rubber?"

Mr. J. C. Kirk and wife of Wells Valley are spending a few days visiting friends in this place.

Mrs. E. J. Downs is improving after an illness of several weeks.

Miss Amy Hess, of Altoona, is spending a short vacation with her parents near town.

A Cat Story.

Last Wednesday morning as Messrs S. J. Deshong and James H. Mellott went to Harrisonville to cut ice on the long pond near Thomas Hollenshead's. The pond was frozen over a distance of nearly 300 yards.

The marvelous curative properties of Foley's Honey and Tar has proven a sensation in many cases of severe coughs and colds that had refused to yield to other treatment.
