CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Mr and Mrs Wilbur Fraker of Burat Cabins came down to Mc-Connellsburg in a sleigh last Saturday. Mrs Fraker came to the conclusion before she reached town that a winter day could be cold if the sun does shine.

Foley's Orino Laxative is a new remedy, an improvement on the laxatives of former years, as it does not gripe or nauseate and is pleasant to take. It is guaranteed. Trout's drug store.

C. P. Lerew, of Carhale, has purchased the Mansion House in Mercersburg on private terms.
He will take possession in the spring when he will make a number of improvements in the well known hostelry.

The trouble with most cough remedies is that they constipate.
Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently but promptly on the bowels and at the same time it stops the cough by soothing the throat and lung irritation. Children like it. Sold by Trout's drug store.

J. W. Pae, O. A. Barton, and E.
W. Barton, of Brush Creek Valley, were in McConnellsburg, Tuesday. Owen was taking out letters of administration on the estate of his father, Mason Barton, deceased.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are sold by Trout's drug store.

Mrs. Eliza Findlay, aged 83 years, died recently, at the home of her son Squire Denny Findlay at Burnt Cabins. Mrs. Findlay had been a member of the Presbyterian church since 1842, and was an excellent woman.

John N. Hixson came down from Brush Creek Valley, Tuesday, for a load of corn, but when he found that the price here was $.125 a barrel, he concluded he could have saved some money by going to Everett and buying it off the car at 68 cents a bushel.

Everything taken into the stomach should be digested fully within a certain time. When you feel that your stomach is not in good order, that the food you have eaten is not being digested, take a good, natural digestant that will do the work the digestive juices are not doing. The best remedy known to day for all stomach troubles is Kodol, which is guaranteed to give prompt relief. It is a natural digestant; it digests what you eat, it is pleasant to take and is sold here by Trout's drug store.

Mr. John Keebaugh was a pleasant caller at the News office Monday. Mr. Keebaugh is hale and hearty with the exception of being crippled up a little with rheumatism just now the result of a little too much exposure in his anxiety to get ready for a limekiln.

A letter from Philip J. Barton, formerly of this county, but now a resident of Illinois, enclosing the wherewithal to advance his subscription way ahead, says that he and family are in the enjoyment of good health; that they have been having a very open winter; and that, while we are wading snow, they are wading mud.

Corn Syrup is The Correct Name.
Washington, Feb. 14.—An important question in the administration of the pure food law was settled to-day in a decision made public by Secretaries Wilson, Cortelyou and Straus. It bears upon the labelling of syrup. The decision follows: "We have given careful consideration to the labelling of the thick viscous syrup obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of the starch of corn and composed essentially of dextrose, maltose and extrin. In our opinion it is lawful to label this syrup as 'corn syrup,' and it to the corn syrup there is added a small percentage of refiner's syrup the mixture, in our judgment, is not misbranded if labelled 'corn syrup with cane flavor."

Abraham Wagner, of Knob-ville, was in town Monday, the first time he had been here since the 22nd of last October. On the third day of December, Mr. Wagner slipped on the ice, falling and hurting himself so badly that he was confined to his house for a period of seven weeks. We are glad to see Mr. Wagner out again, and hope he may soon recover his wonted strength.

It Died Last Night in McConnellsburg, alone and without a murmur or any indication of approaching trouble, it calmly gave up the struggle.

Poor thing, no wonder it died; its vital parts clogged with the accumulated filth of six long years, without any attention whatever to its needs, can you wonder that it ceased to tick.
The best of watches will die unless they receive proper treatment—have your watches cleaned and fresh oil applied at least once a year, and thus prolong their usefulness. We have good watch doctors in our repairing department.

Advertise What You Have to Sell.
After all that has been said or can be said about the big mail order houses, the simple fact remains that they get the business by thorough and persistent advertising, showing cuts of goods and giving prices, says an exchange. If home merchants would take the same methods, much of the trade now going to the mail order houses in the cities would come to them. A man recently made up a list of tools and hardware from one of the mail order catalogues and took it to a home dealer to get prices. He was surprised to find that he could get the same article at home for less money and save the express charges, and also see the goods he was buying.

A young woman has issued wedding invitations in New York with this note: "It is the bride's wish that no gifts be sent." Fin-erals with flowers omitted and weddings with no gifts indicate a progressive state of society and a return to the simple life, perhaps, says the Harrisburg Telegraph.
