LETTER FROM ELLIS SIPES.

About Three years Ago. Tells of Climate and Crops.

A little more than three years ago, when I left Fulton county to try my luck in California, I prom ised a number of my friends to let them know how I liked my new home after I had tried the change long enough to form some

When I arrived here, I bought ed two years, and we are all well The church was then dedicated. pleased to see how rapidly the trees and vines are growing, and ture, and when painted outside, we feel encouraged in our work. I measured a few peach trees in which it stands. The kind peothat were swelve to fourteen feet ple who were instrumental in carin height and one foot in circum. rying the work forward, and to ference at top of ground. Peach every one who gave a helping hand trees do very well, and bear well either in money or otherwise, dehere, and at present the fruit serve many thanks. To those brings a good price. James A. who may no have had an oppor tunity to help, there is yet a chance on the $50, and an early tons of green fruit, for which he response will be appreciated very received $60 per ton, making a to- much by the trustees. tal of $2,760, or $920 per acre. This was the largest yield in the neighborhood, the average being about $250 per acre. Our county A local institute was held at daughter of the late John (Fresno) produces three-fourths Frein's School, Springfield town and Margaret Barmont, died at of all raisins grown in the United ship, Huntingdon county, Friday States. This year the crop in our county was 60,000 tons, the market price of which was $105 per ton, yielding a total value of well was appointed president, who in turn appointed Rosa Rorer $4,000,000; wine and table The institute opened by sing-grapes to $8,000,000. Table ing. The audience was then engrapes—Tokays, Maiagas, and tertained by recitations rendered way daily. It has a population of 1,100, with a fine graded and high school. Teachers receive salaries from $75 to $100 per month for terms of eight months. It has two packing houses, which bought 10,000 tons of raisins and 3,000 tons of dried peaches; also, apricots, figs, and a very large tonnage of green peaches and ap ricots, and 200 cars of oranges, in this vicinity, and Free Rural mail delivery.

Prices of land vary greatly.
Good improved orchard land, full We get good supply and can use our full amount every day in season. The mountains just east have an elevation of 12,000 to 14,000 feet Mount Whitney the highest mountain in the United cool at night. One can always highest mountain in the United cool at night. One can always highest mountain in the United cool at night. One can always highest mountain in the United cool at night. One can always cool at night one can always have a good night's rest. As for last year We have excellent roads

from my dining room window

also have fine weather to do our work in—no ice and snow. All The winter we have had is over. The lowest temperature this season was 80 degrees Fahr., and on ly for a very short time, early in the morning. To day's temperature was 84 degrees Fahr. The weather is delightful from now until the ead of lynn. intli the end of June. July w.d. CHURCH DEDICATION.

nut Grove Formally Dedicated on the Twenty-Third, Ult.

The beautiful new church at The services were conducted by last Sunday afternoon, aged 73 Presiding Elder J. F. Fulton, of Johnstown, Pa, assisted by the local pastor, Rev. Strayer, and by Rev. J. W. Forrest, of the Methodist Episcopal church. Attwenty acres of unimproved land though the weather was rough 11 miles west of Reedley, 1 mile and stormy, a large congregation from King's River, and have been was present, and Mr. Fulton very busy home building and im- preached two very able sermons. proving it. 1 have planted 924 The entire cost of the edifice was peach trees, 2680 grape vines $1061, of which about $461 was to (Mus at of Alexander, the variety from which raisins are made), morning service $200 of that a small plat of mixed fruit trees amount was raised, and in the for family use. I use three acres evening the remainder, with the of Alfalfa for hay, from which I exception of $50 which was as cut last season five crops of hay, sumed, was raised. The $50 is making in all 25 tons. The re mainder I planted orange trees trustees, Orlando Wible, G. B. and berries-all have been plant | Shore, and Daniel Gladfelter.

The church is a beautiful struc-

Local Institute.

ar, secretary.

tertained by recitations rendered by the school. The question, in all eastern cities and towns for 10 to 15 cents a pound, sell out of the vineyards for 1½ cent per pound, and the growers make meney at that, as the yield is six to twelve tons per acre. The Reedley district cannot be excel.

The second question, "Attention—How secured?" was taken up, and discussed by J. C. Intyre, Mrs. Annie C. Pittman, in all eastern cities and towns by the school. The question, her loss. Nine children seventeen grand children and one great grand child; Also, two brothers and one sister, namely, Mrs. John Lutz, Dallas Center, Iowa; Mrs. Wm. Hull McConnellsburg, Mrs. Wm. Hull McConnellsburg, Mrs. Wm. Hull McConnellsburg, Mrs. Wm. Hull McConnellsburg, Mrs. Wms. Martha McLaken up, and discussed by J. C. Intyre, Mrs. Annie C. Pittman, tertained by recitations rendered by the school. The question, her loss. Nine children seventeen grand children and one great grand child; Also, two brothers and one sister, namely, Mrs. John Lutz, Dallas Center, Iowa; Mrs. Wm. Hull McConnellsburg, Mrs. Wms. Hull McConnellsburg, Mrs. Mrs. Wms. Martha McLaken up, and discussed by J. C. Pittman, tertained by recitations rendered by the school. The question, her loss. Nine children seventeen grand children and one great grand child; Also, two brothers and one sister, namely, Mrs. John Lutz, Dallas Center, Iowa; Mrs. Wm. Hull McConnellsburg, Mrs. Wms. Hull McConnellsburg, Mrs. Wms. Martha McLaken up, and discussed by J. C. Pittman, tertained by recitations rendered by the school. The question, her loss. Nine children and one great grand child; Also, two brothers and one sister, namely, Mrs. Wife of Albert King, of Altoona, and the grave grand child; Also, two brothers and one sister, namely, Mrs. Wife of Albert King, of Altoona, and the leaves to survive him a widow, two daughters—Myrtle grand child; Also, two brothers and one sister, namely, Mrs. Wife of Albert King, of Altoona, and the leaves to survive him a widow, two daughters—Myrtle grand child; Als Reedley district cannot be excelled for production of all kinds of fruit, but is not so good for general farming, as a hot, dry climate refarming, as a hot, dry climate refarming as a ho quires too frequent irrigation to practical hints on holding atten-Reedley is situated on King's held the audience spellbound one tha Lamp of Lenark, Ill. Her his own affairs, and was held in River, a very beautiful stream nour on the importance of attenthe Sierra Nevada mountains, 20 miles southeast of Fresno, the county seat, and connected with the same by both Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads, having five passenger trains each way dealy. It has a provide to the present of the creation of man and following along the lines up to the present; further discussed by Harry Cromwell and Guy Rorar. Followed by lit erary work. The last question in Union cemetery.

The last question in Union cemetery.

The last question in Union cemetery. six miles west of the foothills of tion, beginning with the creation noon. Service conducted by life was spent on the farm where "Personality of the teacher," was opened by T. E Huston, and further discussed by J. C. Cromwell and Daniel Stains. The school played a very active part in the institute, which is a He had neen in usual health until credit to the school as well as the teacher.

The citizens of the community showed their respect for the institute and teacher by their pres ence and good attention. The institute closed by singing "America."-Rosa Rorar, sec.

Good improved orchard land, full bearing, sells for $400 to $500 per bearing, sells for $400 to $500 per Arms Rubeck, composed a spring church. He was also a veteran per acre, with water right, as we wagon load of Frankhir county of the Civil War. He leaves to have to depend entirely on irriga- men who came over to attend the States, is directly east of us and get a good night's rest. As for can be distinctly seen any clear sunshine—we get it here. Last day—although 80 miles distant, season our last rain came April season our last rain came April It is the snow from these 17th. We had no more until Oc mountains melting in summer tober 30th, and only four cloudy heat that furnish our irrigation days. We have had six inches of water. Snow is visible all the raid since October 30th. You her home in Todd township, on Pa; Ellen (Sharp), Tyrone, Pa; time even in the hottest day in can see that our rainy season is Friday last, aged 68 years, 4 Bennett, Alliance, Nebraska; midsummer, I can see the snow not bad. I sometimes feel sorry months and 21 days. The cause Louis and Howard, at Hiawatha, midsummer, I can see the snow not bad. I sometimes feel sorry for my friends in dear old Fulton when I think of them tramping On twenty acres of good irri-gated fruit-bearing land with good care, it will yield a net in weither here, and if any of you come of $2,000 to $3,000 per year; think of changing your residence on average; and sometimes much lighter; and excepting irrigating and pruning, will take no more work than 20 acres of corn. We vantages, the great Creator has we, of course, have some disad vantages, the great Creator has certainly blessed us bountifully.

1 am glad to say that my wife's health, on account of which I came here, is improving, and she is feeling better than for years.

With kindest regards to all my old home friends, I will close.

G. ELLIS SIPES,

Reedley, California.

Route 1, Box 69.

DEATH RECORD.

Moved to California From Needmore The New United Brethren Church at Wal- The Local Death Rate Has Been Unusually Large During the Past Week.

MRS. SARAH A. PITTMAN. Mrs. Sarah A. Pittman, widow Walnut Grove was formally dedi of the late Jacob S. Pittman, died cated on Sunday, February 23d. at her late residence in this place years, 3 months, and 19 days.

Funeral Tuesday afternoon conducted by her former pastor, Rev. Dr. Wm. A. West, of the Presbyterian church, and interment in the Union cemetery.

About three years ago, Mrs. Pittman suffered a stroke of apoplexy, since which time she has been confined to her home. She had been well as usual until last Saturday morning, when she had another stroke, and soon thereafter sank into unconsciousness, and this remained until death came.

though an invalid a long time, was patient and pleasant through was sick but a few days. Fun She is survived by one son, Rev. Charles R. Pittman, a in the cometery at Mercersburg. missionary in Persia; Alice, wife of W. H. McNeil, of Searsboro, Iowa; and Miss Mary who during the long illness remained at was Kerr, and she is survived by two sisters; Mary, widow of John Alexander, Storm Lake, Iowa, and Elmira, wife of Emanuel Smith at Gettysburg.

MRS. ELIZABETH KNAUFF.

her late residence in Ayr townmother. To know her was to on Sunday. love her. She was a member of ALEXANDER SKIPPER.

Alexander Skipper died at his late home at Harrisonville, Tuesday morning, aged about 75 years. ing arisen from bed and building church. the kitchen fire, was attacked by a severe pain in the head and soon thereafter became semi unconscious, remaining in a comatose condition until death came, as be fore stated.

Mr. Skipper was a member of the Greenhill Presbyterian mourn their loss two sons and two tion, the cost of irrigation is 75c per acre the cheapest rate in the state, and the best water supply.

In who came over to accept the daughters, namely, J. Vernon, of Tyrone, Pa.; Howard P., of Waynesboro; Ella, wife of Thomas Metzler, Harrisonville, and Lillie, wife of —— residing at Chattanooga, Tenn. Funeral on Wednesday, conducted by Rev. Dr. Wm. A. West, and interment in the cemetery at the Presbyterian church

at Greenhill. MRS. CATHERINE COWAN,

Mrs. Catharine Cowan, widow of the late John Cowan, died at da (Spangler), of Wells Tannery, of her death being cancer of the Kansas; Edward, John, and Lorstomach. Interment was made enzo, at home; Louise (Stunkard), of the heart, in consequence of on Sunday, March 1, 1908, in the cemetery of Bethlehem United Brethren church, Rev. Henry buried in Clearfield, and Allison, buried in Philadelphia, having interment at Knobsville.

Wolf conducting the service.

Mrs. Cowan's maiden name was Mathias, and she was reared in Dublin township, this county. On January 2, 1862, she was mar-ried to John Cowan of same township. This union existed for 4) years, when in 1902 death claimed the hasband. They were blessed with 8 children; 8 sons, and 5 daughters, all of whom survive her.

William, of Folts, Pa; James, of Bellwood, Pa.; Albert, of Spencer, Ia.; Lazzie (Mrs. J. U. Booth)

Dublin Mills, Pa ; Nettie (Mrs. I. D. Kyle) Newville, Pa; Mgud (Mrs. Albert Ginger) Mercersburg, Pa; Annie (Mrs. James Truax) McConnelisburg: Myrtle, single, who made her home with her mother.

Mathias, New York City; Elizaand died in the faith, prepared to meet her God.

ANDREW J. SHIVES.

Andrew J. Shives died at his late home two miles east of Mercersburg, Friday, February 28, Mrs. Pittman was a woman of 1908, aged 56 years, 3 months, lovely christian character, and all and 25 days. The cause of his death was pneumonia, and he eral on Monday, and interment

Mr. Shives was married to Miss Rachel, daughter of Benjamin Truax, who, with nine children, mourn the loss of husband ments last year cost the County space of about two years, as durhome and tenderly cared for her and father. The family all live in Franklin county, except Benthree years to $2039.70, which ing college towns and he expects could be saved to the County by a school at Dudley, Pa. He having the assessments every leaves one brother, P. P. Shives, our years instead of every year, of McConnellsburg-three half brothers-S. C. Peck, of Thompson, Dayton Shives of Hancock, and Frank Shives of Pleasant Ridge, and two half sisters Mrs. Mrs. Elizabeth Knauff, wife of Lewis Keefer, of Hancock, and the late Michael Knauff, and Mrs. Skyles, of Pleasant Ridge.

JOSEPH A. SHAW.

Joseph A. Shaw, a life long citi kind neighbor and a loving dist cemetery at Center church

Mr. Shaw was a victim of conthe Reformed church for sixty sumption, with which he sufferthree years. She leaves to mourn ed for many years. He was twice and one sister, namely, Mrs. widow, two daughters—Myrtle John Lutz, Dallas Center, Iowa; wife of Albert King, of Altoona,

WILLIAM J. LAYTON.

Mr. William J. Layton died at his home in Whips Cove, Thurs day February 27, 1908, aged 56 years and 3 months. The funer al was held on the following Sun day, services conducted by Rev. Powers of Needmore, and inter ment was made in the cemetery Monday morning, when after hav at the Whips Cove Christian

Mr. Layton was for many years a member of the Christian church and one of the community's most highly respected citizens.

The bereft widow has the in this severe trial.

JOSEPH PALMER.

hence was aged 76 years, 11 months and 4 days. He was a son of David Palmer, and the oldest son of a family of four, name iy, Effamy Mann, buried on the dence by Rev. H. K. Bower of day of Mr. Palmer's death; Thos. the Baptist church. His remains R, and Elijah N., all of whom have died within the last 24 years. Mr. at Mt. Union. Palmer moved from his native home in Beliast township 15 years ago. He is survived by a wife and the following children: James G., of Fairfield, Ill.; Aman passed to the great beyond sever-

Those from a distance to attend the tuneral, were Bennett; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spangler, Mr. Chas. Stunkard, of Pittsburg, and Prot. B. N. Palmer, of Johnsand Prof. B. N. Palmer, of Johnstown, Pa. Mr. Palmer was a loving father, taking an unusual interest in his children. He was an honest upright citizen, carrying with him the respect and esteem of the community in which he lived. Funeral services were conducted at his late resiDR. REMSBURG

terest to Fulton County Citizens.

I have been requested by several farmers to express through She has also surviving her, 2 the News my views relative to ents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wat-brothers and 3 sisters: William the proposed dog law, and of the kins, in Braddock, Pa., occurred NAMES OF VISITORS AND VISITED present mode of assessments.

ca Mort, Burnt Cabins Mother all, farmers. A good dog is an

As to assessments: I think that one assessment every four or five years would be more satstatement published by the commissioners, I see that the assesscould be saved to the County by to take his wife with him. 'our years instead of every year, and would be sufficient to meet the demands in any case. Any person disposing of property could report the same to the ing. County Commissioners, and thus nual assessment plan.

These are, briefly, my views.
Being a candidate for the nommation for Representative, this expression of my views may jeophis colors when requested to do thorough canvass of the County, but will leave the matter to be de cided by the voters.

A. J. REMSBURG, Warfordsburg, Pa. February 29th.

For County Commissioner.

S. A. NESBIT.

The votes of Republicans are solicited at the primaries on April 11th. Mr. Nesbit's wide experience in business and financial affairs makes him sympathy of her many friends an exceptionally desirable candidate. place, and Miss Margaret Whelen Vote for Neshit.

Joseph Palmer died of pneumo nia at his home near NewtonHamilton, February 28, 1908. He solution of soda, and then scoured with a week of pumice stone Baking tins should be washed as clean as possible with a strong was born March 24, 1831, and ed with a piece of pumice stone.

> the Baptist church. His remains and Mrs. Jesse Hastings, died were laid to rest in the cemetery last Saturday.

JOHN IRVIN HAMMIL. late home at Knobsville, Tuesday 28th. The day was very cold and evening, March 3, 1908, aged 70 stormy, though representatives years, 3 months, and 13 days. from four of the live schools were Mr. Hammil had been in failing in the convention. health for a year or more, but it was only a few days ago that he er for the Pennsylvania State S, had a serious attack of neuralgia S. Association, and Rev. Dan-

Besides his widow, he is sur-and enjoyed the esteem of many friends, who sympathize wish the famuly in their loss of husband and father.

STRAIT-WATKINS.

Expresses His Views on Questions of In- Fulton County Young Man Wins Braddock Bride. Happy Couple Were in Town Monday.

At the home of the bride's para quiet wedding last Wednesday Mathias, New York City; Elizabeth Ramsey, Orbisonia; Elizabeth Ramsey, Orb Mr. David R. Strait, a native of Cowan was converted 24 years almost indispensable adjunct of Licking Creek township, this ago, and was a member of Beth. the farmer. He is the sentry county. The ceremony was perlehem church up to her death, that sleeps with one eye open. A formed at 9:30 o'clock by the port, Pa. man pays tax on his dog to-day; Rev. Charles Cartwright, pastor to-night a destructive animal kills of the Methodist Episcopal By her departure we lose one of the best of mothers, and a very kind neighbor. H. W. to the woods-there to be shot ceremony, after which the bridal down oy some petty official. This couple left for Pittsburg, and arwould be tyrannical, and would rived at the home of the groom's be almost enough to make the mother in Licking Creek townfarmer take his gun in defense of ship on Thursday, where they his rights. Such a law should remained until Monday, when have the seal of condemnation on they went to Mercersburg to take the 3 o'clock train for Chambersburg. The groom is a general travel ing agent for the F. B. Dickerson isfactory to most taxpayers than Publishing Company; and as his an annual assessment. By the contract with the firm will not expire until 1910, he says that his wedding trip will occupy the $679.90. This would amount in that time he will be engaged visit

WELLS TANNERY

Mrs. Alice Bevens and Mrs. Al fred Stunkard spent a day recent ly at Mrs. M. E. Horton's quilt-

Mrs. Geo. Swope, who had been at the bedside of her daughbe relieved of paying the tax. been at the bedside of her daughthis would certainly be much ter for awhile, returned Monday.

Mrs. Foote and Cora Truax Mrs. Foote and Cora Truax called on friends one day last

In a recent letter from Miss Nora Stevens, we get the following: "We are having a blizzard ardize my chances to win; but a out here at present- the first this man should not be atraid to show year. We have had such a lovely winter, but this takes the cake. I I shall not be able to make a that sounds fishy, but it is true. horough canvass of the County, Last night, Feb. 17th, the storm great fury-it snowed, and in a father, Mr. Joseph A. Shaw. half hour the ground was covered with snow. Did you ever see a thunder snow storm? Miss Lena Stunkard and brother ond sister William and Mamie, spent a day last week with their friends along the mountain. While G. W. Wilson was cutting off one toe.

Mrs. Harry Spangler was summoned to Mt. Union several days ago to see her father, Joseph Palmer, who was quite ill with pneumonia. Mr. Palmer died last Saturday morning.

er last Friday.

Howard Warsing and Roy ertsdale, Saturday.

George A. Wishart, of Chicago, son of Hon. S. P. Wishart, of this were married on the 27th, ult. Miss Alice returns from India.

Mrs. James Swoope, of Pitts-burg, is visiting G. W. Swoope Mrs. Speck, of Burnt Cabins, visited her cousin, Mrs. J. F. Ear joicing." ley, a part of last week.

Mary Elizabeth, infant of Mr.

The Wells District Sabbath School Association held its annual convention in the Pine Grove, John Irvin Hammil died at his M E. church, Friday, February

> Prof. William Beery, field work-Training Class in the Wells Val-

Besides his widow, he is survived by nine children, namely, Malissa, wife of Leslie McGovern; Sadie, wife of John Gunnels; Mollie, wife of Harvey Wible; Maggie, wife of Bert Kelso, and John, Edward, Daniel, Charles, and William—all of whom live in this county; except Charles.

Mr. Hammil was a good citizen and enjoyed the esteem of many friends, who sympathize with the family in their loss of husband and father.

Training Class in the Wells Valley, M. E., Pine Grove M. E., and the Presbyterian Sabbath Schools.

The following officers were elected for 1908-9: President, W. H. Spangler; Vice-President, Levi Truax; Secretary and Treasurer, E. A. Horton; Teachers Training Superintendent, Robert Earley; Temperance Superintendent, Prof. Horace Griffith; Primary Superintendent, Elizabeth Baker; Home Department, Mra. E. A. Horton.

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Snapshots at Their Comings and Goings Here for a Vacation, or Away for a Restful Outing.

Misses Helen Fore and Mabel Trout are spending a week in Pittsburg.

Mrs, C. B. Stevens is visiting friends in Harrisburg and New-C. W. Peck, of Philadelphia, 18 visiting in the home of his brother, the editor of the News. Mrs. Geo. W. Reisner left Tuesday to visit her mother and sisters in Phiadelphia. Ex-Sheriff D. V. Sipes attend ed a meeting of turnpike managers at Chambersburg Monday.

William Swope and wife, of Pleasant Ridge, spent from Friday until Sunday with Mrs. Ditha Hann, at Wells Tannery. John Motter, who had been spending a couple weeks with his parents near town, returned to Hollidaysburg, Monday. Mrs. David Stevens and two children, of Big Cove Tannery, were interested callers at the News office while in town last Saturday. George W. Sipes and wife, his son-in-law Rowland Starpe, and wife, and grand-daughter, Esther Sipes, came to town in a sled last Saturday. Scott Dickson left yesterday morning for York county where he intends to resume work with F. M. Taylor's engineering corps in the service of the State Highway department. Albert King, formerly of West Dublin, but during the last eight years a resident of Altoona, heldam going to tell you something ing a lucrative job with P. R. R. Co., spent a few hours in town Last night, Feb. 17th, the storm last Thursday. He and his wife came up. It both thundered and were called to this county on aclightened, and the wind blew with count of the death of the latter's

UP IN BLAIR COUNTY.

How Washington and Lincoln's Birthday was Celebrated in Miss Barbara Martin's School.

wood for W. H. Baumgardner, he made a miss-stroke, sinking the account of the way Miss Barbara ax into one foot. Dr. Campbell Martin in the Cove, celebrated was compelled to finish cutting Washington and Lincoln's birthday in her school near Tyrone, says: "A short program consisting of patriotic songs and recitations was rendered by the pupils. The remainder of the time was spent in social games. A number of the girls were attired in the 'Martha Washington' gown Miss Mr. Decker, of Huntingdon, 'Martha Washington' gown Miss who represents the Union Life Helen Beam looked very pretty Insurance Co., visited A. F. Bak. as she represented Martha. Clair Getz, with knee breeches, low Mrs. Elizabeth Brumbaugh, of buckled shoes and a cocked hat, Entriken, is visiting her daugh-ter, Mrs. Ciell Swoope. made a very good representation of "George." "George and Martha" stood under an arch made of Barnett visited friends in Rob- evergreen and draped with bunting, where they received the guests. Misses Ruth Hamer, Virginia Getz and Beatrice Wesley assisted in receiving. About three o'clock Miss Martin very They are now visiting friends in agreeably surprised the school by Wisconsin, and will not visit his requesting everybody to be seathome folks here until his sister, ed and partake of refreshments, which consisted of ice cream, cake and coffee. After having spent a very pleasant time and thanking their teacher for the same the pupils went home re-

QUIETLY MARRIED.

Mr. Harrison Locke and Miss Laura C. Brubaker Wedded at the Washington House Last Wednesday.

In the parlors of the Washington House at high noon on Wednesday of last week, Rev. C. W. Bryner, of the Methodist Episcopal church of this place, united in marriage Mr. Harrison Locke, the popular merchant at Selea Huntingdon county, and Muss Laura C. Brubaker, of Fort Lit tleton, this county. Wednesday afternoon, bride and groom drove out to the home of John M. Kerfin, whose wife is a sister of Mrs. Locke, and remained with Mr. Kerlin's ugal the next day.

The News extends congratula

Spring trade has started with ns now, and we are prepared give you anything you want the hoe of good Talloring. Goldsmith The Tallon,