GOLDSMITH THE TAILOR.

A Lemon Pig.

At a child's birthday party last week, the lemonade was served in lemon shells which had been made to resemble pigs. A slice was cut from one side of each lemon and the juice and the pulp removed. The pointed end was his nose, with cloves for eyes. Matches were used for feet and tail. The slice at the top of the back was returned after the shells were filled. Straws were used. The pigs so delighted the children that they had to be refilled with lemonade several times.

THOUSANDS PERISH.

Each One Gets His Share.

From a bushel of corn the distiller gets four gallons of whisky, which retails at $16.80. The farmer gets 45 cents for his corn, the government gets $1.40, the transportation company gets 80 cents, the owners of the whisky factory gets $4.00, the draymen gets 15 cents, the saloon owner gets $7.00, the consumer gets drunk, his wife gets hungry, his children get ragged, the politician gets office, and the man who votes high license gets the fines of poisoned victims to use in reducing tax on his property. With the exception of the consumer every one who has anything to do with the making and selling of the stuff does so for profit. The consumer drinks the adulterated dope because he is ignorant of its real nature and effects.

The Mouth.

A large, shapely mouth, signifies breadth of mind and toleration of others' peculiarities. Thin lips denote covetousness, greed, selfishness and unless strongly contradicted by some other feature, intense love of power. The more curved and flexible the lips the more yielding the nature. The more straight and firm the lips the more severe the nature. Lips that look as if they had been pressed into a straight line show self-repression, nervousness and obstinacy. A mouth to be perfect should be large and shapely, the corners straight or very slightly inclined to droop; lips neither thick nor thin are firmly but easily closed.
