

Mr. John Mentzer, of Burnt Cabins was in town Tuesday. DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. Sold at Trout's drug store. Charlie Connelly is working for J. W. Mellott this week, on the latter's sawmill.

BARK WANTED.—Saltito Tannery will pay $7.75 per ton for oak bark—1908 peeling. Write C. Greene & Son, Saltito, Pa., for particulars. 3-26-08.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mellott, of Belfast township were town visitors last Saturday.

HIDES WANTED.—Highest market price paid for beef hides, horse hides, wildcat skins, and all kinds of grease, at Paul Wagner's Tannery, McConnellsburg.

Russell Truax and brother Earl, near Needmore, made a trip to McConnellsburg last Monday.

HIDES.—James Sipe & Sons pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

N. L. Finif, of Mount Alto, Franklin county is spending a few days this week on this side of the mountain on business.

To have perfect health we must have perfect digestion, and it is very important not to permit of any delay the moment the stomach feels out of order. Take something at once that you know will promptly and unfailingly assist digestion. There is nothing better than Kodol for dyspepsia, indigestion, sour stomach, belching of gas and nervous headache. Kodol is a natural digestant, and will digest what you eat. Sold at Trout's drug store.

At a congregational meeting in the Presbyterian church after prayer meeting last Wednesday evening, M. R. Shuffner and J. B. Runyan were re-elected trustees for six years—and W. A. Sloan, for four years to fill the unexpired term of Dr. W. L. McKibbin resigned on account of removing from McConnellsburg.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup—the cough syrup that tastes nearly as good as maple sugar, and which children like so well to take. Unlike nearly all other cough remedies, it does not constipate, but on the other hand it acts promptly yet gently on the bowels, through which the cold is forced out of the system, and at the same time it allays inflammation. Always use Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Mock, formerly of the Cove, but for several years residents of Path Valley, Franklin county, are spending this week among their former Fulton county friends. Mr. Mock had a sale a few days ago, and intends to relinquish farming. He and Mrs. Mock expect to spend part of the summer in a trip through the Middle Western States, after which they may return and buy a property and settle down. They are accompanied this week by their grandchildren, Rolla and Hazel Mock.

Birthday Party.
A very pleasant birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Crouse of Big Cove Tannery, Friday evening, March 27, in honor of their daughter Florence's fourteenth birthday. The evening was spent by the young folks in playing games, after which refreshments were served. Florence received a number of beautiful and useful presents. Those present were, Claude and Charles Reeder, Earl Madden, Parker Crouse, Elias Lynch, Harry Bivens, Minerva, Carrie, and Herman Mellott, Dorothy and Mary Kirk, Hazel Crouse, Ethel Reese, Myrtle Beard, Lillian Pott, and Currie Humbert. Every one present spent an enjoyable evening, and all went home feeling that it was good to be there.

AFFORDS PERFECT SECURITY.
Foley's Honey and Tar affords perfect security from pneumonia and consumption as it cures the most obstinate coughs and colds. We have never known a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia after Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken. Trout's drug store.

Wm. King, of Cando, N. Dak., under date of March 20th says: "We have had the mildest winter I have ever seen in North Dakota. While it snowed a great many times in February, but little fell at any one time. At present there are three or four inches of snow on the stubble fields, while the plowed fields are bare."

A COMMON MISTAKE.
Many women mistake kidney and bladder troubles for some irregularity peculiar to the sex. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects irregularities and makes women well. Miss Carrie Harden, Bowling Green, Ky., writes: "I suffered much pain from kidney and bladder trouble until I started to use Foley's Kidney Remedy. The first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely well." Trout's drug store.

Dr. Robert B. Campbell, of New Grenada, was in town today. He was on his return from taking a patient to a Philadelphia hospital, who is suffering with a cancer. During his stay in Philadelphia, Dr. Campbell visited the revival meetings at Bathany church, and heard Dr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander. He was greatly pleased with the preaching of Dr. Chapman and the singing of Mr. Alexander. The audience was immense, and many were turned away, unable to get inside the great room. Dr. Campbell thinks much good is being done, and that the city is moved. —Times—a Week Republican, Mount Union Pa.

James S. Akers formerly of Brush Creek township, but who has resided in Arkansas during the past few years, writes March 24th. "We are well and doing well. The farmers are done planting corn and some of it is up. We have had a very pleasant winter—cool but not too much rain. Only one snow, and that would not go for much up in Fulton county for only a few flakes fell. The prospects are good for a large fruit crop. Peaches are now well set and about 1/2 inch in diameter. We expect to have natural gas soon, which will help boom up our city."

Birthday Party.
A very pleasant social function occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Brant, at West Dublin, last Friday evening, the occasion being the 25th birthday of their son Chester Early. In the evening friends began to arrive, but Chester did not think anything unusual was going to occur. When, however, more friends came in, it dawned upon him that this was his birthday, and his parents had planned to surprise him. He quickly regained his composure, however, and proceeded to entertain his company with music by the graphophone.

Refreshments consisting of cake and ice cream were then served, after which games were played, in which every one present took part and added to the merriment of the occasion. At a late hour the company departed, all knowing they had spent a very pleasant evening, and wishing Chester many more such birthdays. Those present were Dallas Brant, Edwin Erant, Allen Deavor, Sarah Deavor, Howard and Margaret Kirk, Marjorie, Sarah, and Harvey Clevenger; Erra Clevenger, U. S. G. Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Davis, Jesse Laidig, Bernard Foreman, Sarah and Estelle Laidig, Mrs. Margaret Laidig, Drew Laidig, James Edwards, Walter Taylor, James Lyon and daughter Ruth, Merrill Foreman and sister Mary, of Wells Tannery; Goldie Reeder, Rella Reeder, and Harrison Hoover.

ENGLAND SAYS NO ALUM IN FOOD
and strictly prohibits the sale of alum baking powder—
So does France
So does Germany

The sale of alum foods has been made illegal in Washington and the District of Columbia, and alum baking powders are everywhere recognized as injurious.

To protect yourself against alum, when ordering baking powder,
Say plainly—
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
and be very sure you get Royal.
Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar. It adds to the digestibility and wholesomeness of the food.
